

Gemini Spacemen 'On Top of World' At Record Height

Gordon Stands Up in Seat to Photograph High-Flying Sights

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) —Shouting "We're on top of the world," the Gemini-11 astronauts today soared higher and faster than man has ever flown and Richard F. Gordon Jr. later poked the upper half of his body into space to photograph the stars.

"I tell you, you can't believe it!" command pilot Charles Conrad Jr. exclaimed as Gemini 11 rode the power of an Agena rocket 850 miles above the earth over eastern Australia. "Utterly fantastic... the world is round."

After reaching the high outpost twice, the astronauts returned to their original path, which ranged from 180 to 190 miles high.

Opened Hatch
At 8:49 a.m. (EST) Gordon opened his hatch and stood in his seat as Gemini 11 passed high over the Indian Ocean.

For 2 hours, 20 minutes he was to snap scientific pictures of relatively young stars.

Because he only had to stand there, the workload was much less than that which overtaxed Gordon during his space walk Tuesday. Within minutes Tuesday he was breathing and perspiring heavily. His right eye became blinded with sweat, and he had to scurry back to the safety of the cabin.

During the stand-up exercise, Gordon was tethered to the inside of the cabin by four lines—three of them for oxygen, communications and biomedical instrumentation. The fourth was a restraint tether, shorter than the others to prevent the three key lines from breaking.

Selected Stars
Gordon aimed an ultraviolet camera, mounted on the side of the craft, at selected stars.

"We're on top of the world," Conrad reported as they reached the peak of the roller-coaster orbital path.

"Just out of my left window, I can see all the way around to the very end, with the horizon all around," he said.

The record-breaking journey started with a massive jolt of

Edward J. Kubitz, Appleton, Faces First-Degree Count

Edward J. Kubitz, 70, 1422 E. Wisconsin Ave., late Tuesday afternoon was charged with first degree murder in connection with the shooting death Sunday night of his former daughter-in-law, Mrs. Delores Kubitz, 32.

The warrant, was signed at 4:45 p.m. by Outagamie County Judge Gustave J. Keller following a 90-minute John Doe investigation which saw testimony by five witnesses.

The closed door proceeding, presided over by Judge Keller, was called following a conference Tuesday morning in the office of Dist. Atty. Nick F. Schaefer. The John Doe hearing, first in Outagamie County in many years and one of only a few in county history, reportedly was called to obtain a certain piece of potential evidence that otherwise would not have been made available.

Good Condition

Authorities this morning said they were not sure when Kubitz could be arraigned. The Appleton man was reported in good condition at Appleton Memorial Hospital recovering from a shotgun wound in the left foot. He is under 24-hour police guard. Schaefer said Kubitz will be arraigned on his release from the hospital.

Mrs. Delores Kubitz, 1419 E. Amelia St., divorcee and the mother of two young children, was struck in the back by a shotgun blast as she worked in a small garden behind her home about 6:50 p.m. Sunday. She died an hour later at Appleton Memorial Hospital.

Appleton police believe the blast was fired from a 12 gauge shotgun pointed through a 16-by-21-inch window on the second level of the Edward Kubitz garage.

The rear of the Kubitz garage overlooks the back yard of the dead woman's home.

Marx Gets GOP Sheriff Nod By 65 Votes Over Heinritz

Outagamie County Republicans Tuesday gave Undersheriff Norbert J. Marx a 65-vote edge over former sheriff Donald J. Heinritz to run in November against Democrat Robert Main of Kaukauna for the county's top law enforcement post.

Unofficial returns gave Marx

Election tables on Page A-14.

4,615 votes to 4,550 for Heinritz. The official vote canvas probably will be completed later in the week.

The Republican sheriff primary was one of the closest in recent years. However, 1962 saw Heinritz, who then was undersheriff, outpoll City Clerk Elden Broehm by a mere 28 votes for the Republican nod for sheriff.

Unless the official canvas reverses the results, Marx will have been successful in his initial attempt at any type of election. The 53-year-old Appleton man, retired as a detective sergeant after 24 years on the Appleton Police Department.

Sheriff Calvin L. Spice appointed Marx as his undersheriff when he defeated Heinritz in the 1962 general election. Spice reappointed Marx again after winning in 1964. Spice, a Kaukauna resident, has held the sheriff's job for two consecutive terms and therefore, under

Tough Haul, but Voter Finally Makes It to Polls on Time

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP) — Al Larson voted in Arizona's primary election Tuesday but... when!

Larson was working at a sports auto track about 30 miles northwest of Phoenix when flood waters from heavy rain rushed several feet deep through a wash, cutting off his only exit.

Larson telephoned his son in a phone-equipped car, and an airplane was sent. Larson's wife picked him up in a car at the airport and drove him to the polls.

The polling place was a church across the street from Larson's home.

Fled North Vietnamese

San Diego, Calif. (AP) — It was like this for the first American pilot to escape from North Vietnamese and Pathet Lao captors:

"They held a gun at my head and went 'click-click' — ha, ha, American." They beat me and hanged me upside down, putting ants on my face," said Lt. j.g. Dieter Dengler.

"We ate things that crawled through our hut. Once we caught a snake that had eaten two rats. We cut it up and ate the rats, too."

Dengler, a slender, handsome 28-year-old from Pacifica, Calif., spoke with a trace of an accent at a news conference. He was born in Germany and came to the United States in 1957.

Described Ordeal
Tanned, smiling and weighing 143 pounds, 54 more than when a helicopter snatched him from the jungle after five months in a Laotian prison camp run by North Vietnamese, he described his ordeal.

"In one village I was tied to a tree and used for target practice — the guards tried to see how close they could come to shooting me. Another time, he pulled a trigger with the rifle next to my left ear. It caused a deafness that lasted for several months."

Dems Outrun in Primaries For Congress

Incumbent Republican congressmen in the Seventh and Eighth districts Tuesday outpolled Democrats seeking office in those districts while Democrat John Race, Fond du Lac, seeking re-election in the Sixth District, was overshadowed by his GOP competitor Assemblyman William Steiger, Oshkosh, by a 3-to-2 ratio.

Reps. Melvin R. Laird and John W. Byrnes, Republicans, were leading Democratic candidates in the Seventh and Eighth by considerable margins with most of the primary election votes counted.

In the Sixth District, a longtime Republican stronghold, Race faces a stiff challenge from youthful Steiger. Democratic races attracted much voter interest in the district but Steiger received 26,956 votes to Race's 17,773 with 252 of 286 precincts counted.

Byrnes, 53, of Green Bay, is seeking his 11th term in the Eighth District and will face Dr. Marvin S. Kagen, Democrat from Appleton, in November. Byrnes had 26,985 votes to Kagen's 17,523 with all but six of the district's 289 precincts reported.

Rolvaag Victorious Without Backing

WASHINGTON (AP) — Minnesota Gov. Karl F. Rolvaag, rejected for renomination by his own Democratic-Farmer-Labor party, won the chance on his own Tuesday to seek a second term in the Nov. 8 general election.

In another of Tuesday's 11 primary elections, Edward J.

Martin Mrs. Heckler

McCormack, a long-time challenger to the Kennedy clan, captured the Democratic nomination for governor of Massachusetts. He defeated Kenneth P. O'Donnell, a top aide to President John F. Kennedy.

Former House Speaker Joseph W. Martin, 81, lost his bid for Republican nomination to a 22nd term to a 35-year-old housewife and lawyer, Margaret Heckler, in another Massachusetts race. Martin was speaker during the 80th and 83rd Congresses and was Republican leader for 16 years before being toppled in 1959 by Rep. Charles A. Halleck, R-Ind.

Some other races indicated popular support of President Johnson's Viet Nam policies and an apparent white backlash to open housing, the most controversial section in the administration's civil rights bill. But national issues generally were scarce in the campaigns.

Besides Minnesota and Massachusetts, other primaries were held in Arizona, Colorado, Maryland, New Hampshire, New Jersey, Rhode Island, Utah, Vermont and Wisconsin. Voters chose nominees for six governorships, nine Senate seats, and 74 House seats.

$1 Million Damage Estimate

Viet Cong Storm Motor Pool; 4 Killed, 52 Trucks Destroyed

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — In a daring pre-dawn raid, a Viet Cong demolition squad stormed into a military motor pool near Saigon today, captured an American soldier, killed four Vietnamese militiamen and blew up 52 trucks.

U.S. officials estimated damage at $1 million. They said the Communist guerrillas escaped without losing a man.

In the air, U.S. bombers struck at a North Vietnamese missile complex for the seventh day in a row Tuesday.

Entertainment Troupe
One of their first catches was a 13-member Communist entertainment troupe from Hanoi. They also captured three nurses at a Viet Cong hospital.

In another early action, the cavalrymen killed 15 enemy and captured 16 more while sustaining light casualties.

U.S. Army officers said the Viet Cong blasted a huge hole in the barbed-wire fence surrounding the motor pool on the outskirts of Saigon and charged through with guns blazing. A platoon of Vietnamese militiamen on guard pulled out during the initial onslaught. Several militiamen were wounded.

The captured U.S. serviceman was not identified.

Officers said the installation's administrative building was destroyed.

Destroy Missile
The U.S. command also reported that American bombers destroyed one missile when they hit a North Vietnamese missile complex 30 miles northeast of Dong Hoi for the seventh time. That brought to five the number of Soviet-made missiles blown up since Saturday. The site had been a threat to American bombing missions over North Viet Nam.

American planes flew 150 missions over the North Tuesday. Two American planes went down, raising the number of planes lost over the north to 368.

One plane, an F105 Thunderchief, was downed south of Vinh and the pilot was rescued. The other downed craft was a Navy Skyhawk and its pilot is listed as missing.

120 Copters Used

One hundred twenty transport helicopters were used to airlift U.S. 1st Cavalry, Airmobile, Division troops into the coastal valleys near An Khe where U.S. officers said two North Vietnamese regiments were believed to be operating.

The air cavalrymen flushed Viet Cong troops from holes and tunnels but so far had not engaged the main Communist force.

Communist ground fire destroyed one helicopter and damaged five others. Communist gunners also brought down a U.S. Air Force F100 Supersabre jet. The pilot went down with his plane.

power from the Agena at 3:12 a.m. EDT.

"It's going!" Conrad said. "It's really going!"

"Have a good ride," the ground controller told him.

After the first kick of speed the Agena gave Gemini 11 a record as the slowest-orbiting spacecraft. It fell from the usual 17,500 miles an hour to 15,402 before reaching the peak of its outward trip.

Started Downhill

Then Gemini started downhill. It raced faster and faster until it was going at 17,684 miles an hour, faster than man has ever gone before.

The ground controller, asking for instrument readings on radiation as the crew zipped through a fringe of the Van Allen belt, said:

"Sounds like it's safer up there than a chest X-ray."

"Affirmative," answered Conrad.

Before mid-day Navy Cmdr. Conrad and Navy Lt. Cmdr. Gordon planned two more space adventures to round out a triple play:

Other Adventures

—A 140-minute space stand by Gordon in which he is to poke the upper part of his body through an open hatch to take scientific photographs of the stars. It was to start at 8:37 a.m.

—A unique formation-flying experiment, slated to begin at 12:32 p.m., in which they'll swing through space with their craft tied to the Agena by a 100-foot cord.

Experts continued to assess the overwork problem that forced Gordon to terminate his space walk Tuesday after 44 minutes, far short of an intended 115-minute excursion.

Gordon tired quickly, sweated profusely, breathed heavily and reported he was "pooped."

Some of the perspiration spilled into his right eye, partially blinding him, and command pilot Conrad ordered him back to the safety of the cabin.

The general feeling of experts is that working outside an orbiting ship is harder than anyone anticipated and that the Gemini equipment is not adequate to handle the heat and moisture generated by a laboring astronaut.

Final Day

Conrad and Gordon began their final full-day in space with a bang, sending a signal to fire up the engine of the big Agena, to which they have been docked since a record first-orbit rendezvous Monday.

The 16,000-pound-thrust powerplant responded with a 25-second rush of flame that increased Gemini 11's 17,503-mile-per-hour speed by 628 miles and sent it whipping into great 'yo-yo' orbit.

As the space ship darted upwards it surpassed Gemini 10's altitude mark of 476 miles, reaching its own high point for the first time at 4:04 a.m. The tiny craft then started the down slope of its roller-coaster trip toward the 180-mile low point.

Gemini 11 was to continue in this path during two orbits, about 3½ hours, before the astronauts again ignited the Agena to return to the original almost-circular orbit of 180 to 191 miles.

General Path

The ascent to the record altitude occurred on a path generally running from the Canary Islands in the eastern Atlantic to Australia.

On this course, Gemini 11 barely brushed the lower edge of the Van Allen belt of radiation that circles the globe. The Van Allen band in most areas of the world dips down to as close as 400 miles, and in a few areas it comes as near as 100 miles.

Conrad radioed instrument readings of radiation to the ground, however, and mission control said it was "precisely as predicted." The space agency said before the flight that there would be no radiation danger to the pilots.

The pictures that the shutterbug astronauts took as they rose to their record height were important in two respects.

Weather Satellites

Many U.S. Tiro and Nimbus weather satellites are orbiting at around the 800-mile altitude and meteorologists want to compare their black and white pictures with the high-resolution color photos obtained by Conrad and Gordon.

Weather experts feel color pictures would be superior for forecasting, but don't want to invest in an expensive satellite system until they know for certain.

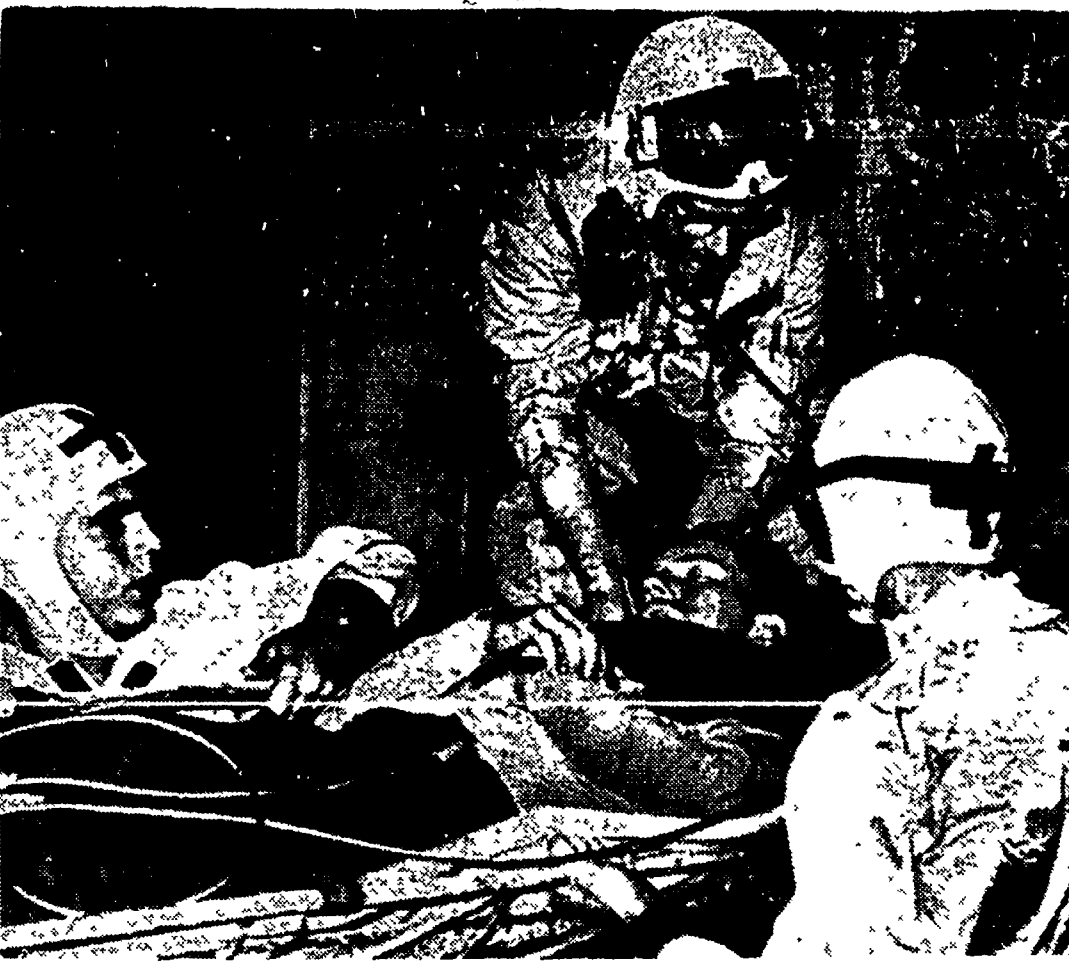

Plenty of clouds came within range of the Gemini 11 camera-men.

Geologists hope the Gemini 11 photos will give them a better idea of the extent of large faults in the earth's surface. Airplanes and lower-flying Gemini and Mercury space ships have shown parts of these faults — breaks in the rock strata. But many are hundreds of miles in length, and hopefully can be captured in full on Gemini 11's film.

Workload Puzzle

Space agency officials continued to puzzle over the workload that brought the sudden end to Gordon's space walk.

"I have no explanation for the Medics Carry Machinist's Mate 2.C. Norman T. Grant, 21, of Vero Beach, Fla., on a stretcher Monday night after he was picked up by helicopter and flown to the USS Guam for an emergency appendectomy. Grant had been on the U.S. destroyer Forrest Royal, which had no surgeon aboard. The Guam has several doctors awaiting recovery of the Gemini 11 astronauts. The two ships had been 420 miles apart. to escape when they overheard guards planning to kill them.

"Lt. Martin and I decided it was better to die in the bush — as free men — rather than in the hands of Communists," he said.

Dengler said he had stolen four guns from the guards' hut. These, and some food, were divided among the group. They killed six guards in the escape. The Navy doesn't know what happened to the other Americans.

"We had no compass and didn't really know our position so we decided to find a river and follow it. We were weak and had to learn to walk again."

Night Worst

"The nights were the worst. Martin and I would lie together face to face to keep warm. We prayed together and we cried together. There was somebody hunting us all the time."

On the 19th day after the escape "we were crawling along a jungle path when this villager jumped out 20 feet in front of us. He yelled 'Americani, Americani' and started hacking Martin with his machete." Dengler said he escaped into a gulch.

"I must have blacked out 20 or 30 times. The last four days

Gov. Rolvaag

A. M. (Sandy) Keith, 37, who bucked Rolvaag in June to win the party's convention endorsement. The governor also seemed to be carrying his slate in three key races against Keith supporters.

GOP Candidates

Rolvaag will face Republican Harold LeVander, 55, a South St. Paul lawyer, who swept past nominal opposition in the GOP primary.

Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey, a former Minnesota senator, took no active part in the primary campaign, although he backed Keith after the party nominated the lieutenant governor on the 20th ballot. He called early today for party unity in support of Rolvaag and predicted his re-election.

Sen. Edward M. Kennedy of Massachusetts, took no side publicly in the Bay State Democratic primary, but promised to support Tuesday's victor in November.

This means Kennedy will be working for McCormack, whom he defeated in a bitter battle for the Senate nomination in 1962, in his general election campaign against GOP incumbent John A. Volpe, who was unopposed. McCormack is the nephew of House Speaker John W. McCormack.

Former Massachusetts Gov. Endicott Peabody, trying for a political comeback, defeated Boston Mayor John F. Collins in the Democratic race for Senate nomination.

Peabody will face in November Republican Atty. Gen. Edward W. Brooke, who was nominated without opposition. If victorious, Brooke will be the first Negro to sit in the Senate in 85 years.

Peabody also defeated a third candidate, Thomas B. Adams, a descendant of President John Adams and John Quincy Adams. Adams campaigned in opposition to the Viet Nam war.

Wisconsin Democrats gave Lt. Gov. Patrick J. Lucey their nomination for governor. Lucey, a staunch supporter of President Kennedy, will face Republican Gov. Warren P. Knowles, who was unopposed for renomination.

Other Primaries

In other primaries Tuesday:

Arizona — Former Phoenix mayor Jack Williams easily won the GOP nomination for governor. Gov. Sam Goddard and Rep. George F. Senner Jr., Democrats, narrowly won renomination.

Colorado — J. Edgar Chenoweth, a House member for 22 of the last 26 years, lost to David W. Enoch in a republican bid for nomination to another term. Democratic Rep. Frank E. Evans, who defeated Chenoweth two years ago, won renomination. Sen. Gordon L. Allott and Gov. John A. Love won GOP renominations.

Maryland — Baltimore contractor George P. Mahoney defeated Rep. Carlton R. Sickles in a tight race for Democratic gubernatorial nomination. Sickles supported open housing. Mahoney opposed it. The winner faces Spiro T. Agnew, county executive of Baltimore County, who won the GOP nomination.

New Hampshire

New Hampshire — Former Gov. Hugh Gregg won GOP nomination to challenge Democratic Gov. John W. King. Retired Brig. Gen. Harrison R. Thyng earned GOP bid to try unseating Sen. Thomas J. McIntyre, a Democrat. Rep. J. Oliver Huot, a freshman Democrat and supporter of President Johnson's Viet Nam policies, won renomination against William F. Horan Jr., who argued that only volunteers should be sent to Viet Nam. In another Democratic House race marked by the Viet Nam controversy, administration supporter William Barry Jr. downed Eugene S. Daniell Jr., a sharp foe of Johnson's war policies.

New Jersey — Warren W. Wilentz, a supporter of administration Viet Nam policies, captured the Democratic Senate nomination from David Frost, a vehement critic of the war. Wilentz will challenge the Republican Sen. Clifford P. Case, unopposed in the primary.

Rhode Island — Lt. Col. Ruth M. Briggs, a retired WAC, defeated conservative Charles H. Eden in the GOP senatorial race and will oppose Democratic incumbent Clairborne Pell in November. Rep. Ferdinand J. St Germain won a tight Democratic battle for renomination.

Kubitz suffered a badly torn left foot which he told police he received when a gun he was unloading accidentally discharged. His wife had wrapped a large, plastic bag around the bloody foot before police arrived at the shooting scene.

Tuesday's John Doe hearing and the subsequent signing of the warrant came following nearly two full days of intensive investigation and numerous closed door conferences in offices of police and the district attorney.

State Crime Lab

The Wisconsin State Crime Laboratory had agents in Appleton from mid-morning, to late evening Monday. They centered their investigation and gathering of evidence primarily on the scene of the shooting.

Two police detectives met with Schaefer from 9 a.m. to 12:15 p.m. Tuesday.

The last first degree murder warrant issued by Outagamie County authorities was in February, 1961, following the fatal shooting of a 26-year-old Kaukauna mother in her home.

Schaefer also prepared the warrant in that case.

MOSCOW (AP) — The U.S. Embassy has asked the Soviet government to release an American Peace Corps volunteer arrested at the Soviet-Iranian border, an embassy spokesman said today.

The spokesman said Thomas Rozelle Dawson, 24, serving with the Peace Corps in Iran, was picked up by Soviet border guards Sunday while walking near Astara on the Caspian Sea. Dawson is from Annapolis, Md. "Dawson was headed toward the border in all innocence," an embassy spokesman said. "We are undertaking appropriate measures to seek his release."

Youths Riot in French Colony

DJIBOUTI, French Somaliland (AP) — Bands of youths shouting, "Long live independence!" rioted Tuesday night and police intervened, leaving a reportedly large number of injured.

The rioters swarmed into several police stations, sacking them and setting them afire. Police, Mobile Guards and Foreign Legionnaires battled with the rioters and hurled concussion grenades, which make a noise but do not kill. Armored cars with heavy machineguns were moved into the troubled quarters.

The new trouble followed severe disturbances in late August when French President Charles de Gaulle visited this colony on the Gulf of Aden. Four demonstrators were killed and 70 injured in those riots.

Noisy Birthday Planned as Fischer Quints Reach No. 3

ABERDEEN, S. D. (AP) — Jimmy, Cathy, Margie, Mary Ann and Maggie — the Fischer quintuplets—celebrate their third birthday today on their parents' 800-acre farm. The party should be a noisy one.

Friends say the quints are a very talkative group with Jimmy, the biggest, having the most to say. With their brother and five sisters, all under 11, joining in, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Fischer should have their hands full passing the ice cream and cake.

The party will be private, however, and the Fischers have decided not to disclose what gifts the youngsters are getting.

The quints are described as healthy and lively. Three wear glasses to correct weak eye muscles. Jimmy apparently prefers playing with his brother Danny, 10, rather than his sisters.

Residents of this Northern Plains city of 20,000 rarely see the children. When they do catch a glimpse of them, it's usually as the Fischers drive by in their station wagon.

Fischer, who was a $76-a-week warehouse shipping clerk when the quints were born, now operates the farm he bought near the southwest edge of Aberdeen. The family lives in a 17-room house, about a half-mile from the highway.

2 Veteran Senators Beaten in Primary

Reapportionment Blamed for Showing; Alfonsi Uncontested

MILWAUKEE (AP) — Two veteran Republican state senators, their support severely sapped by reapportionment, were discarded by the voters of their party in Tuesday's primary after serving a total of 40 years in the legislature.

Sen. Earl Leverich of Sparta, the crusty arch-rival of oleomargarine, lost his bid for an eighth term on an outpouring of votes in the home county of his opponent, Raymond C. Johnson, an Eau Claire lawyer. Eau Claire County, which gave Johnson a 2,489 to 715 edge, had been added to Leverich's district by the 1964 reapportionment.

An equally bitter outcome awaited Peter Carr of Janesville. Walworth County was annexed to the 76-year-old Carr's district by the court-decreed realignment of boundaries, and from Walworth County came the man who beat him, Assemblyman George Borg of Delavan.

Eighth Term

A third GOP senator jeopardized by reapportionment, 76-year-old Frank Panzer of Brownsville, staved off a double-pronged challenge by two Watertown hopefuls to win nomination for an eighth term.

In one of the closest races in the primary, Sen. Gordon Roseleip, R-Darlington, had to wait until the vote from the last precinct was counted before he knew he won over former Assemblyman Walter Calvert of Benton.

With only one ward from Roseleip's home town not reporting, the chubby candy store owner led by only nine votes. A 448-144 margin gave him an unofficial 9,120 to 8,857 victory.

35 Contests

In the Assembly where 35 of the incumbent lawmakers faced opposition, only one Republican and three Democrats failed to win renomination with results from all but six of the 100 districts tabulated.

Former Assembly Minority Leader Paul R. Alfonsi, R-Minocqua, appealing his conviction on a bribery charge, and Assemblyman Willis J. Hutnik, R-pot, however, is only the top of the iceberg. Accounting also must be accomplished at 13 sub-depots and at 76 general warehouses, 21 cement warehouses and over literally thousands of square yards of open storage areas where supplies have piled up.

In relation to the more than $300 million in equipment and materials ordered by the contractor, the amount of "out-and-out-stealing" probably will be small," he said.

"I'm sure—but I can't document this—that some truck drivers hauling our stuff, in-country quite often just drive down an alley and come out with the load cut in half," the officer said. "We can't have a supervisor on every truck."

"And then there are kids who pitch off boxes and crates of supplies even while the truck drives through Saigon," he said. "It's a problem, but what can you do about it?"

Above and beyond the stolen goods are more millions lost because of damage or deterioration, he said. Some goods have been broken up when dumped ashore; lumber has rotted in open storage; literally tons of cement have hardened into 100-pound blocks when drenched in the rain.

Arrangements can be worked out.

The brother of the late President definitely has an Oct. 9 trip to Wisconsin planned. Sen. Edward Kennedy, D-Mass., will campaign for Lucey here Oct. 27.

The dates had been scheduled long before the primary outcome was fact.

Although Abe Swed, who ran fourth, joined Frinzi in appearing at Lucey's victory celebration, Carley was a conspicuous holdout. But Lucey was just as careful not to step on Carley's toes in his victory celebration.

Lucey pulled from his pocket three pages of flimsy, yellow paper on which he had written his formal statement earlier in the day. In it he praised the three Democratic losers and asked their active campaign support.

Today he started back down the trail to visit each of the 72 counties again.

With typical Lucey thoroughness, the schedule already had been mapped out in advance.

British Exports To Red China Are Increasing

Up 50 Per Cent Over Same Period During Last Year

LONDON (AP) — British exports to Communist China during the first six months of 1966 are up 50 per cent over the same period last year.

The Sino-British Trade Council, which handles commerce between the two countries, said exports for the first six months amounted to 15 million pounds sterling or $42 million, compared with 10 million pounds sterling or $28 million for the same period in 1965.

Britain has banned shipment of strategic goods, but chemicals, fibers and engineering machinery — in demand by the Chinese — are not on the prohibited list.

The total U.S. ban on trade with China prevents Britain from shipping goods which include U.S. components.

Trade Council Secretary John Keswick said trade is going well, "but the obscure political situation there is making it difficult to get decisions on major matters at present."

Communist China is presently in the throes of a purge of old ideas, wealth and things foreign.

"The political situation is not good. And China is disappointed by our support of U.S. policies in Viet Nam," Keswick said. "But in spite of that our chances are as good as anyone's," he added.

Most British exporters agree that great patience is needed to trade with China. Total exports last year amounted to $72.2 million.

Pinscher Thrives On Scrap Metal

LONDON (AP) — Jason was a fine dog, but every time he moved he rattled.

"It was unnerving," his owner, James Gerard, said today.

"As time went on, he rattled more and more, so I finally took him to a vet," he said.

The animal doctor diagnosed that the seven-month-old Doberman Pinscher was suffering from an occupational disease. Not his own but his master's.

Jason's owner is a scrap-metal merchant in suburban Ilford and Jason had been swallowing the merchandise.

X-rays confirmed the diagnosis and Monday night they operated on the dog.

From his stomach and intestines the vet removed seven ball bearings and a curtain rail fixture. Each of the ball bearings was an inch in diameter.

Jason appears to be recovering.

Lawrence Starts 119th Year With First Classes Sept. 26

Lawrence University will open its 119th year with the arrival of 326 freshmen on Sept. 21 and the beginning of classes Sept. 26.

The freshman class has been reduced about 80 students from last year's 405 because of a lack of dormitory space resulting from a higher than normal upperclass retention. More than 1,500 applications were received for the incoming class.

Lawrence's total enrollment is expected to be about 1,300, compared with an actual 1,313 last fall.

New to the campus this fall is the $376,648 health center, which has been added as a wing to Colman Hall. It will have space for 16 patients, with the possibility of overflowing into the Colman guest wing should the need for more space arise. New facilities in the center will be a psychological counseling and testing suite, rooms for heat and hydro-therapy, and isolated bedrooms for contagious diseases.

New Construction
A site is now being cleared and construction will soon begin on the seven-story Ruth DeYoung Kohler Hall for 125 women, scheduled for occupancy in September, 1967. Also under way is Jason Downer Food Service Center, with a seating capacity of 600, which will contain the famed Milwaukee-Downer College teakwood room which has been in storage since the Lawrence-Downer merger in 1964. The high-rise design for Kohler Hall was chosen to preserve the green span along E. College Avenue.

New on the academic scene is a "pass-fail" plan in which juniors and seniors may elect a maximum of four courses in which a grade of pass or fail will be substituted for the usual scaled grade. Purpose of the plan is to encourage the hesitant student and to emphasize educational experience rather than grade-getting.

Twenty-seven new appointees will be on the faculty and staff, and 11 faculty members are on leave of absence. Nineteen of last year's staff either resigned or ended their formal appointment period.

New Instructors
New instructors are Paul M. Haberland, German; John S. Haines, economics; J. Michael Hittle, history; Anne C. Johnson, history; Kent A. Kirwan, government; Charles Krance, French; Janice M. Marciano, music; Hugo Martinez, Spanish; Albert E. Neal, psychology; D. Wayne Ready, French; Theodore W. Ross, geology; Jerry C. Schwartz, art and Andras Szentkiralyi, music.

Administrative staff additions are Edward B. Wall, director of admissions; David C. Moore, director of university food services; Charles A. Judge, assistant dean of men and coordinator of financial aids programs; Earl H. Verkins, controller; Peter J. Thomas, director of annual funds, and Lynn E. Anson, alumni secretary.

Dean Francis L. Broderick, who came to Lawrence in March as dean of Lawrence and Downer Colleges, and professor of history, will begin his first full year in office.

On Leave
On leave of absence for scholarly work, mostly in Europe, are: William A. Chaney, history; James W. Ming, music; Bertrand A. Goldgar, English; Marjory Irvin, music; Leonard O. Pinsky, philosophy; Mojmir Povolny, government; Harold K. Schneider, anthropology; Arthur A. Thrall, art; Jules N. LaRocque, economics; David Mayer III, theater and drama, and Richard W. Zuehlke, chemistry.

Retirements that took effect in June were those of Gladys S. Calbick, Spanish; Stephen F. Darling, chemistry; W. Paul Gilbert, physics; and Olga A. Smith, biology.

Swim Pool Attendance Hits 186,890

The Appleton Recreation Department reported today that attendance at the city's two municipal pools this summer totaled 186,890.

Mead Park pool, with 100,393 attendance, posted a 6,500 gain over last year.

However, attendance at Erb Park pool dipped from 91,683 in 1965 to 86,497 this year.

The total attendance at both pools was an increase of 6,489 over 1965.

The drop in activity at Erb Pool was attributed to the few days early in the season when it was closed due to a leak, and water pumpage restrictions.

Deadline Set to Register for Classes in Art

KAUKAUNA — Registrations for fall and winter art classes, sponsored by the recreation department, will continue through Sept. 28 with classes scheduled to get underway Oct. 1, according to James Gertz, recreation director.

Registration can be made by calling Mrs. Roger Belling, instructor, after 5 p.m. Mondays through Wednesdays or any time on Thursdays through Saturdays. Registration blanks can also be secured at the recreation department office and mailed to Mrs. Belling.

Students using the latter method will be contacted by the instructor to confirm schedules. Classes will be offered on the primary, intermediate and upper grade school levels as well as for high school and college students and adults.

Classes are set up according to age of the students, previous art training and ability.

Red Guard Power Play Not a Permanent Thing

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst
WASHINGTON (AP) — It is a commonplace now that the Red Chinese are dangerously unpredictable. Among the reasons for it, and one of the best symbols of it, are the Red Guard youth brigades created by the Red leadership.

These brigades have been turned loose by Mao Tse-tung and those close to him to frighten and club the Chinese people into a vast conformity: unquestioning acceptance of the leadership and edicts of Mao and his clique.

There's one thing wrong with the idea.

It is axiomatic that power is only a temporary possession. Dissent can be hushed but not crushed, even though it lies dormant for a generation. Unless the reasons for the dissent are altered, the dissent remains.

Power to Hush
It may be silenced through force for the lifetime of the aging Mao. He will retain the power to hush it so long as he remains No. 1 man with the support of those who share his views or who figure they can benefit by his favors.

Perhaps the irritations and disagreements causing the dissent will become too intense to wait until he dies to express themselves.

But once he is gone the dissatisfactions of the discontented — whether they are intellectuals, factory hands, farmers or shopkeepers — will assert themselves.

This is so obvious the use of the Red Guards by the Mao leadership is an indisputable sign of its political, social and emotional immaturity. It is one of the factors which make the Red Chinese regime look frightening.

Not Recovered
The immaturity has shown itself in various ways. For instance, the impulsive and disastrous "Great Leap Forward" of a few years ago, an experiment in stepped-up communism from which Red China has not yet recovered.

The immaturity has been displayed in its ragged and disastrous foreign policy which in the past couple of years has suffered one setback and humiliation after another around the world.

But the immaturity is coupled with stupidity, which makes it doubly painful. Red China, preaching world communism and proclaiming itself the leader of it, has revealed that its basic compulsion is the crudest nationalism.

Thus it has alienated itself from the rest of the Communist world with its vilification of the Soviet Union and its childish and primitive effort to claim a monopoly on Red wisdom.

Around Longer
The Soviet Union has been around longer and through time, power and other devices has attached to itself the loyalty of other Red states. More than just Chinese hissing will be needed to shake them loose.

This is not to suggest that the United States, the Soviet Union and the other big powers are not equally nationalistic in their basic motives, but they are a little more subtle about it except perhaps for France, which is crude on that.

But if immaturity makes the Mao regime look emotionally unstable, so do its inferior feelings about its lack of industrial development (while shouting like a giant), other forms of progress, and the fact it is not yet a nuclear power, while the Soviet Union and the United States are. No wonder those nations are its two main targets.

Big Talker
It could be assumed Red China would talk big and do little until it is a No. 1 world power for fear that war with the Soviet Union or this country would bring the ruin of such nuclear development as it has. This is strictly an assumption.

But any country resorting to the Red Guard tactics is erratic and unstable.

Understandably, the Johnson administration is avoiding anything — like an invasion of North Viet Nam — which might make the Red Chinese feel compelled to go to war.

The best hope for a maturing and stable China seems to be in the obvious evolutionary process: eventual change in leadership and new conditions, internally and externally, for which the Mao maxims clearly hold no solutions.

2,748 Enrolled in Kaukauna Public School System

KAUKAUNA — Enrollment in the public school system for the 1966-67 school year is 2,748, an increase of 113 over last year, according to figures released Tuesday by Julian Bichler, superintendent of schools.

The increase would have been higher, but the start of freshmen and sophomore classes at the new public high school in Little Chute has taken many students of School District No. 1 who formerly attended classes in Kaukauna.

High school enrollment for the year is 1,280 which represents seven more students than last year. Grade school enrollment is 1,468 or 106 more than last year.

Enrollment by grades in the high school shows 326 freshmen, 316 sophomores, 322 juniors and 316 seniors. Park School enrollment is 445, Nicolet School has 303, Harrison School has 72 and Quinney School has 648.

There are 432 in kindergarten, 263 first graders, 125 second, 111 third, 98 fourth, 109 fifth, 105 sixth, 90 seventh, 120 eighth and 15 in a special class.

Pigs Taught to Guard Home, Fetch and Carry

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP) — Things a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail:

Each day of the year, about 4,500 U.S. schoolchildren start smoking.

At a Little Rock, Ark., zoo, pigs have been taught to guard the home, fetch and carry and even retrieve game birds shot in the field. But when a burglar is surprised in our home we want an animal around that can do more than merely grunt at him reproachfully.

Depending on your viewpoint, you will be either delighted or dismayed to learn our fast-growing population now includes 22 million teen-agers.

Quotable notables: "Character is made by what you stand for; reputation by what you fall for" — Alexander Woolcott.

Now read and ponder this, all you young, long-haired beatniks: Dermatologists have found that overhanging hair on your forehead helps concentrate bacteria and — here's the real jolt — can make your acne worse. Yep, that's right — acne!

Time to Live
Still time to live; retirement is by no means the end of the road for a man, although many men feel that way. At 65, mortality tables show, a man can look forward to nearly 13 more years of watching sunrises and sunsets, and listening to his wife.

Did you fail to swat a couple of houseflies early last April? If they and all their offspring had survived, the entire earth by the end of this month would be covered a foot deep in houseflies.

Quips from our contemporaries: Catholic Digest magazine reports on the tot who, while touring a farm, saw a colt. "Look, Daddy!" he exclaimed. "A foreign horse!"

History lesson: What U.S. president first campaigned in a foreign language? In 1880 James A. Garfield, who had studied Latin, Greek and German in college, often spoke to German immigrant groups in their native tongue.

Takes After Mom
Don't admit this to your son, but if he's a bad speller it may be your fault. Scientists have found that word fluency is one of the mental abilities most influenced by heredity. Of course, you can always say your kid takes after his mother's side of the family.

Worth remembering: "Socrates was a Greek philosopher who went around giving good advice. They poisoned him." Folklore: It's okay to move in a new house on Monday or Wednesday, unlucky on Friday. The perching of an owl on a home predicts the death of an occupant. People with large eyes are benevolent. If soap slips out of your hand, you'll soon lose money.

It was playwright Channing Pollock who first observed, "No man in the world has more courage than the man who can stop after eating one peanut."

Hassle Created by State Board Action

Vocational Members Divided On $3 Million Budget Request

Post-Crescent Madison Bureau

MADISON — A major hassle broke out Tuesday at the normally unified State Board of Vocational, Technical and Adult Education. Department over suggested state aid in the construction and equipping of new area technical institutes being established throughout the state.

The board in a 5 to 4 vote accepted a budgetary item which allows for the expenditure of $2 million during the next biennium for the financing of equipment at new schools which must be established by 1970. But in a 6 to 3 ballot, the board tabled a motion which would have included an additional $3 million in the 1967-1969 budget for state aid in the construction of the local institutes required under a law passed by the 1965 Legislature.

The argument developed during consideration of a proposed $58,328,000 budget for the next two years. The budget, as approved will be submitted with possible minor corrections to the state Coordinating Committee for Higher Education for study.

Included in the last biennial budget was a request for $3 million for such building construction purposes, but then Gov.-elect Warren P. Knowles struck it from the proposal, saying that a bill he had authored while a state senator made such a proposal illegal.

Clarence Greiber, state board director, reported to the board that before Knowles removed the request from the budget the state board had received an informal opinion from the attorney general's office stating that such state aid would be legal. Greiber said that no state aid for equipment was requested in the last budget, however.

Vice president of the state board, Joseph Noll, Kenosha, told the board that to insist on state participation in the construction costs of the new institutes would mean applying a standard of double taxation on the local taxpayers for the same purpose. Under the terms of the law enacted, the area districts, still to be set up, may tax up to two mills on the equalized valuation of the district.

State support would just inspire local vocational officials to look to the state for financial aid rather than raise it themselves, he said.

Assume Responsibility
Phillip Lerman, state board president, Milwaukee, objected that many persons who object to federal aids are unwilling to assume state responsibility for projects which must be supported in some way. Monday evening at a meeting of the state board executive committee, Lerman said that "The state board is going to have to bring to the attention of the legislature the problems of building the new vocational institutes. This is something that no one wants to talk about, but it is not something that we can stick our heads in the sand about."

Noll replied that local responsibilities in the area institutions are primary, and that area taxpayers must finance the new institutions.

State Industrial commissioner Gene Rowland told the board that the development of the new institutions does not compare to the establishment of university centers in the state.

Localities finance the construction of the centers, he pointed out, but the state pays for the staffing and the equipping of the schools. The state also maintains full administrative control over the centers once operating. The institutes will be under area vocational board control, which will in turn operate under the general guidance of the state board.

"Maybe we should have control of the institutes," Rowland said.

Shared Cost Program
Voting for the motion to finance equipment additions for the new schools through a shared cost program were Lerman, Arthur Hitt of Alma, Kermit Veum, Westby, State Supt. of Public Instruction William Kahl, and A. E. Mueller, Watertown.

Opposed to the inclusion in the budget of the program were Noll, Harry Haycock, Sussex; William Benjes, Baraboo, and Rowland.

On the vote to table the construction aids program until the area districting plan is completed in December, Kahl and Veum switched sides on the vote for tabling. The other votes remained the same.

The request may then be added to the budget.

Included in the biennial budget are requests for about $34,428,000 to finance vocational education programs over the next two years, and for about $23,909,000 for the separate vocational rehabilitation section of the department for the biennium.

Total increase for the biennium for vocational education over the 1965-67 budget is $3,721,000, of which $7,180,000 will be furnished if approved in an increase in state funding for the program.

Federal Funds

The bulk of the increase in vocational rehabilitation funds will be supplied, it is expected, from federal funds. About $7,754,000 of the $9,897,000 biennial increase is supplied from federal aid sources.

The state board also approved allocation of $230,000 of state fund for the purchase of a 96-acre site and partial payment of architects fees for the new Marathon County vocational institute in Wausau. The new $3.6 million vocational institute is to be in operation by the fall of 1968.

In other actions, the state board also:

—Approved the establishment of a practical nurse training course at the Sheboygan vocational, technical and adult school. Noll asked that after the action a 90-day moratorium be placed on all such further actions, pending the establishment of the area districting plan. The board agreed that a study would be made of the proposal for reporting at its next meeting.

—Approved the reinstatement of a rural homemaking program in the Wabeno School system.

—Received a report on the progress of vocational area districting hearings being held throughout the state, and heard that the tentatively accepted total of 15 districts may be raised to between 16 and 18.

—Was told by Adrian Towne, director of the vocational rehabilitation section of the state department, that Wisconsin ranks first among the major states in the percentage of positive change in rehabilitation of persons over the past year.

The state rehabilitation total increased 41 per cent in fiscal 1966 over fiscal 1965. The 1966 total was 4,550, and projections for 1967 are about 6,000, Towne said.

Turnout of Voters at Low Mark

A small percentage of Outagamie County voters turned out Tuesday to cast ballots in a primary election with few surprises.

Unofficial totals showed 13,785 persons voted in the county. Appleton's total was 8,712 and Kaukauna's was 1,010.

The county total in the 1962 primary was almost 18,000.

Samples of the small turnout showed up in Kimberly, where 537 of 2,282 eligible voters appeared at the polls and New London's Third Ward, where the vote total was 109 of a possible 580.

Less than 30 per cent of those eligible cast ballots in Winnebago County, and in Waupaca County the vote was called "unbelievably small."

Waupaca County voters cast about half as many ballots as did Calumet County, where local contests attracted voters.

The small turnout brought returns in early. Town of Horton's 72 votes were counted and reported at 6:40 p.m., the first in Outagamie County. The last was Town of Ellington, where 166 votes were cast.

precincts reporting.

Marx started the race with a 33-19 edge in the Town of Horton and Heinritz returned with a 16-8 margin in Deer Creek.

Indicative of the constantly close contest were the tie votes in the Town of Black Creek (28 each) and the Town of Oneida (13 each). In only a couple of the towns and villages did one candidate or the other show an impressive edge.

Kaukauna Republicans supported Marx over Heinritz 260-174.

Marx carried the county by 252 ballots while Heinritz showed a 187-vote edge in the city of Appleton, although he and Marx split evenly in the number of precincts on their plus lists—each with 10. Each candidate carried his own ward—Heinritz the ninth and Marx the 10th.

Last Two Towns

With only the Towns of Greenville and Ellington not reporting, Heinritz held a 39 vote lead over Marx. Greenville reported at 10:20

Wednesday, Sept. 14, 1966

The Post-Crescent A-9

p.m., with Republicans there giving Marx the edge 158 to 111. That put Marx 13 votes in the lead.

Ten minutes later, Ellington came in with a 94 to 42 count for Marx, giving him the unofficial victory.

There were no other county contests for either party. Dist. Atty. Nick F. Schaefer was the county's biggest vote getter, with an unofficial 7,989 total, followed closely by Coroner Bernard H. Kemps with 7,938.

Neither faces a contest in the November election.

As it stands now, the only county contests on the ticket Nov. 8 will be for sheriff and county clerk. Incumbent Republican Clerk Mollie E. Pfeffer polled 7,735 votes in Tuesday's primary, while her November contender, Genevieve Andersen of Kaukauna, counted 3,400.

Other vote totals were as follows: Treasurer Peter Berg, 7,105; Clerk of Courts Sydney Shannon, 7,751; Register of Deeds Dominic P. Peeters, 7,897; Surveyor Frank Charleworth, 7,749. All are Republicans facing no opposition in November.

The Election in Viet Nam

The impressive turnout of voters in Viet Nam in the election to choose delegates to an assembly to write a constitution for that country heartened all of us who fervently hope that a stable government with some trappings of democracy can eventually emerge in that war-torn land. Over 80 per cent of those eligible to vote turned out at the polls.

Even by American standards an 80 per cent turnout at an election is unheard of. But it is amazing considering all the obstacles put in the way of the Vietnamese citizens. There is the practical difficulty of just getting around in that country today, particularly in the rural and jungle areas. The Communist Viet Cong tried every strong-arm tactic imaginable to dissuade voters from participating. And radical Buddhist elements were calling for a boycott of the election.

But before we jump to the conclusion that a democratic form of government in Viet Nam is assured, the election results must be put into perspective. In the first place there is no calculating what percentage of the total Vietnamese population this includes. In the province of Bac Lieu, for example, the population is estimated at 250,000, although there has not been a census for 50 years. Only 70,000 of these were registered to vote. The Ky government was the judge of what citizens were eligible. And since large areas of Bac Lieu province are under the control of the Viet Cong, those areas were not even solicited.

The 117 delegates chosen in the election will meet Sept. 26 to begin the difficult job of writing a constitution. Premier Ky, in a press conference hailing the election results as "the beginning of the end for the Communists," said the assembly should finish its work "as soon as possible." But that could mean many months, even years.

It is much too early to hope that the conversion of the military dictatorship in Viet Nam into a popular government will proceed at a pace which might solve all our problems there. But certainly the impressive voter turnout was a necessary first step in that direction.

Appointing a Recreation Director

Unfortunately, the appointment of a new city recreation director for Appleton has become a "messy" issue and is mired in personalities and politics, a somewhat unwholesome combination.

When the longtime director recently retired, the Commission advertised for applications, and in keeping with the terms of the hiring ordinance, a degree in recreation was one of the requirements. However, a local applicant with considerable experience lacked a degree and this requirement was altered.

However, the alteration came after the State Bureau of Personnel had given the five applicants written examinations and the results had been turned over to the Commission's chairman. The latter insisted on the ordinance revision, and the City Council went along, so the local man would then be eligible for oral interviews by which applicants are also rated.

The changing of the rules of the game after the written tests had been given is not in keeping with the past policy of Appleton city government in which every above board effort is made to see that the best man for the job gets the position.

Certainly, no matter what the outcome of oral interviews and the final appointment, there is bound to be embarrassment, along with a question mark in the minds of all applicants as to how the Park-Recreation Commission does business.

Normally a panel, consisting of some third parties, is asked to participate in oral interviews, and in this case the National Recreation Association has offered its cooperation. But for some unknown reason, the Commission chairman has taken the position, "We don't need any outsiders to tell us what to do."

The Commission is treading on dangerous ground, and it could really become involved if it follows the same procedure when the time comes to hire a new park superintendent after the first of next year.

Higher Education Name Calling

Regents of the University of Wisconsin spent some time at their meeting last week discussing what name to call what used to be known as university extension centers. Several years ago the term "extension" was dropped and they have been called simply "centers." Then a few weeks ago the university announced that henceforth they would be called "campuses."

Protest and confusion arose around the state. So President Fred Harrington asked the regents for their advice. He didn't get much help. With the University of Wisconsin already operating two universities and set to operate two more, and with nine other state universities operating under another board of regents, and with both systems operating extension centers or branch campuses or whatever you want to call them, the situation is to say the least confusing to everyone.

We would have wished, however, that the regents would have used the valuable time they spent on this subject to discuss the future of the extension center or center or campus operated in Menasha for the Fox Cities. The problem of that center is growing desperate, and students will have to be turned away next fall if the physical facilities are not expanded almost immediately.

The situation was complicated enough with Outagamie and Winnebago Counties jointly financing the structure and with Winnebago's interest lying much more in expanding Oshkosh State University where the state picks up all the bills. But it became even worse when the new university was located at Green Bay and Brown County will as a result be relieved of the responsibility of maintaining and expanding their center.

Some leadership by the university and its regents in helping to solve our problem would be greatly appreciated.

The Saddest Victims

The major victims of war and the most pathetic are children and those in Viet Nam are no exception.

There are thousands of Vietnamese orphans in that unfortunate country now and they are increasing with every battle and in another way with every shipload of American troops. For the orphans are of two kinds; those left parentless by the death of their parents in the vicious jungle guerrilla war and those fathered by American servicemen.

The luckier ones go to a number of orphanages, many operated by Roman Catholic orders, and then on to adoption. Since the Korean war, Americans have increasingly opened their homes and families to Asian children. They are doing the same for the Vietnamese although some are also adopted by Vietnamese families. The illegitimate ones, half white or Negro and half Vietnamese, do not seem to have the same stigma as has been attached to such children in some other Asian areas. And while some Vietnamese families "adopt" children really to use as servants, those who come to the United States are fortunate indeed.

There is no solution to the tragedy of maimed children, those who sleep in doorways and live by begging or shining shoes, and the tiny babies whose parents die in bombed village huts. However much we insist that we fight only the aggressors, the victims are often children. And even though we know that many of the small ones would have died anyway in poor Viet Nam of starvation, malnutrition or disease, the feeling of some sense of guilt remains.

Old Market Hands Give Rules About What to Do in Bear Market

BY HENRY J. TAYLOR

The bear is an animal given to secret thinking. You never know when he is planning to tear you apart. That's equally true of bear stock markets.

We're in one. Bull and bear markets are defined by prices, way down. One's own losses are the proof of error. Great numbers of people will buy a stock at 6, expecting it to advance. Unexpectedly, it drops to 50. They buy more, and perhaps more at 40.

DON'T TRY AVERAGING

This recourse — known as "averaging" — can be successful in a bull market, but only because the trend has not changed. But if the trend has changed, this encrusted practice is probably the most dangerous error of all. What started as a manageable loss becomes a terrifying, unmanageable loss on many times more shares. Averaging is the usual way people become unexpectedly — and often tragically — overextended. Profits take care of themselves. Losses never do.

3. Don't change your mind if you get off the hook. Millions say, "A rally will save me. On the next rally I'll get out." This may or may not be a wise decision, depending on the individual stock. But, if made, it is a decision seldom kept. When the rally comes, for a few days, or weeks, or even months, or it eventually must, market history shows most people forget what they intended to do.

In their opinion the market is acting fine again. Then the market goes off in its vicious, tricky, bear-like way and the temporary opportunity goes with it.

4. Don't listen to government officials. They concern themselves with the present while the market, of course, concerns itself with the future. And invariably they say, "The economy is sound. The market is wrong." Flee, fly, run, hide behind a tree and plug your ears against anything any politician ever says — ever — about a crash in the market while he is in office.

5. Don't try for a quick turn. Bear rallies stop shorter than expected and the market also develops a habit of opening down overnight. This trap often turns the nimble trader into an involuntary investor — on the wrong side of the trend.

VALUES CAN CHANGE

6. Don't rely on values. First, these change if conditions change. Second, prices are made by supply and demand, not values. The market mirrors the hopes and fears of worldwide millions. If they want money or bonds more than stocks, or uncertainty about the future grips them, the law of supply overrides everything.

7. Don't hurry. We've had the longest — incomparably the longest — bull market in history. Now the market has had a heart attack. The result leaves layers of stock hanging over a market waiting to be sold by those who did not or could not sell before the heart attack happened.

Even substantial recoveries are not like the dove from Noah's Ark signaling that the flood is over. It will take the construction of a long pattern of rallies and reactions to produce any real evidence that the basic trend — vicious and tricky — has changed.

Old Wall Street hands know, that historically the most significant and encouraging development would be to have the market — at some still unknown level — go dead and dormant for many, many months. If so, the fundamentals for a new true advance could be in the making. But this will take a long — very long — time.

Rome was not built in a day, and either are new bull markets.

Wisconsin Report

Real Estate Values

Continue to Rise,

But So Do Taxes

BY JOHN WYNGAARD

MADISON — The State Department of Taxation recently produced a dispatch for the papers which related another optimistic gain: in the aggregate value of Wisconsin taxable property, real and personal.

But as so often happens, the districts. They are also used in the computation of state aid and shared tax payments.

But they are incidentally useful in measuring what is really happening in property taxation in the state as a whole and in the disparities among local districts. The most important revelation in the current report is that in spite of handsome increases in the taxable value of Wisconsin real and personal property, the average local property tax rate continues to rise. It continues, moreover, in spite of the bold new tax relief program inaugurated only a few years ago as one of the sugar coatings employed to introduce sales taxation.

According to the evidence of the recent tax administration reports, that rate of rise is something over half a mill a year.

The clear lesson from the trend is that the local governments of Wisconsin are using money more rapidly than their tax base can produce it — in spite of the state assistance palliatives, and in spite of the most inflationary movement in Wisconsin experience.

URBAN PRESSURE

The tax rate pressure is especially urgent and will inevitably become even more irritating in the principal urban areas. There are great variations here, according to the circumstances of industrial locations, local prosperity, the location of mercantile centers, and local spending habits. But the signs of urban trouble on the whole are unmistakable. There is no greater or more nagging local political issue in Milwaukee, an increasingly influential force in state politics, than the high burden of property taxation. A part of the explanation is a comparatively luxurious level of local government service spending, as small town legislators at the capitol are fond of pointing out. Yet the fact is that the Milwaukee full value property levy now stands at nearly 36 mills, against a state-wide urban rate equivalent to 30 mills.

One of the news services in recounting the Tax Department's new valuation figures related that it computed the "worth" of the state. Obviously that is not true. There are hosts of exemptions, as critics so often remind the legislature. One of the most useful auxiliary reports would be a careful compilation of the worth of property excluded from the tax base, and its relation to the increasing pressure on the remainder.

Dorado Decision Frees Condemned Slayer

Editor, Post-Crescent:

The immediate impact of the "Dorado Decision" handed down by the Supreme Court on June 13, 1966 has been felt in all parts of the country. As an illustration, the July 14 issue of the LOS ANGELES TIMES told of the release of a confessed, once-condemned killer.

Dept. Dist. Atty. Billy D. Webb, the prosecutor, issued a statement which said in part: "Due to the Supreme Court decision a self-confessed killer is walking the streets."

How do you feel, citizen? The killer, Dan Clifton Robinson, 23, confessed to firing the shotgun which killed Lewis J. Grego, 47 and wounded another man in the year 1962. He was convicted of murder and received the death sentence in 1962. This was reversed two years later on the grounds of technical errors. The second trial resulted in a life sentence, but the Dorado Decision reversed that decision. The confession was NOT admitted in the last trial... so the killer is now free.

It is hoped that the following letter will not have to be written by our local police chiefs:

Mr. K. O. Blackjack
City Housing Development
Dear Mr. Blackjack:

Please understand that this letter is not prompted by any prejudicial presupposition of guilt on your part, either by the undersigned or by any member of our police force.

But it has been reported to us, from sources we have heretofore considered reliable, that last Friday evening, between the hours of 11:00 p.m. and 1:00 a.m., in the course of a riot in which you appeared to be one of the most aggressive leaders, you personally committed the following indiscretions: (1) set fire to one home and two stores; (2) shot out all of the street lights in an area some five blocks square, (3) side-swiped several automobiles in the course of this shooting spree, causing several to be overturned, a number of people to be seriously injured, and three people to be killed; (4) shot and killed one policeman, who was so poorly informed as to his revised powers and duties that he tried to stop your careening, speeding car; and (5) committed various and sundry other breaches of the peace.

Whereas this report is now on record in the official files of Precinct 7, it has become our painful duty to arrest you, and enter formal charges as indicated above, so that proper adjudication of these matters can be achieved through the appropriate legal procedures. We are aware, however, that it would be exceeding our authority, and prima facie evidence of police brutality, for us to arrest you without your attorney being present, or at any time or place which would be embarrassing to either your attorney or yourself. If you will please make the necessary arrangements, therefore, and notify us as soon as you will can when it will be convenient for us to carry out this duty imposed on us by law, your cooperation will be greatly appreciated.

Yours truly,
(signed) I. M. Stumped
Chief of Police

I am for the rule of law, not men. I am for the impeachment of Earl Warren. A study of the Warren Court will show how the piecemeal destruction of our Constitution has been accomplished. In those cases involving Communism and Communists 95% of the time, Warren has voted for the Communists 95% of the time. This wild, destructive course must be stopped!

Looking Backward

No More Stoves at University

100 YEARS AGO

Quoted from the Appleton Crescent for Sept. 15, 1866.

Arrangements have been made with Messrs. Walworth & Buisich, Brass and Iron Founders & Fitters, Chicago, to put steam heating apparatus into the University Men are now busily engaged in doing the work which will occupy four men about five weeks.

The arrangement is a high pressure steam generator, on the new principle of throwing water jets on red hot plates, immediately converting the water into steam, which will be conveyed to the various parts of the building.

It is proposed to put a large tank into the upper story of the building, which will be kept supplied with water from the pump connected with the machine, and arranged so that hose can be attached in any room in case of fire.

This heating arrangement will be a great improvement over the stoves, giving a much pleasanter heat, with more surface, less danger of fire, and entirely free from dirt.

25 YEARS AGO

Wednesday, Sept. 10, 1941.

Marvin Buss was elected president of the senior class at Marion High School. Other officers were Merlin Brunner, vice president, Doris Krueger, secretary, Lee Denke, sergeant-at-arms, and Inez Meyer, cheerleader.

Junior class officers were Tom Meyer, president, James Flopper, vice president; June Moericke, secretary; Oscar May, sergeant-at-arms, Betty Behling, cheerleader.

10 YEARS AGO

Wednesday, Sept. 12, 1956.

Alexander Wiley, Wisconsin's senior senator defeated Glenn Davis for the Republican nomination and Democrats chose State Sen. Henry Maier for their U.S. senatorial candidate. Outagamie County Republicans backed the GOP choice, Davis, and county Democrats were for the winner Maier.

Appleton students leaving for their first year in various colleges were Miss Dolores Reiden, who was to study at the Dominican College in Racine; Miss Barbara Lemke, freshman at the University of Wisconsin, and Miss Charlotte Kunzli, who was to enter Marquette University.

Mrs. Norbert Winkler was named chairman of the pot-luck guest night of the Ladies Guild at Riverview Lutheran Church, Appleton. Serving on the hostess committee were Guild members Mrs. Lawrence Below, Mrs. Wesley Barden, Mrs. Robert Lueck, Mrs. John Raether, Mrs. Robert Steiner and Mrs. Elmer Boldt.

Point. Laird outpolled Myhra Tuesday, 18,666 to 14,057, with 524 of 528 precincts counted.
In other Wisconsin congressional districts, three incumbent Democrats outpolled Republican opponents while one incumbent from each party received fewer votes than the opposing party's candidate.

Zablocki Wins
Congressman Clement J. Zablocki, whose home was picketed in Milwaukee's civil rights dispute over membership in all-white clubs, wonrenomination overwhelmingly Tuesday.

Zablocki, 53, seeking a 10th term in Congress, drubbed fellow Democrat Roman R. Blenski in the Fourth District primary race on Milwaukee's South Side.
Zablocki was the only incumbent congressman facing opposition. He rolled up more than 36,000 votes to 4,000 for Blenski.
Demonstrators picketed Zablocki's home last month during tense protests against membership by public officials in the Fraternal Order of Eagles. Zablocki is also chairman of the House Foreign Affairs Subcommittee on the Far East and Pacific, but neither Viet Nam nor civil rights played major roles in the campaign.

It was Blenski's fifth straight try at unseating Zablocki and his fifth straight loss. He has yet to win more than 15 per cent of the vote.
In the only other congressional contest, also in Milwaukee, Curtis Pechtel edged Robert Taylor for the Republican nomination in the Fifth District. But, as a harbinger of things to come in November, six-term Democratic Rep. Henry S. Reuss who was unopposed, polled three times the total votes cast in the Republican race.

Others Unopposed
Nominees were unopposed in the other districts.

FIRST-Henry C. Schadeberg, 52, a Protestant minister from Burlington, is challenging freshman Democratic Rep. Lynn E. Stalbaum of Racine in a rematch of the 1964 race in which Schadeberg was unseated after two terms. Stalbaum won by 5,000 votes in the Johnson landslide and will get ample help from national figures in his party in his bid to retain the seat.

SECOND - Robert W. Kastenmeier, 42, a Watertown Democrat serving his fourth term, is being challenged by Madison attorney William Bradford Smith in a race where Viet Nam is the central issue. Kastenmeier favors withdrawal from Viet Nam while his Republican rival, who posed as a newsman for a 10-day trip to the war-torn nation, generally backs the Johnson administration.

THIRD-Former governor and three-term Rep. Vernon W. Thompson of Richland Center has John D. Rice, a Sparta broadcasting executive, as an energetic Democratic foe in an entrenched Republican district.
NINTH - Republican Glenn R. Davis of New Berlin, who returned to the House by capturing the new Ninth in 1964 when reapportionment scrambled congressional boundaries, is challenged again by former Assemmary column where the action is, drew more than 43 per cent of the total vote.

The count in 3,240 precincts, was 214,610.

In the last similar situation involving an unopposed candidate Democrat John W. Reynolds drew only 30 per cent of the vote in 1962, but went on to whip the GOP primary survivor, Philip G. Kuehn, in the general election.

Two years later, when both parties had contests, Knowles attracted 35 per cent of the primary total, but defeated Reynolds by nearly 20,000 votes in November.

Democratic Contest
The Democratic state ticket had one contest, a three-way affair for the State Treasurer nomination among former Treasurer Eugene Lamb, Milwaukee labor leader Floyd Lucia and State Sen. Richard Zaborski, that was undecided until early Wednesday.
With 3,252 precincts, reporting, including Milwaukee County complete, the vote was:
Lamb 98,688
Zaborski 98,565
Lucia 49,123

Party regulars frankly preferred Zaborski, minority leader of the state Senate. But Lamb, who defeated the Republican incumbent, Mrs. Dena Smith, in 1958 and in turn was beaten by her in 1960 and again in 1964, clung stubbornly to a tiny lead through most of the night.

Mrs. Smith, whom Zaborski attacked repeatedly during the campaign for alleged frequent absences from her capitol office, drew 202,301 votes in 3,250 precincts.

Other Verdicts
The verdict was more decisive on the rest of the Democratic slate.
State Sen. Martin Schreiber, a 27-year-old Milwaukee legislator who has let his crewcut grow long to try to add age to his appearance, whipped Jerome Grant for the nomination to the lieutenant governorship that will be vacated by Lucey, with the count 168,070 to 76,732; with 3,250 boxes counted.

Republican former Lt. Gov. Jack Olson, beaten by Lucey two years ago in a tight race, had 208,789.

Secretary of State
For Secretary of State, where Republican Robert Zimmerman seeks a sixth term, Cletus Johnson of Green Bay defeated the only Negro candidate for statewide office, Mrs. Minnie Townsend of Milwaukee, 150,283 to 78,900. Zimmerman had 212,273.
For attorney general, where there was no contest, incumbent Democrat Bronson C. LaFollette had 214,561 votes and Milwaukee attorney Louis Ceci 181,024 on the Republican side.

bly clerk James P. Buckley, a Waukesha Democrat, in the fashionable suburban district.
TENTH-Rep. Alvin E. O'Koniski, 58, the maverick Mercer Republican, is the dean of Wisconsin's congressional delegation with a House career dating back to 1943. Former state senator Carl E. Lauri, an Iron River Democrat, resigned from the State Industrial Commission to make the race against O'Koniski.

Lucey, who with Reynolds and Sen. Gaylord Nelson breathed life back into the state's pallid party during the 1950s and then guided it to power as state chairman, carried 66 of the state's 72 counties, Carley six.

The lieutenant governor's aides, who had predicted a 20,000-vote margin, were jubilant.
Carley, a former university instructor and economist who entered politics as Nelson's protégé and who had supported Hubert Humphrey over John F. Kennedy in 1960, was bitter because he had no outside help to counter the Kennedy magic encompassing Lucey.

The national committeeman's expected strongholds fell to the tightly knit Lucey organization, with only Dane County delivering Carley a massive majority, 15,210 to 6,830. Manitowoc County dropped into the Lucey column, 4,370 to 4,242, Kenosha also went to Lucey.

Otherwise, Carley held only Jackson-by 17 votes — Marathon, Portage, St. Croix and Wood.

Back to Reality
For Frinzi, who polled 102,000 votes running as an outsider against Reynolds in 1964, the 40-odd thousand votes he drew Tuesday constituted a return to political reality.

But the widely known defense attorney refused to be discouraged.
"While I can not say that my vote was as high as I had hoped," he said, "I'm happy with the kind of campaign I conducted, and I have no complaints, excuses or regrets."

"My program was a strong, progressive program, it's now public property, and I'll continue to fight for it in one capacity or another."

Abe Swed, the Milwaukee businessman and veteran party fund raiser who initiated his campaign with the explanation that he was running only to stimulate public discussion of needed tax reforms, said only, "I think I got my point across."

Byrnes Committee Names Political Campaign Heads

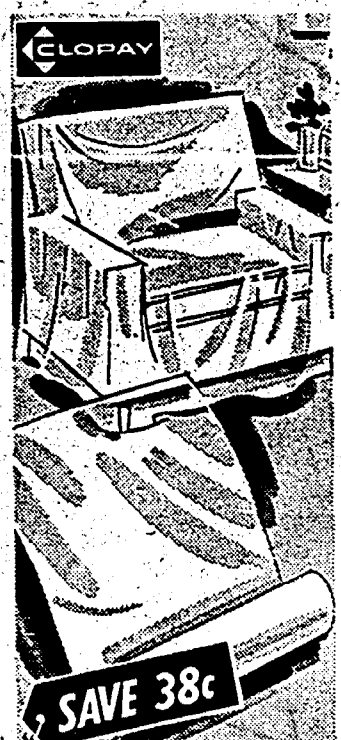

Leaders have been named for the Appleton Volunteers for Byrnes Committee by James Sutherland, Outagamie County chairman. Sutherland had previously appointed Mrs. Charles Crouse as county vice chairwoman.

Named to the new posts are: Ray Durkee, 116 E. Glendale Ave.; Mrs. John Lindberg, 37 Meadow Court; Ralph West, 416 S. Weimar St.; and Jack Gillespie, 2721 N. Viola St.
Mrs. Durkee also will be in charge of campaign materials and will be assisted by Keith Damrow, 106 E. Glendale Ave. Mrs. Floyd Gabrielson, 1430 E. Lindbergh St., is secretary. Erik Madisen Jr., 410 W. Sunset Ave., is publicity chairman.

Sutherland also named leaders for other parts of Outagamie County. Richard Surber, 239 Rogers St., Kimberly; Joseph Steger Jr., 1509 Glenview Ave., Kaukauna; Harlan Barth, route 1, Black Creek; and Robert Schneider, 145 E. Main St., Hortonville, will campaign in their respective areas.

Institute Picks New Trustees For Its Board

Thilmany Chairman, Guy McCorsion Completes Term

Two new term trustees and an ex-officio trustee were elected to the board of trustees of the Institute of Paper Chemistry Tuesday at the 37th annual board meeting.

Elected to five-year terms were Benton R. Cancell, president of Potlatch Forest, Inc., Lewiston, Idaho; and Peter S. Paine, chairman of the board, Great Northern Paper Co., Bangor, Maine.

Samuel A. Casey, president of the Nekoosa-Edwards Paper Co., Port Edwards, will serve a one-year term as ex-officio member.

The three retiring board members are Maxwell Bardeen, president of Simpson-Lee Co., Vicksburg, Mich.; Robert Faegre, former vice president of Boise Cascade Paper Corp., Boise, Idaho; and Guy McCorsion, retired chairman of the board at Thilmany Pulp and Paper Co.

Other Members

The other 19 board members are William R. Adams, president, Champion Papers, Inc., York; Karl R. Bendetsen, president, Chamion Papers, Inc., Hamilton, Ohio; D. K. Brown, Neenah, a founding trustee; Alexander Calder Jr., president, Union Camp Corp., New York; Richard C. Doane, chairman of the board, International Paper Co., New York; P. H. Glatfelter III, president, P. H. Glatfelter Co., Spring Grove, Penn.; P. F. Holton, president, Inland Container Corp., Indianapolis;

John R. Kimberly, president, Kimberly-Clark Corp.; David C. Knowlton, president, Knowlton Brothers, Watertown, N. Y.; David L. Luke, retired chairman of the board, West Virginia Pulp and Paper Co., New York; Ernst Mahler, Neenah, a founding trustee; George Olmsted Jr., chairman of the board, S. D. Warren Co., Boston; Sture G. Olsson, president, The Chesapeake Corp., West Point, Va.; John L. Riegel, chairman of the board, Riegel Paper Corp., New York; L. H. Schoenhofer, president, Container Corporation of America, Chicago; P. T. Sinclair, president, Crown Zellerbach Corp., San Francisco; Dr. Curtis W. Tarr, president, Lawrence University; John G. Strange, president, Institute of Paper Chemistry, and John C. Wollwege, vice president, Kimberly-Clark Corp.

Fine Appleton Resident $50 for Striking Man Who Halted Vandalism

Thomas J. Cooney, 19, 1807 E. Pauline St., who Appleton Riegel said caused injury to a 21-year-old man who attempted to halt vandalism to an arterial sign, was fined $50 and costs or 24 days in jail after he pleaded guilty of disorderly conduct Tuesday.

Cooney, who appeared in Outagamie County Court Branch 2, reportedly struck Robert Schmidt, 303 N. Rankin St., when Schmidt attempted to stop him from twisting a stop sign at Franklin and Rankin Streets.

The incident occurred Aug. 24. Schmidt came out of his house and reportedly got into an argument with Cooney. Schmidt, who was struck in the face, was taken to a hospital by ambulance.

Lease or Purchase

Chicago White Sox Indicate Interest in Goodland Field

The Chicago White Sox Baseball Club reportedly has indicated interest in purchasing or leasing the City of Appleton-owned Goodland Field.

Rumors to that effect started circulating in the city last week but The Post-Crescent learned Tuesday that contact has been made between city and baseball club officials.

Arthur Allyn, president of the White Sox, had a representative in the city earlier in the week who conferred with members of the park-recreation commission on a possible Goodland Field acquisition or long-term lease.

Exploration Stage

"Everything is strictly in the exploration stage," one informed source said. "The White Sox said they might be interested in working out some arrangement."

Goodland Field, located in the southeast part of the city, is in the 7th Ward. It was acquired by the city in 1934 and consists of 8.3 acres with a grandstand and dressing room facilities.

The Fox Cities Foxes, Appleton's representative in the Midwest League, were affiliated with the White Sox farm organization for the first time this year and came up with a championship season.

The Foxes won the first round title and then beat Cedar Rapids in the championship play-off at the end of the season. White Sox officials are reportedly "high on Appleton" as a sports town.

During the past season it was estimated the Foxes averaged about 1,000 attendance per home game.

Formerly of Kaukauna Glenn Miller, formerly of Kaukauna, is the White Sox organization farm director. He was instrumental in establishing the baseball club's boys' camp on the shores of Lake Winnebago near Brothertown three years ago.

It was learned that White Sox officials would like to assume ownership or operation of Goodland Field which is starting to show its age and is in need of major renovation, including a new lighting system which has been estimated to cost beyond $70,000.

One source said the White Sox would make several improvements to the field and construct new buildings if they assumed control of the field through negotiation with the city.

The commission reportedly has asked that all legal documents, including the deed and abstract for the field, be checked to determine whether the city could enter into negotiation with an interested party for buying or leasing the property.

White Sox officials intend to make the field more of a recreational center than it is now, it was learned, but everything discussed has been tentative.

"All I know is that I would welcome Mr. Allyn's interest in our city and will be happy to cooperate with the White Sox in any way possible. It is a fine organization," Mayor George Buckley commented today.

Arthur Jones, commission president, could not be reached for comment.

Petitioners Ask for Added Bus Service

Resident-Line Owner Contracts Suggested by Kaukauna Board

KAUKAUNA — The Board of Education Tuesday authorized a business manager, Thomas Nytes, to contact the school bus owner to ascertain if improved. Work will be done by August Winters and Sons.

The board received a petition from 36 persons asking for additional bus service to the school. Five women, representing the petitioners, asked the school board to furnish bus transportation from Nicolet to Quinney Schools for pupils from sixth through eighth grades.

The petitioners said youngsters were walking 1.8 miles to Quinney School and felt this distance excessive, particularly in periods of extreme cold or rainy weather. Board members said present policies dictated that bus service is not offered to anyone living within two miles of a school.

No State Aids

It was pointed out, some youngsters on the north side of the city live 1.9 miles from Park School and are required to walk. State transportation aids are not provided for transporting youngsters who live less than two miles from school, board members said.

The women asked if a weekly fee could be arranged to help offset the cost of providing an extra bus, but board members felt this type of contract should be worked out between the bus owner and persons involved.

The business manager was authorized to carry out preliminary cost studies for the petitioners and report his findings to them. They, in turn, would be ultimately responsible for entering into an agreement with the bus firm.

Board members agreed to include the vocational school building in a package insurance plan with the vocational school board to be billed for a share of the total insurance premium. Package bids are to be studied by Nov. 1 if insurance carriers feel this is adequate time to study and appraise facilities.

A change order in construction to permit installation of a ventilating system for the stage business manager, Thomas Nytes, at Quinney School at an estimated cost of $440 was approved. Work will be done by August Winters and Sons.

Mrs. Mary Kay Hedtke, who was given a leave of absence from teaching last year, was hired for one semester to serve as fifth grade teacher. A request for an additional custodian at Quinney School was denied at the present time, but

WPRA Picks Oshkosh in '67

Selection Made at Neenah Meeting, Madison in 1968

Oshkosh has been selected as the site of the 1967 Wisconsin Park and Recreation Association (WPRA) annual meeting and conference. Madison will be host to the 1968 conference.

The selections were made at a board meeting at Neenah Tuesday. Business sessions and equipment show in Oshkosh will be scheduled at The Pioneer Charles Drayna, a member of the WPRA board, is park and recreation director at Oshkosh.

At the morning session reports were made by committee chairmen responsible for the program at the Nov. 4 and 5 fall conference scheduled for Milwaukee. This conference will be the first annual meeting of the new WPRA. Its more than 400 membership is made up of the former Wisconsin Park and Recreation Society and the Wisconsin Recreation Association.

Mayor's Welcome

At a noon luncheon William H. Miller, Neenah park and recreation director, introduced Mayor Carl E. Loehning who welcomed the group and invited them to tour Neenah's park and recreation facilities.

Sheriff's Recommendation County Committee Rescinds Police Promotion Request

The Outagamie County Board's law enforcement committee Tuesday afternoon rescinded a motion passed earlier in the day that two county police patrolmen be recommended for promotion to sergeants.

The unit voted 2-1 at the morning session of a special meeting to promote Robert Keating and Edward Metko, on recommendation by Sheriff Calvin L. Spice. The measure then was to go to the board's recently-created personnel committee.

Appleton Supv. John R. Schreiter had cast the lone dissenting vote.

Three of the five committee members returned during the afternoon session and voted, on a motion by Schreiter, to rescind the morning's action and refer the matter to the full committee membership. Two men were absent during Tuesday's voting.

Objected to Methods

Schreiter indicated he voted against the promotions in the morning then asked they be brought up for reconsideration in the afternoon because he objected to the methods by which the advancements were made. He contended the methods were unfair to two other men who were eligible for promotions.

Tuesday's action represented the third delay on Spice's recommendations.

The county board's executive committee would not take action on Spice's request Aug. 31 and earlier this month the law enforcement unit delayed the vote until all five committee members were present. That vote was to have been taken Tuesday.

In other action at Tuesday's special session, the committee recommended that four 1967 Dodge Polara police specials be purchased from R and R Dodge of Appleton, to replace four 1966 Dodges that have gone far beyond the 50,000 mile factory warranty.

The cars reportedly will be purchased under terms of an "open end contract" made by the county with R and R last fall, when supervisors voted for county-owned police vehicles.

The new cars, if purchased, will have four barrel instead of two barrel carburetors, and will have a gear ratio that is different from those on the 1966 vehicles. Both changes were proposed to allow for more top speed on the vehicles.

Committee members made their recommendations after hearing from Carl Ray, manager of R and R Dodge.

Legion Votes To Donate to Youth Plans

Baseball League, Youth Center to Receive $100 Each

LITTLE CHUTE — Members of the American Legion voted to donate to various youth programs in the community at a Monday night session at the village hall.

Donations of $100 were approved for the Little League baseball program and the youth center at St. John High School. Approval was given to the purchase of an American flag, troop flag and standards for the new Jacob Coppus Post 258 Troop 151 Boy Scouts and a $25 savings bond to be presented the local winner in the Legion oratorical contest.

The Legion will assist the village in moving the present flag pole from its location near the village hall to a spot nearer the sidewalk which will eliminate difficulty in raising the colors. Members also voted to purchase a new sound system for use at various Legion activities.

County Christmas Party

Members voted to accept responsibility for the Christmas party for the county council, originally scheduled for Kaukauna. Lambert Coenen was named chairman of the Veteran's Day program and Norbert Demerath, membership chairman, reported 72 per cent of the present membership has already been signed for 1967.

County council delegates will be Martin Jansen, Leo Hendricks, Leon Toonen and Harry Samuels. Fall conference delegates at Casco will be Harold Van Dyke, Jack Metz, Carl Hammen, John Demerath, Norbert Demerath, Lester Winius, Toonen, Hendricks and Samuels.

Carl Hammen reported on the national convention which he attended at Washington, D. C. Harold Van Dyke displayed the historical book which won honors at the state convention.

Tri-City Realtors To Hear Talk by Association Head

G. Robert Viele, Wausau, will speak at a joint meeting of the Appleton and Neenah-Menasha Boards of Realtors Thursday. The meeting will be at 7 p.m. at Reetz's Supper Club.

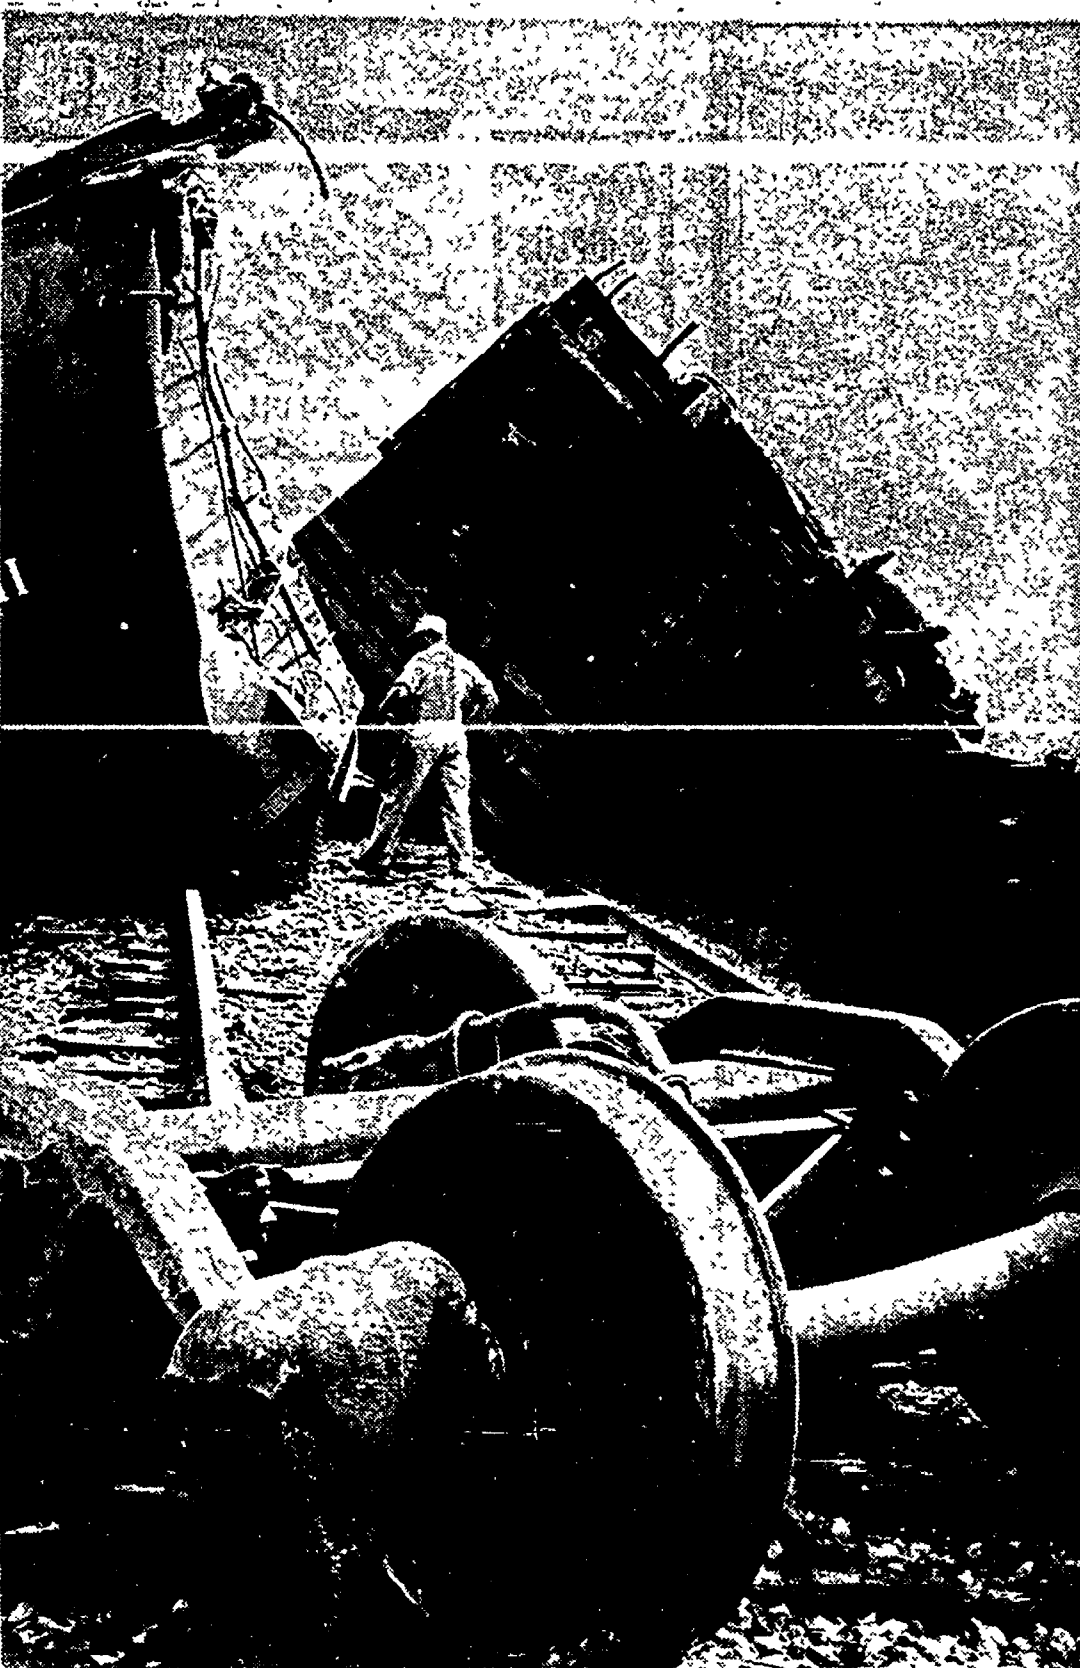

Viele is president of the Wisconsin Realtors Association. Membership in the Appleton and Neenah-Menasha groups totals more than 140.

Viele is also president of the Mid-Wisconsin Appraisal Associates, Inc. He has been a member of the American Institute of Real Estate Appraisers since 1959, and is a senior member of the Society of Real Estate Appraisers.

Truck Hits Side of Car East of Menasha

CHILTON — No one was injured when the truck driven by William R. Ankam, 27, Omro, backed into the side of the car driven by Janet A. Vavrunek, 19, Manitowish, at 9:15 a.m. Monday, 2 miles east of Menasha on U. S. 10 and State 114.

According to Calumet County police, the truck was backing to dump blacktopping for road construction and struck the left side of the Vavrunek vehicle which was stopped as directed by flagmen.

Thirty Cars of a Chicago and North Western Railway freight train derailed of Dalton in Marquette County. No one was injured. Rails were ripped up along Tuesday morning about two miles west a quarter-mile stretch.

Parking Ramp Construction To Start at Soldiers Square

Excavation Scheduled Though State Approval Yet to be Given

Construction of Appleton's new four-level Soldiers Square parking ramp will start Thursday morning.

Officials of Standard Construction of Minneapolis made the announcement Tuesday afternoon following a conference with Donald Bengs, acting public works director.

Crews of Standard, a subsidiary of the multi-million dollar Knutson Companies, were scheduled to erect their construction shanty at the project site today.

The construction firm is awaiting approval of the State Industrial Commission of the actual building plans for the 450-car parking structure which is to be completed next spring.

Ask Action

Mayor George Buckley wrote Gov. Knowles recently and asked him to intervene to have approval of the plans expedited. However, no word has been received either from the governor or the state commission.

Standard intends to proceed with the first phase of the project — excavation of the site.

Some parking meters will be removed from the Soldiers Square today and Thursday to make way for the major municipal development which will be bounded by Oneida, Lawrence and Morrison Streets.

Total construction cost will be $721,000, about $75,000 lower than the original estimate.

The job superintendent for Standard informed Bengs it is hoped Industrial Commission approval of the plans is received by the time the excavation work is completed.

Favorable Weather

It was decided to move ahead with the project in view of the favorable construction weather. "Every day lost now is like a week," Bengs commented.

It is not unusual for a building project to pass the excavation stage before a permit is issued. The ramp, designed by Richard C. Richand Associates, Detroit, will be one of the most modern-looking structures in downtown Appleton.

A spokesman for the Appleton Area Chamber of Commerce said today that a brief groundbreaking ceremony would be held at the ramp site Thursday morning in recognition of the start of another municipal improvement project.

Darboy to Celebrate Road Opening With Street Dance

DARBOY. — To celebrate the completion of the reconstruction of County Trunk KK through the community, Holy Angels Catholic parish will sponsor a street dance Sunday night.

Dancing will be held on the parish grounds from 9 p.m. to midnight. Admission will be free. Louis Van Rossum, Clem Boucher, Gerald Hietpas, William Van Grinsven and Mrs. Ivol Vanden Heuvel are in charge.

Ribbon cutting ceremonies are set for 8 p.m. with Joseph DeBruin, Town of Buchanan, chairman; George Schwalbach, Town of Harrison, chairman; Fred Longrie, Calumet County highway commissioner; and Bert Hosterman, president, Badger Highways, Inc.; Mena-sha contractor on the reconstruction project, officiating.

Five Year Wait

Completion of the project ends five years of waiting by the community. The highway was considered a traffic hazard because of gulleys on the east and west ends of Darboy and the narrow culvert bridges. School children were unable to cross these bridges without walking into the lane of traffic. Organizations in the deter-mined drive to end these conditions were the Holy Name Society, St. Anne's Altar Society of Holy Angels parish and the Darboy American Legion Post.

The reason for the delay was that Darboy lies on the boundary of Calumet and Outagamie counties as well as the boundary of the towns of Harrison and Buchanan. The possibility of a sanitary district in Darboy, discussed last year, helped postpone the project. Since KK highway was widened to 66 feet, Curb and gutter was installed where feasible. Narrow culverts were removed and, the bridge depressions filled so there is not more than a 2 per cent grade for each 100 feet.

Traffic Violations Elsewhere Can't be Used in Wisconsin

By FRED SNYDER Associated Press Writer
MADISON (AP) — The State Motor Vehicle Department receives from 20 to 30 reports a month on traffic law convictions of Wisconsin drivers in other states but cannot use them in its demerit system designed to further highway safety.

The department can revoke a permit for a conviction of a serious crime in another state, but has to overlook moving traffic violations.

Wisconsin set up its so-called driver point system 10 years ago. Under it, drivers who accumulate 12 points in one year lose their licenses. The number of demerits depends on the seriousness of the violation. Forty states use the system to identify traffic law violators.

Few States
Wisconsin is one of the few states without power to assess one of its drivers for an out-of-state infraction.

Attempts have been made in the Legislature to authorize the state to use out-of-state convictions, but lawmakers have chosen not to act.

Most recent effort was made by Assemblyman William Steiger, R-Oshkosh. He authored a bill in the 1965 session to allow the state to set up machinery so that out-of-state bad driving records could be taken into account in the control of Wisconsin permits.

Opponents contended the bill would make Wisconsin drivers victims of out-of-state speed traps or unfair justice. The bill ended up in committee.

"This type of legislation could make a valuable contribution to safety efforts," said Steiger, who hopes he can find a champion for it for the 1967 session. He is surrendering his state post to run for Congress.

John Thompson, state driver control director, and longtime but unsuccessful advocate of a law to give Wisconsin authority it needs to take other states' convictions of Wisconsin drivers into account, says:

"A driver's careless behavior in another state is not likely to change in his home state unless he's aware that his license might be in jeopardy."

"In the interest of highway safety there should be means for Wisconsin to assess these out-of-state records and act accordingly—either by suspending licenses of habitual drivers or helping those who could benefit."

The state has a counseling program for drivers with six points. This lets them know they're on thin ice. And hopefully it makes them more aware of the need for improved driving habits.

Thompson said the files show Wisconsin drivers with out-of-state convictions that add up to more than 12 points. One has 16. Others are near 12, many show six.

Wisconsin can automatically revoke licenses for convictions in other states for crimes like homicide resulting from operation of a vehicle, drunken driving and committing a felony through use of a car. These revocations average about 10 a month.

One border state, Illinois, has legislation for joining an interstate compact to exchange and consider out-of-state records. Other border states are considering such legislation. Most states in the west and eastern seaboard have such compacts, Thompson said.

Waukegan Ordinance Requires Marchers To Register With City

WAUKEGAN, Ill. (AP)—The Waukegan City Council Monday passed an ordinance which would regulate the makeup of any march, demonstration or open-air meeting.

The ordinance requires any organization planning a march or public meeting to submit a list of participants to the police four days before the event. If any of the participants have been convicted of disorderly conduct, a misdemeanor—or any felony—a permit to conduct the march or meeting will be denied until the persons who have such criminal records are deleted from the list.

Little Chute Police Check Home Break-in LITTLE CHUTE — Police are investigating the break-in at the home of Mrs. Josephine Toben, 234 S. Mill St., in which $250 in cash and a $150 check were reported missing.

According to the owner, entry was gained sometime between 2 and 7 p.m. Monday, through a kitchen window.

The thief used the rear door to leave the house.

Approve Remodeling For Avenue Drug Store

A permit for an estimated $5,000 worth of remodeling of the Schlitz Drug Store at 601 W. College Ave., has been issued by the city building inspector to Morris Gabert, owner of Appleton Pharmacy.

Outagamie Voters Follow State Trends

Democratic State Winners Also Lead in County

Outagamie County voters were in general agreement with voters around Wisconsin Tuesday in deciding the outcome of four contested Democratic primary elections for state offices. In each of the four contested Democratic primaries, the leading vote-getter in Outagamie County was the final winner in the state.

In a hot state contest for the Democratic nomination for governor, Lt. Gov. Patrick J. Lucey came out on top. Lucey led Democratic National Committeeman David Carley by only 301 votes in the county but defeated Milwaukee Democratic candidates Abe L. Swed and Dominic H. Frinzi by substantial margins.

Republican Gov. Warren P. Knowles outpolled Lucey by more than 3,000 votes, unofficial county primary election results showed.

Knowles received a total of 7,804 votes in Outagamie County, 2,343 being cast in outlying precincts and 5,461 in the city of Appleton.

Democrats Total 4,622
Unofficial tabulations showed the four Democratic candidates receiving 4,622 votes in the county. Of those, Lucey had 2,158; Carley showed 1,857; and Swed and Frinzi were listed as receiving 332 and 275 votes respectively.

In the race for the Democratic party's nomination for lieutenant governor, 27-year-old State Sen. Martin J. Schreiber, Milwaukee, won handily over Jerome D. Grant, Glendale, in Outagamie County and the state. Schreiber received 2,736 Democratic votes to Grant's 1,242 in the county.

The GOP's lone candidate for lieutenant governor, Jack B. Olson, received 7,894 tallies.

Cletus J. Johnson, Green Bay, won the Democratic nomination to try to unseat Secretary of State Robert C. Zimmerman by a 2-to-1 ratio in the state. His statewide margin over Mrs. Minnie Townsend, Milwaukee, was reflected in the choice of Outagamie County voters as they cast 2,537 votes for Johnson ... 1,366 for Mrs. Townsend.

Zimmerman Leads GOP
Zimmerman, the incumbent Republican secretary of state, received 8,053 votes in the Outagamie County primary, the top GOP state candidate total.

Republican State Treasurer Dena Smith seemed a solid choice for another victory, at least in Outagamie County, as she received 7,785 votes to a total of 3,968 for the three Democratic candidates. Democrats Eugene M. Lamb, Richard J. Zaborski and Floyd Lucia polled 1,564, 1,455 and 949 votes respectively in a close county race.

In the only uncontested Democratic race for a state office, incumbent Atty. Gen. Bronson C. La Follette received 3,593

Fire Damages Cheese Factory At Sherwood

Three Departments Fight Blaze in Roof of Plant

SHERWOOD—Fire Chief Hilard Brantmeier came to the cheese factory here this morning to deliver milk and wound up pouring water on the building.

Brantmeier was dumping milk about 8 a.m. when a blaze which extensively damaged the upper portion and roof of the factory was discovered. The blaze, believed to have been started by faulty wiring, was discovered by a factory employee, William Timm, who noticed smoke pouring from the roof.

Chopped Holes
Both Town of Harrison departments and the Stockbridge community department answered the alarm. Firemen had to chop gapping holes in the tin roof to get at the fire which spread between the tin and an old shingle roof.

No damage estimate has been made by factory owner John Laughrin. Laughrin purchased the business from William Pfund about two months ago. All of the cheese and dairy products were saved. Aside from the fire, the building, which is situated next to the fire station, sustained smoke and water damage.

Thiel Milk Products, Inc., will handle milk from Laughrin's customers until the factory is back in operation.

votes in Outagamie County. Republican Louis J. Ceci, who will oppose La Follette Nov. 8, gathered 6,314 votes in the county.

Rosh Hoshanah, Jewish Feast, Starts Tonight

Observance Marks Opening of 10-Day High Holydays

With the setting of the sun this evening, the Jewish people of the world will begin observance of the most solemn festival in their calendar—Rosh Hoshanah.

The traditional sounding of the ram's horn will usher in the new year 5727 and begin the high holydays, a 10-day span climaxing with Yom Kippur, the day of atonement.

New Year

The day is observed with prayer, penitence and traditionally, the eating of honey and sweets at meals, symbolizing the hopes for a sweet year ahead.

Rosh Hoshanah is considered by the Jewish people as the anniversary of the creation of the universe and therefore is celebrated as the start of a new year, even though it falls in the seventh month, Tishri, of the Jewish calendar.

According to the Scripture, the fate of those whose deeds have been weighed and found wanting, hangs in the balance during the period.

However, by prayer, penitence and charity, these individuals can perhaps "avert the severe decree" and be inscribed in the Book of Life for the coming year.

Services Slated
That is why the traditional greeting on Rosh Hoshanah is, "May you be inscribed in the Book of Life for a happy and prosperous New Year."

Moses Montefiore Congregation will observe Rosh Hoshanah at 7:30 p.m. tonight and at 8 a.m. and 8 p.m. Thursday and Friday.

The Beth Israel Congregation will have a 6:30 p.m. service tonight and 8 a.m. and 4 p.m. services Thursday and Friday.

Temple Zion will have services at 8 p.m. tonight and at 10 a.m. Thursday at Harper Hall, Music-Drama Center, Lawrence University.

County Pharmacists Set Banquet Sunday
The fourth annual fall banquet of the Outagamie County Pharmacists Association will be Sunday night at the Butte des Morts Country Club.

Cocktail hour will start at 6:30 p.m. followed by dinner at 7:30 p.m. All local drug salesmen have been invited to the annual social affair opening the association's season.

Black Creek Man Jailed On Misconduct Count
Peter Verhoven, 32, Black Creek, was sentenced to 25 days in jail Tuesday afternoon when he pleaded guilty of a disorderly conduct charge brought following a disturbance at the home of his mother.

Authorities said the complaint was filed by Mrs. Angela Verhoven. Police were called to the Verhoven home Monday.

Verhoven appeared in Outagamie County Court Branch 2.

Ear Specialist Could Settle Family Argument

BY JOSEPH MOLNER, M.D.
Dear Dr. Molner: My husband and I are in our 60's. He is totally deaf in one ear but has extra good hearing in the other. Our problem is that every time I speak to him he claims he hears the first few words, but not the last few because I lower my voice on purpose, which I do not.
Is it possible that his hearing works this way? I've watched myself and am careful to speak as loud as I can, and still he says I do this to torment him. — Mrs. B. R.

Dr. Molner
likely it is a matter of his straining to hear what you say. With an effort, he can make out the words. But it is difficult for anyone to keep straining to hear, so he relaxes and misses the last part of what you say. Or, since many folks do some lip-reading even without consciously knowing it, that could account for his "hearing" some and not the rest.

A suitable hearing aid for that "good ear" could make a world of difference for both of you. It is characteristic of people who are hard of hearing to insist that it's not their ears; but that others don't speak clearly. This is a natural reaction, I suppose, because hearing usually fails so gradually that the deaf person doesn't realize how much sensitivity he has lost, and he honestly thinks it's because everybody has stopped speaking clearly.

that the good effects of the probenecid are offset by aspirin or other types of salicylates. Therefore ask your doctor to suggest substitutes for aspirin.
A warning against the use of aspirin with that drug is contained in my booklet, "The Modern Way to Stop Gout." (Readers wanting a copy may obtain it by sending 20 cents in coin and a long, self-addressed stamped envelope to Dr. Molner in care of The Post-Crescent.)

Dear Dr. Molner: I am allergic to the sun; nevertheless I love to get a good tan. I have a very fair complexion, but I don't burn. I break out and my skin itches and looks terrible. Can I take anything to prevent the problem? — Mrs. H. H.

Yes. No harm is done except sensitivity, dermatologists are having success, with various medications; I suggest that you consult such a specialist and give him enough time to follow through on more than one approach to the problem if necessary.

Note to Mrs. E. R. S.: There are benefits in going to one physician regularly instead of "shopping around," but when there are concrete reasons, such as yours, for wanting to change, then change. It's a free country. The county medical society can give you the names of several reliable doctors in your vicinity. Or, in your case, since you have had contact with a specialist, ask him to recommend a general practitioner. If the new doctor has any trouble in getting copies of your records, this still can be substantially overcome by his taking a careful history from you.

Hope Presents 'Nightmare'

BY TV SCOUT

8-9 — Channels 4-5 — BEST BETS — "Nightmare" is an eye-widening thriller to launch the fourth season of Bob Hope Presents the Chrysler Theatre. Julie Harris turns in another delectable performance playing twin sisters: a cruel, aristocratic cripple in gossamer chiffon and her soft sibling, too fond of sherry, fine food and cashmere sweaters. Both are in love with Farley Granger, a handsome schemer after their money and maid, Joan Huntington, a wheat-colored-hair pretty who may not be as innocent as she looks. (Season Premiere)

9-10 — Channels 11-6-9 — The much-awaited ABC Stage 67, which hopes to bring back "meaningful entertainment" to television debuts with Murray Schisgal's comedy, "The Love Song of Barney Kempinski," which should please viewers who like the unusual and new. Schisgal bends over backwards to entice you with a pop art, frantic, hip tour of New York City. Alan Arkin as Barney is the guide, and before he finally steals a helicopter to marry his best girl's sister at City Hall you have run into a wild assortment of characters. Also features Sir John Gielgud, Alan King and Lee Grant.

6:30-7 — Channels 11-6-9 — The Catwoman is back to bestir the name of Batman's fair metropolis, Gotham City. Once again, Julie Newman is the leggy meow intent on a gridded "bat on a hot tin roof." There's much to do about an approaching eclipse and a plot to steal a catalogue and three mittens from a man called Kitten. Jack Kelly is also amusing as a newspaper columnist operating out of a phone booth in the Glob Drugstore.

6:30-7:30 — Channels 2-7-12 — Lost in Space blasts off for its second year with all its wandering regulars back. The science fiction series is still aimed at the tykes. First episode has the Robinsons and pals determined to head for a new planet. They are convinced their home will fall apart from earthquakes, helped considerably by guest player Strother Martin, as an old prospector blasting for a precious metal called "cosmonium." (Season Premiere)

6:30-8 — Channel 5 — The Virginian uses most of "Legacy of Hate" to introduce the new owner of Shiloh Ranch — Charles Bickford who makes a vivid impression as a kindly but crusty gentleman.

7-8 (ABC) Channels 11-6-9 — "Night of the Wolf" lets you get to know The Monroes a bit better. The orphans, led by Michael Anderson Jr., are struggling to build their cabin in the Wyoming wilderness when two hunters offer their help. Watch these whiskey, whiskey-filled gents: they are out to steal the Monroes' pitiful fortune.

7:30-8 (CBS) Channels 2-7-12 — The Beverly Hillbillies is back with its cornbread humor and Ozark Innocents. SEASON PREMIERE

8-8:30 (CBS) Channels 2-7-12 — Green Acres starts its second year with a quick recap of why Eddie Albert and Eva Gabor have deserted the city for the country. But mainly, the couple, in a series of flashbacks, recalls how they first got together when he was a war pilot and she was the dazzle of the Hungarian underground. SEASON PREMIERE

8:30-9 (CBS) Channels 2-7-12 — Gomer Pyle is still funny if you enjoy Jim Nabors' hillbilly charm in outwitting his hollering sergeant, Frank Sutton. This time Nabors is confronted with Deborah Walley, a glamour puss actress, with whom he spends an eventful afternoon. SEASON PREMIERE

9-10 (CBS) Channels 2-7-12 — The Danny Kaye Show's fourth season begins by focusing on some talented youngsters. Ronny Howard, Opie of The Andy Griffith Show, literally steals the spotlight from Danny by turning the show into his own vehicle, with comedy sketches (a spoof on spy series) and songs. Also watch for Susan Barrett who sings, "Where Am I Going," and Danny's "Italian" recitation of "Snow White." SEASON PREMIERE

9-10 Channels 4-5 — I Spy has a dandy adventure, "So Coldly Sweet," to begin its second season. We first catch our admirable undercover agents — Robert Culp and Bill Cosby — basking in the sun of Palm Springs. But only too soon they are off and running after pretty Diana Hyland, who may or may not be a Communist defector. SEASON PREMIERE

Jingo Comes Up With Good, Bad Points on Monday Night Series

'Family Affair,' Others Have Moments of Excellence, Competition May Prove Fatal

BY JINGO

Iron Horse — Take Dale Robertson and place him in a western show and you have a bad series. Right? Wrong. Robertson may have been incredibly bad in "Tales of Wells Fargo," but in "Iron Horse," he's quite good, actually.

Why? Interest in his role, primarily. Robertson obviously enjoys the character of Ben Calhoun, the wheeling dealing cattleman who won a railroad in a poker game. As the Wells Fargo agent, Jim Hardy, Robertson was a line-reader; here he's an enthusiastic, fairly exciting artist.

One can be sure the Buffalo Pass, Scalplock and Defiance Railroad is going to have problems. I should hope to tell you. In this area, in fact, the BPS&D has woes unforeseen at ABC headquarters. In place of its 6:30 p.m. network slot, Channel 11 offers it as a delayed broadcast Mondays at 10 p.m., in order to run an early evening movie. Whether the series can overcome bad guys, Mother Nature and Indians, not to mention the news and Johnny Carson, is doubtful. It would be nice to see it where it belongs.

The Monkees — This is truly a zany comedy. At its brightest moments, the series approaches the outstanding photography and expressionistic freedom of a Beatle movie, but at its lowest times it appears to be a second-rate beach film.

The not-too-successful long hair vocal group around which the show is based is attractive. David Jones, Mike Nesmith, Peter Tork and Micky Dolenz portray the quartet members, all of whom have good timing but the tendency to be a bit cornier than necessary.

The smoothness of the first episode, generally at least, will be hard to maintain, but interest of younger viewers who are already buying the group's first single in the real world could push competitor "Gilligan's Island" to a remote place in the ratings.

The Road West — The title of the series indicates a re-hashed "Wagon Train," but, thankfully, it is not. The Benjamin Pride family reached the destination in the first show and now will attempt building a home.

Judging by episode No. 1, these cats are gonna have their problems, man, as guest star John Drew Barrymore might have said. Barrymore and George C. Scott make excellent villains, despite the former's penchant for sounding like a member of Hell's Angels born 100 years too soon. The pair has not been overcome yet, because the series debuted with a two-parter.

Barrymore and Scott will go, but Barry Sullivan stays. A good thing, because his and Kathryn Hays' performances were about all that counteracted weak characterizations by Kip Charles Seal, Brenda Andrew Prine. Eight-year-old Kelly Corcoran, however, offers some relief.

Chances are that "Road West," even with its several virtues, has too much competition ("Andy Griffith," "Peyton Place") to survive.

Run, Buddy, Run — In order to promote brotherhood and understanding and avoid obscen-ities in the family newspaper, Jingo will simply say this series is disappointing.

After the sappy, clumsy first confrontation, Jingo is pulling for Gordon (Frank Nitti on "The Untouchables") to catch Buddy.

The Roger Miller Show — There's a lot of entertainment packed into the 30 short minutes of this NBC-TV variety show. In the premiere outing, Miller, whose deceptively slow drawl masks a quick wit, welcomed Bill Cosby (making an hilarious "singing" debut), Wes Harrison, a one-man sound effects department, and an attractive group known as the Doodletown Pipers.

Miller is fortunate in being surrounded by an expert producing team, headed by the experienced Dwight Hemion and Gary Smith. Jingo suspects this show will attract a wide and appreciative audience, not only because of the popularity of its star, but because of its relaxed pace and ingratiating style.

One negative note: Miller should stick to his own compositions, and avoid "Beatle" songs as the plague.

The Felony Squad — There's evidently still room on TV for the modestly but crisply produced half-hour "B" movie.

"The Felony Squad," which features Howard ("Voice Over") Duff and Dennis Cole as a pair of Los Angeles area detectives, is just such an effort—humble in its aims, but effective in its means.

ions, who are also responsible for the durable "My Three Sons" and the long-re-running "The Millionaire."

The opening show was, in fact, an object lesson in how sentimental material can be handled so that it can be enjoyed, even by viewers on sugar-free diets. It ought to be required subject matter in the curriculum of all would-be producers of situation comedies.

And since a number of them will again be unemployed shortly, they'll have plenty of time for the course.

The Jean Arthur Show — The star of this Universal-TV situation comedy has weathered the years better than many of her contemporaries. The same can not be said, however, for the basic concept of her new series.

Miss Arthur, one of Hollywood's more brilliant comedienne, is cast as Patricia Marshall, a dynamic woman attorney who is frequently at odds with her son, Paul Marshall (played by Ron Harper), who works in the District Attorney's office.

As such, the series is a kind of cross between "Father Knows Best" (with genders switched) and "The Defenders," played for laughs. Without Miss Arthur — her ever-beguiling croaky voice and pert manner — the show would be nothing. With her, it has the promise of becoming one of television's more appealing half-hours.

As with Milton Berle and Gary Moore, it's great to see the old pros at work again. But one hopes that Miss Arthur will, in coming weeks, have better material, with which to work than was given her in the opening episode.

Vice Wins GOP Nomination for Calumet Sheriff

Appleton Policeman Will Face Democrat Herman Weaver

CHILTON — Irvan Vice won the Republican Party nomination for Calumet County sheriff Tuesday and will be opposed by Democrat Herman Weaver in November.

Vice, 526 Murray Ave., Appleton, a Calumet County traffic patrolman for 16 years, notched an impressive victory over Norman Dohr, a Town of Woodville farmer, in the primary. Vice tallied 2,369 votes compared with Dohr's 1,040.

On the Democratic side of the ballot, Weaver, rural New Holstein farmer, polled 332 to defeat Alex Pudlow, a New Holstein factory worker, who received 266 votes.

Heavy Turnout

A total of 4,594 votes were cast, a heavy turnout attracted by four GOP county level contests, one local Democrat and four state level Democratic contests. There were two three-way contests on the GOP ticket.

In a close race for the GOP county clerk nomination, Donald Schwobe, rural New Holstein farmer, picked up 1,286 votes to edge Harold Woelfel, rural New Holstein, a factory worker, and Walter Schmitt, Town of Woodville. Woelfel received 1,020 votes and Schmitt, 1,110.

Schwobe will oppose Royal L. Gillis, route 1, Menasha, in November. Gillis, a Democrat running unopposed, tallied 583 votes.

Terrence Owens, Chilton, a factory worker, won the GOP nomination for clerk of courts, upsetting incumbent Mrs. Nick Keuler, Chilton, by an 89-vote margin. Owens received 1,234 votes; Mrs. Keuler, 1,145, and a third Republican candidate, Robert F. Schroeder, Stockbridge, tallied 1,139. There was a difference of only 95 votes between the high and low.

Owens' November opponent will be Democrat Mrs. Ed Morgan, rural New Holstein. Unopposed, she polled 518 votes.

In the other GOP contest, incumbent assemblyman William Struebing, rural Brillion, for the second time defeated challenger Sylvester Simon, route 1, Menasha, for the party nomination for the county's seat in the state assembly. Struebing, in quest of his third term, polled 2,131 votes to Simon's 1,360. Struebing will be opposed by Gervase Hephner, Chilton, in November. Hephner, the opposed Democrat, received 580 votes.

Dr. George Behnke, president of the board of education, was authorized to write the city planning commission asking it to liberalize city laws governing construction of apartment buildings in the city. The action was taken after Julian Bichler, superintendent of schools, reported teachers were having difficulty finding housing in the school district.

The board has a policy which requires teachers to reside within the Kaukauna school district and unless adequate housing is found, the policy will have to be rescinded. City ordinance requires 3,600 square feet of lawn for each family which makes three and four apartment buildings impractical, according to school board members.

Driver, Arrested for Speeding, Fined $40 On Amended Charge

Frank J. Barlow, 52, 178 River Drive, was fined $40 and costs Tuesday after he pleaded guilty to an amended speeding charge.

Barlow was arrested June 10 by state police who said he was speeding 95 miles an hour in a 65 zone on U.S. 41 in the Town of Vandenberg. He pleaded innocent of the charge and filed an affidavit of prejudice against Outagamie Judge Gustave J. Keller.

The trial began in the court of Judge Urban P. Van Susteren.

The court accepted a motion by Dist. Atty. Nick F. Schaefer to amend the charge to speeding 84 miles an hour.

ation facilities following the board meeting.

"We are especially proud of Riverside Park," Leehning said, "and years ago when a forward-thinking mayor and council paid $1,300 for the property, they were thrown out in the next election for squandering the city's money. Now it couldn't be purchased for hundreds of thousands of dollars." The mayor also commended the WPRA board for its policy of holding its meetings in different Wisconsin cities.

William Anderson, Milwaukee County Stadium, manager and president of the WPRA board, told the mayor this policy was followed to give park and recreation men a chance to become more familiar with the working of the association.

In other action the board approved formal wording of a resolution to be presented at the annual fall conference. This resolution will divide the state into six park and recreation districts. If accepted, each district will elect a board member. Now the general membership is represented by two members-at-large.

According to the new map division, all Fox Valley counties will be in the northeast district which includes 16 counties.

Neenah Woman Fined For Worthless Check

Mrs. Marie Breunig, 19, 1555 S. Park Ave., Neenah, Tuesday afternoon was fined $25 and costs or 14 days in jail after she pleaded guilty of issuing a worthless check April 9.

Authorities said the woman cashed a worthless $10 check at Jerry's Service Station, Little Chute. The complaint was filed crushed in the county, where the incumbent won, 1,421-381. According to reports, Conrad's large majority was due in part to a large number of votes cast by Democrats and independents who voted for a lone name on the Republican ticket—and that one was Conrad.

third district includes the towns of Black Creek, Bovina, Center, Cicero, Dale, Deer Creek, Ellington, Grand Chute, Greenville, Hortonville, Loberly, Maine and Maple Creek; the villages of Bear Creek, Black Creek, Hortonville and Shiocton, New London's Third Ward and the five Appleton wards.

Van Vuren, former publisher of the Seymour-Black Creek Community Press, outpolled Rogers in his home Seymour by a 116-34 margin. The only other advantages Van Vuren won were in the Town of Seymour, 16-15; Town of Buchanan, 34-27, and Town of Osborn, 26-14.

As expected, Rogers came out strongest in the city of Kaukauna's five wards, where he outpolled Van Vuren by 700-298. Kimberly went 297-115 for Rogers and Little Chute went 235-118.

In addition to those mentioned, the second district is comprised of the towns of Freedom, Kaukauna, Oneida and Vandenberg and the village of Combined Locks.

Stuffed Onion Cups
With Roast Beef

Autumn Harvest

Lillian Mackesy POST-CRESCENT FOOD EDITOR

Ah...this is the hour of victory for backyard gardeners. The tomatoes rich and plump are in their final hour of beauty...the zucchini squash are huge and plentiful, making it needful to hustle to the cookbooks for more recipes...the cukes are glossy, and plump and the eggplant beautifully purple.

The onion harvest is in and area markets are featuring those huge, sweet Spanish varieties that grow so well in the state of Idaho. The cabbages are abundant and reasonable in price, making this useful vegetable one of the economy buys of the harvest season.

Market reports and a visit to area stores indicate that local cauliflower and squash are available right now with summer squash making a colorful display on produce counters. Summer squash includes the delicious and delicate zucchini, the long yellow and golden crook-neck, the scallop and individual acorns. When purchasing squash, look for firmness with no bruises or soft spots, cautions home economist Rosemary Stare, marketing specialist at the University of Wisconsin.

Today's recipes include two excellent recipes for the zucchini squash since there has been a flurry of calls asking for them. It seems this is a fine year for the zucchini and many home-makers are wondering how to prepare them besides the usual (but delicious) method of slow steaming and plain baking. Of course, this squash may be batter fried like eggplant.

One of the nicest ways to serve this vegetable is to slice it thinly, leaving the peel on if the zucchini is freshly plucked from its garden bed...and then cut it into finger food chunks for appetizers. Combined with a favorite dip, the zucchini goes right along with fresh flowerets of cauliflower and carrot sticks as nibbling foods.

To fit the harvest theme, one of the nicest recipes ever comes from the Provencal region of France. It's a stew or ragout of vegetables called Ratatouille and has been made by Provencal farm folk for centuries. It's a simmer dish, to be made in a big pot, and one that's unforgettable for flavor.

Add to these the recipes for stuffed onions and onion cups...a cabbage baked dish with frankfurters...and another Provencal recipe...this one for scalloped potatoes...and the collection makes a remarkable array of economical dishes that are interesting as well.

FRANKS WITH CABBAGE WEDGES

- 1 cabbage (5 to 6 inches in diameter) about 1 1/2 pounds
- 1 1/2 teaspoons salt
- 1/4 cup butter or margarine
- 1/4 cup chopped onion
- 1/4 cup flour
- 2 cups milk
- 1/4 cup sweet pickle relish
- 3 tablespoons prepared mustard
- 1 pound franks, cut in half, crosswise

Cut cabbage into five or six wedges as desired. Cook wedges gently in water to cover until almost tender, about five minutes. Drain. Arrange wedges in shallow two-quart casserole. Sprinkle 1/2 teaspoon salt over wedges. Melt butter. Add onion and cook until onion is soft.

Ratatouille or Vegetable Medley

Blend in flour and remaining teaspoon salt. Add milk and cook stirring constantly until thick and smooth. Stir in pickle relish and mustard. Pour over cabbage wedges. Arrange frank halves between cabbage wedges. Bake in 350-degree oven until cabbage is tender, about 20 minutes. Recipe makes five to six servings.

RATATOUILLE

- 1 medium eggplant, peeled and cut in 3-inch strips, 1/2 inch thick
- 2 medium zucchini, cut in 1/2-inch slices
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 1/2 cup olive oil
- 2 medium yellow onions, thinly sliced
- 2 medium green peppers, thinly sliced
- 2 cloves garlic, minced

- 3 medium firm tomatoes, peeled and cut in strips
- 1 cup sliced pimiento-stuffed olives
- 1/4 cup chopped parsley
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 1/4 teaspoon pepper

Combine eggplant, zucchini and 1 teaspoon salt; let stand 30 minutes. Drain and dry with paper towel.

In a large skillet or heavy saucepan, saute eggplant strips, then zucchini slices in 1/4 cup hot oil about one minute on each side, or until lightly browned. Remove and set aside pieces as they brown.

In same skillet, cook onions and peppers in remaining oil until tender; stir in garlic. Place tomato strips on top; cook covered five minutes. Gently stir in eggplant, zucchini, olives, parsley, salt and pepper. Simmer covered 20 minutes; uncover and cook five minutes longer, basting frequently with juices from bottom of pan. Serve at once or chill and serve cold. Recipe makes six to eight servings.

SCALLOPED POTATOES PROVENCAL

- 2 cups sliced onions
- 1/4 cup olive oil (use oil from anchovies, if desired)
- 2 cloves garlic, crushed
- 6 anchovy fillets, mashed
- 1/4 teaspoon basil
- 1/4 teaspoon thyme leaves
- 1/4 teaspoon pepper
- 1/2 cup pimiento-stuffed olives, sliced
- 1 1/2 pounds tomatoes, peeled, halved and thinly sliced

Couple Marks 50th Wedding Anniversary

FREMONT — Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Zuehlke celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary Sunday at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Cyril Greifoner.

The couple was married Oct. 18, 1916, at the parsonage of St. Peter and Paul Lutheran Church, Weyauwega.

Mr. Zuehlke was a foreman at the Wolf River Pearl Button Factory. He later was employed at FWD Corp., Clintonville.

The couple's children are Mrs. Greifoner and Elmer, Los Angeles, Calif.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Zuehlke

Mrs. Leonore Olson will work with women of low income families in Shawano and Menominee Counties concerning money management and other problems related to the home. Above right, she is shown during a two-week training program at the Appleton office of the Farmers Home Administration, talking with James Suehring, Appleton office supervisor, on loan procedures. The former Shawano County Home Economics Agent will assume her new post at the agency's Shawano office. (Post-Crescent Photo)

How to Slice the Rising Cost of a Loaf of Bread

BY SYLVIA PORTER

We're paying an average of 21.8 cents for a one-pound loaf of white bread today, up 5.3 per cent from the average price of 20.7 cents in 1964. About double the price we paid for a loaf two decades ago.

Because bread is so large an receiving most of the 1.1-cent rise since 1964.

The baker-wholesaler gets 11.6 cents of the 21.8-cent cost and receives 18 per cent of the 1.1-cent rise in cost. The retailer gets 4 cents of the cost and 27 per cent of the increase.

The farmer receives 3.8 cents of the cost and 55 per cent of the rise. The transportation handlers and millers receive 1.5 cents and .9 cents of the 21.8 cents respectively, but get no per cent of the cost rise.

But here is who benefited most from the rise from 12.7 cents in 1947-49 to 21.8 cent average today:

The baker-wholesaler got 65 per cent of the rise, the retailer, 23 per cent, and the farmer, 6 per cent. The transportation handlers and millers each received 3 per cent.

Source of Rising Prices

Obviously, the baker-wholesaler is the source forcing up bread prices so sharply. Why? Because bread baking is a far more complicated process than that of getting milk from cow to consumer. After wheat has been grown, harvested, stored and processed in flour mills, it goes through more than a dozen separate steps at the bakery before the bread is ready to be sliced and wrapped. Other ingredients — milk, shortening, sugar — also go through a series of processes.

To say that the farm ingredients of bread account for "only" 3.8 cents of the total cost of a loaf of bread, says a spokesman for the American Bakers' Association, "is like saying that the cost of trees is 'only' a fraction of the cost of building a house."

Since the 1947-49 base period, hourly wages of bakery workers have skyrocketed 107 per cent. The baking industry also has been hit by the high cost of automating, sharply rising bread-wrapping costs, rising competition from retail chains which bake and sell their own bread. Bakers' profits today are running only about 2 per cent in sales — against 4-5 per cent in 1947-49 — and the squeeze continues.

In short, there is no villain — and in view of the facts and factors involved, we may be fortunate that bread costs no more than it does. And while the industry works to modernize its techniques, we can do plenty on our own to slash our bread costs. Common sense alone will guide you to the many ways to save on this staple.

Reading of Minds Can Help Game

Good technique won't solve all of your problems. Sometimes your best guide to the right play is a knowledge of how the human mind works.

West opened the five of spades, and South had a problem. Should he play dummy's queen, or should he play low? West was a crafty type, who would enjoy leading the jack if he held the king of spades, in the hope of stealing the rest of the suit. Still, it was possible that West had not been dealt the king of spades.

No Advantage

South didn't have our advantage of seeing all of the cards. He made up his mind on an emotional basis. He would feel terrible if he put up the queen and lost to the king, but he would never be able to hold up his head if he played low from the dummy and then discovered that West held the king.

So South put up dummy's queen of spades, and the defenders took four spade tricks to defeat the contract.

South went wrong because he was trying to read the wrong mind. How would East act if he started with 10-8-3 of spades instead of K-10-3?

After winning the king of diamonds East would return a spade rather than a club. The fact that East failed to return his partner's suit was a tip-off to the fact that East held the king of spades.

Daily Question

As dealer, you hold: S-Q 7 4, H-A Q 5, D-A Q J 7 3, C-7 4. What do you say?

ANSWER: Bid one diamond. Despite the 15 points, the strong five-card suit, and the balanced distribution, the hand does not qualify for an opening bid of one notrump. The bulk of the strength is in the two red suits, and a typical notrumper should show strength in three suits.

Knight, nominating chairman; Mrs. Frank Erm, phone chairman; Mrs. Hugo Wimmer, publicity; Mrs. Frank Donnack, valley fair, and Mrs. Peter Petersen, potluck.

Mrs. Annice Jaber, Fond du Lac, spoke on dried arrangements and collages. As a civic project this year, the group will assist in the landscaping of Appleton's City Home. Members will participate in both the Y Flower Show Saturday and Sunday and the Good Neighbor Fair at Valley Fair.

Marriage Announced

Mount Olive Lutheran Church was the setting Aug. 13, for the wedding of Miss Mary Ann Retlick and Michael E. Boldt. The Rev. R. E. Ziemer officiated at the double ring ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. George Retlick, Marinette, are the parents of the bride. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Mayme Boldt, 723 N. Locust St. Miss Doris Retlick, a sister of the bride, attended as maid of honor. Dennis Boldt, a brother of the bridegroom performed the duties of best man. William Boldt seated guests.

Mrs. Boldt is employed at Tuttle Press Co. Her husband is with Consolidated Papers, Inc. The couple resides at 815 E. Winnebago St.

Your Problems

Ann Corrects Reader Who Wrote to Dispute Her Advice

BY ANN LANDERS
DEAR ANN LANDERS: You have a problem. It is called exaggeration. When "Los Angeles Heartache" complained about her daughter-in-law's dirty house you replied, "If all the women who wrote to me on this subject were lined up they would reach from Anchorage to Amarillo."

The distance from Anchorage to Amarillo is approximately 2,450 miles. If you allowed six feet of space for each complaining woman 2,376,000 women could fit into that space very nicely.

Will you take twenty lashes with your old typewriter ribbon or do I gargle my garters?—D. D.

Dear D.D.: I just put in a new typewriter ribbon so I'm going to try my darndest to weasel out of the punishment. (If there's anything I hate it's ink on my back.)

I figure that for every woman who writes about a problem there are about a thousand who have it but don't write. Since you are apparently much better with figures than I am, please let me know if this gets me off the hook—somewhat.

P.S. If I am guilty of overstating the case you are equally guilty of understating it. I just learned that the distance between Anchorage and Amarillo is 3,496 miles!!!!!! So go ahead and gargle your garters, Bub.

DEAR ANN LANDERS: I'm

a girl, 18, brought up by cultured parents who have high morals and good taste. I have been exposed to extensive travel, fine art, music and literature. My father is one of the city's most prominent civic leaders.

You would think that I'd be interested in young men of similar backgrounds and interests, but I'm not. For some strange reason, I am drawn to crude rough-necks—boys with backgrounds very different from mine.

I am in college now and have been dating three fellows. I would be ashamed to have my parents meet any one of them. They'd think I had flipped. May be I have. Why am I attracted to the unpolished types—fellows who are poor marriage materials? Straighten me out. Please!!—Concerned About the Future

Dear Concerned: When a girl is attracted to young men she'd be ashamed to introduce to her parents, it strongly suggests she is rebelling like a pouting child. This is probably a phase that will pass. (Soon, I hope.)

You write like a girl whose thinking is fairly solid—on the conscious level, that is. Keep your wits about you, Toots, and don't go off your rocker and marry one of these birds.

DEAR ANN LANDERS: My husband and I have been married for six years. We have no children. I went to a very fine doctor last week and he told me I'd have to have surgery if I want to have a family. My husband says I should go to another doctor and not tell him about my first doctor's diagnosis. Would this be ethical? I don't want to make an enemy of the first doctor if the word should get back to him. What is your advice?—Monterey

Dear Monterey: Most physicians have no objections if a patient seeks the opinion of another physician. By all means go to one or even two others. This is not unethical behavior. It is prudent.

When necking becomes petting, watch out! To learn how the smart girl keeps both her dignity and her boyfriend, send for ANN LANDERS' booklet, "Necking and Petting—And How Far To Go," enclosing with your request 25 cents in coin and a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope. (Copyright, 1966)

Job Will Help Teens Develop Confidences, Sense of Security

BY DR. EVE JONES
DEAR DR. JONES: What's the psychological effect upon a teen-ager of not being able to get a summer job? My daughter is 16 and was very excited at the beginning of vacation over the prospect of finding a job to earn money for college. But, although she can type and handle many different kinds of general office jobs, the employment advisor told her they can't help her because my husband earns a good living, so she isn't underprivileged and eligible for war-on-poverty jobs. And also, she will be going back to high school for her senior year, so she isn't a drop-out problem who's eligible for retraining.

 Don't get me wrong, I have nothing against the government's giving better opportunities to kids who haven't had much of a chance up until now. But I'm worried about my daughter's attitude: I think she's becoming not only bored and restless, but also depressed and hopeless. Some of my friends tell me the only solution is for her to take a summer volunteer work at one of the local hospitals. But she isn't looking for something to keep her busy, so much as for something that will let her get a chance to try out more independence and to find out what it means to be working in the business world. MRS. C. R.

Having the opportunity to try out what it's like to earn a living is a vital part of healthy adolescent development. A teen-ager who doesn't have this opportunity is bound to suffer increasing insecurity and loss of self-esteem. Eventually such an untied person may even reject emerging important responsibilities later on rather than risk further failure. No wonder we have a teen society alienated from the adult world! That's how our teens avoid both the challenge and the disappointment of trying to win acceptance from the adults.

Help your daughter by encouraging her to talk out her resentment over her position. Much of her depression is probably caused by unexpressed anger. This is only a stop-gap measure, though.

The only genuine solution for the trouble causing her anxieties is to give her a decent job. Since industry and business right now are concentrating on hiring people less fortunate than she is, perhaps jobs can only be provided through teen-age community efforts to make new opportunities for themselves. Self-employed parents can be solicited to hire some youngsters for chores that don't often need doing, like cleaning the office storeroom or closets, updating file drawer contents, and helping with inventory. And mothers can be solicited to hire teenagers for regular grocery shopping trips or for taking younger children to lessons. One youngster I know made quite a handsome sum of money last summer from mending and sewing jobs she obtained by door-to-door soliciting in her neighborhood. So long as the job is for hire, it provides the constructive features a teenager needs for personality growth.

Dr. Jones replies personally to all letters received from parents. Write to her, in care of The Post-Crescent, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Mrs. Knowles Makes Her Own Political News

MILWAUKEE (AP)—Wisconsin's Republican first lady made political history on her own Tuesday night—she made calls at the primary election headquarters of all four Democratic gubernatorial candidates.

Mrs. Warren P. Knowles missed greeting David Carley, because the Democratic National Committeeman and his wife were making another call.

But at Abe Swed's headquarters, Mrs. Knowles told Mrs. Swed — who is the Democratic National Committeewoman—that since she was in town for a charity event, she'd decided to go "where the action is."

Knowles was unopposed for re-nomination.

Hasty Search
 At the home of Dominic Frinzi, Mrs. Knowles' arrival meant a hasty search for a bathrobe by 9-year-old Dominic Jr., who was bound for bed at the time and an embrace from the candidate's wife, who cried, "Welcome to my home."

Mrs. Frinzi explained, a trifle downcast, that the Frinzi children had been going to dress up only if their father won. Then she and Mrs. Knowles discussed the latter's favorite project—refurbishment of the executive mansion at Madison.

Mrs. Knowles said she was sorry Mrs. Lucey wasn't in Milwaukee for "the big evening," and Lucey, who will oppose Knowles in November, answered:

"Jean wouldn't come without the kids having a baby sitter, and Laurie wouldn't miss school tomorrow."

Laurie is the Luceys' 12-year-old daughter and baby sitter.

YES ☐ NO ☐

No. People gamble, not be- losses as well as gains. Other cause of some inborn "instinct," are trying to compensate for but for a variety of reasons, feelings of personal inferiority. Some want to get something for People who gamble away more nothing. Others like the excite- than they can afford to lose, or ment that comes with possible who cannot seem to stop, usually have serious personality defects that need correction. Domineering men are hard to the core!

 True— False—
 False. Dr. Gertrude Hengerer's studies lead her to conclude that the domineering man is usually anything but hard inside. Caseworkers find in dealing with him how "vulnerable and soft he feels about himself inside." Outwardly he appears hard, but this is just a facade to cover up what he himself recognizes as softness within. It is his concept of what it means to be man that does not allow him to admit — to himself, or to others — that he is not hard as nails. Ever know anyone like that?
 Is exposure the best educator?

Yes— No—
 Yes. During the Civil War, Horace Greeley, editor of the "New York Tribune," attacked

President Lincoln for not negotiating with the Confederates. Lincoln promptly appointed him to conduct such negotiations as he could. He met with Confederate delegates in Canada and discovered that they had "no intentions of negotiating anything but conformity to their demands." It did not promote peace, but it shut Greeley up — at least on this point. Exposure to a problem may be one of the best ways of learning about it.

How do you get a boy interested in you? Can an ex-steady still be a friend? What about petting? The Ailing House Bottom of Porch Needs Paint Too

BY ROGER C. WHITMAN

Q: No matter how often I paint — and I use the best paint I can buy — it's only two or three months before my porch floor begins peeling again. The wood still seems okay, but my patience is wearing thin.

A: If anything, it's more important to protect below decks than topside. If you don't cover the underside of porch and steps with paint, there's nothing to stop ground dampness from rising right up through the wood.

So it will push the paint off the top surface as it evaporates. Aluminum paint is excellent for this underside coating. You'll check the dampness even better if you also cover-cementing the overlaps, or weighting them down with rocks.

Q: We had our basement walls waterproofed, and were told our troubles would be over. They are — except that now the area just above the joint where walls meet floor has become constantly damp.

Is this something one must live with, or is there something which can be done?

A: Maybe the contractor can no longer bend down and touch his toes — or at least, as far as he should have gone with the water-proofing materials.

While he was at it, he should have made sure of his coverage by extending a little way onto the floor. Matter of fact, the whole floor would have been a very fine idea.

Q: At one time, my log cabin was stained dark brown with creosote. Now I would like to paint it barn red. But I have been told that creosote can't be painted over; it will bleed through.

Must I remove the creosote first? Or is there something else I could do?

A: In the first place, you can't hope to remove creosote. It penetrates too deeply even to think about removal. But if it has been on for more than a year (two years are safer) the

Say Vows In Double Ring Rite

LITTLE CHUTE — Miss Kathleen I. Mollen and Thomas F. Ashauer exchanged marriage vows at 11 a.m. at St. John Catholic Church. The Rev. Martin H. Vosbeek officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emory H. Mollen, 1123 Garfield Ave. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Anton Ashauer, 324 Taylor St., Kaukauna.

Mrs. Gerald Jansen, sister of the bridegroom, attended as matron of honor. Miss Nancy Britten and Miss Mary Ashauer were bridesmaids.

Gerald Jansen performed the duties of best man. Kenneth Vande Hey and Mark Mollen were groomsmen. Guests were seated by Nicholas Mollen and Eugene Ashauer.

The couple was honored at a reception at the Darboy Club, Darboy.

Mrs. Ashauer

Mrs. Ashauer and her husband, a graduate of the Appleton Vocational and Adult School of Business, are employed at Giddings and Lewis Machine Tool Co., Kaukauna.

After a wedding trip to northern Michigan, the couple will reside in Kaukauna.

A Lovelier You

By Mary Sue Miller

Flattering Shimmer

New make-ups have one thing in common and that is luminosity, a highly flattering shimmer. After that, there's no one look. Girls on the near side of sixteen

On the pert face, freckles are accentuating their freckles and penciling in freckles. Well, now! Highlighting, a gleam in the cosmetic eye for several seasons, has now arrived. It takes the form of colorless, light-struck liquids that are applied over powder base to strengthen facial contours or simply to add sparkle.

As a means for improving the complexion tone, tinted under-foundations are on the upswing. A mauve underfoundation counteracts sallowing. In green, it plays down ruddiness. A turquoise shade clarifies and lights the skin. Applications make possible a topping of sheer, natural powder base, where once a masky cover was necessary.

Eye shadows tend to hazy shades and chiffon weights, all in the interest of translucence. Lipsticks have more color and gloss. Rosy and mauve shades sparkle like pink champagne. Think of a frosty peach

Double Ring Ceremony

WITTENBERG — St. Paul Lutheran Church was the setting at 3 p.m. Saturday for the wedding of Miss Sally Jean Wendler and J. Michael Swenson. The Rev. A. Victor Suehs officiated at the double ring ceremony.

Miss Merry Wendler, a sister of the bride, attended as maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Melba and you get the coral picture. To keep glossy colors from slipping outside the inner circle of the lipline, advanced formulation provides a non-migrating factor.

Flecked with gold and silver, evening make-up is pure glimmer.

The couple was honored at a reception in the church parlor. The bride has been employed as a dental assistant. Her husband, who attended Wisconsin State University-Stevens Point, is stationed at McChord Air Force Base, Tacoma, Washington, where the newlyweds will live.

what is Coffee Mill Flavor?

It's fresh-ground flavor you can't get in a can.
Fresh-ground flavor you do get in A&P's whole-bean.
Eight O'Clock, Red Circle and Bokar Coffees.

You see, once the coffee bean is ground,
the flavor begins to fade...
even when it's vacuum-packed.

That's why, when we at A&P buy the finest coffees we can find, we bring them to you still in the bean.
And we custom-grind them exactly right for your coffeemaker...
right in your A&P.

Takes a little extra work, but we're happy to do it.
That way we can be sure you'll enjoy the full, fresh taste of A&P's Coffee Mill Flavor.

Are A&P Coffees a good reason for shopping A&P?
They're one of many.

2 pounds potatoes, pared and cut in 1/2-inch thick slices
1/4 cup grated parmesan cheese

Cook onion in oil in large skillet until tender (do not brown). Remove from heat. Stir in garlic, anchovies, basil, thyme and pepper. Add olives and tomatoes; mix lightly. Layer tomato mixture and sliced potatoes in a shallow two-quart baking dish, beginning and ending with tomato mixture. Sprinkle with cheese. Cover loosely and bake in 400 degree oven one hour. Uncover and continue baking 20 minutes longer, or until potatoes are very tender. Recipe makes six servings.

FROZEN ZUCCHINI SALAD

3 ounces cream cheese
1/2 cup cottage cheese
2 (8-oz.) cans tomato sauce with cheese
1 cup mayonnaise
1 tablespoon grated onion
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/4 teaspoon pepper
1/2 teaspoon thyme
Dash tabasco
1 cup chopped zucchini

In large mixer bowl, combine cream cheese and cottage cheese; mix until smooth. Add remaining ingredients except zucchini; continue to mix until ingredients are well blended. Pour into two ice cube trays and place in freezer until firm around edges, about two hours. Remove salad from freezer and whip until light and fluffy. Fold in zucchini and pour into ice trays or individual molds. Return to freezer until firmly set. Serve on salad greens. Recipe makes six to eight servings.

BAKED ZUCCHINI AND TOMATOES

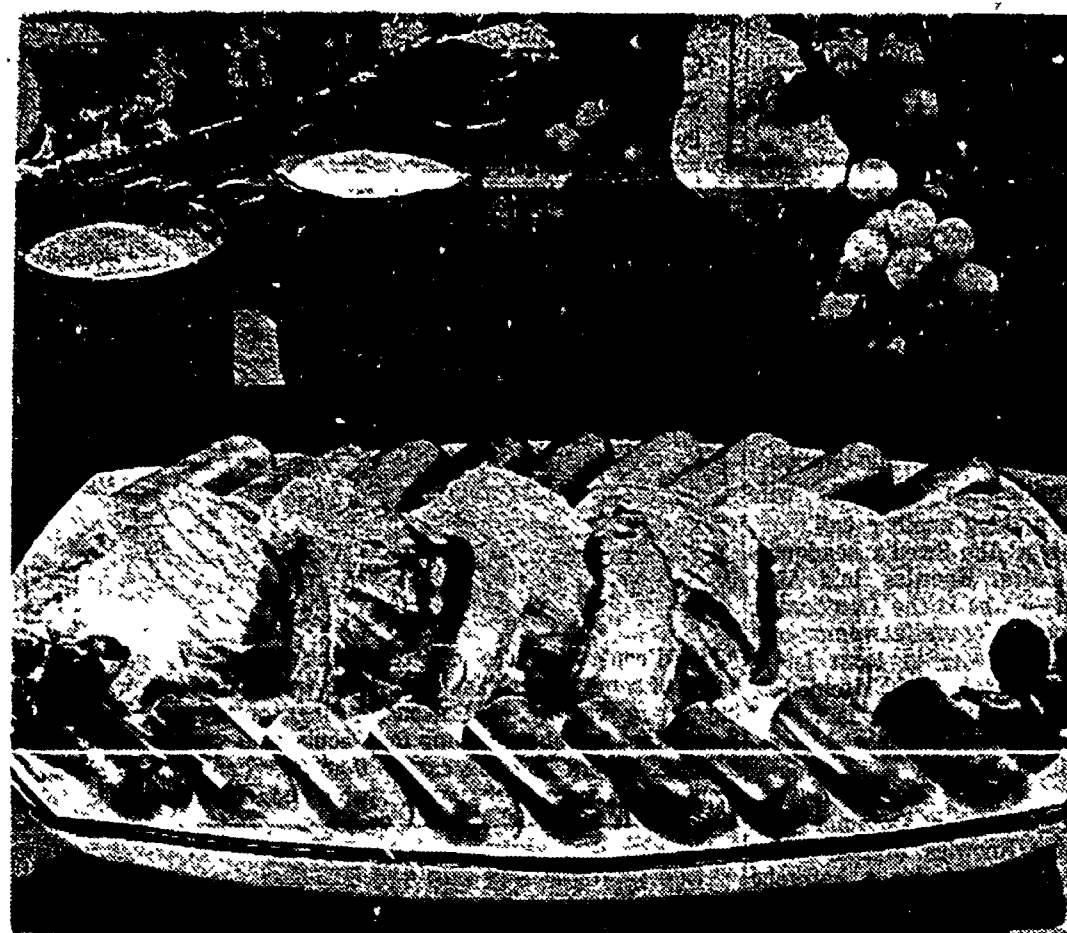

2 medium sized zucchinis
2 medium tomatoes
2 medium mild onions
Salt, pepper
Butter or margarine
1 cup buttered crumbs

Wash zucchini; do not peel unless skin is hard. Peel tomatoes and onions. Slice vegetables in very thin, crosswise slices. In greased baking dish, alternate layers zucchini, tomatoes, and onions, sprinkling each layer with salt and pepper and dot with butter.

Bake in 350-degree oven until vegetables are tender.

SWEET SPANISH ONION CUPS

Cabbage Bake With Franks

root end of same-sized Idaho sweet Spanish onions. Carefully remove the skins, taking care not to cut into the layers. Then cut off stem end. These are to be cooked and stuffed with a hearty filling and used for the main course in the "stuffed pepper" manner.

For half-cup onions, allow one large sweet Spanish onion for two servings. After removing skin, cut each in halves. These are to be used as a vegetable meat accompaniment, sometimes hollowed out after cooking and filled with other vegetables, buttered or creamed. Vegetables may be ladled over the onion halves.

To cook, arrange whole onions or halves in skillet with one-inch of water and a liberal sprinkling of salt over each onion. Heat to boiling, uncovered. Reduce heat; cover and cook gently until onions are almost tender if to be stuffed and baked, or tender for the halves.

STUFFED ONIONS
Using the whole steam-cooked onion, remove the onion center, leaving a 1/4- to 1/2-inch shell. Fill with a favorite hearty stuffing. See Stuffed Peppers in cookbooks.

These stuffings range from ground beef, leftover ground roast of beef or baked ham usually combined with bread crumbs and seasonings, to rice-cheese-tomato mixtures, even canned baked beans. Vegetables such as mushrooms and peas, buttered or creamed, make excellent filling.

Place filled onion cups in a buttered baking dish. Bake in a moderate oven, (350 degrees) for 30 minutes to an hour depending upon the filling.

Snobbery Built Into All of Us

Snobbery existed long before the word existed to describe it. By the 1830s, the word had undergone a mysterious change of significance. Then, the Snobs were a group of young men in London, rather like the "Teddy Boys" after World War II, who imitated the dress and mannerisms of fashionable young men, the Nobbs, or Swells.

When the Snobs copied the Swells' great twirly moustachios, the Swells shaved off theirs, and grew Dundreary whiskers; when the Snobs appeared in short overcoats, the overcoats of the Swells fell to their heels, and so it went, on and on.

Snobbery today, by contrast, is absolutely free—it costs nothing to feel better than other people. It's trying to look better, live better, entertain often, or travel more than THEY do that tears it.

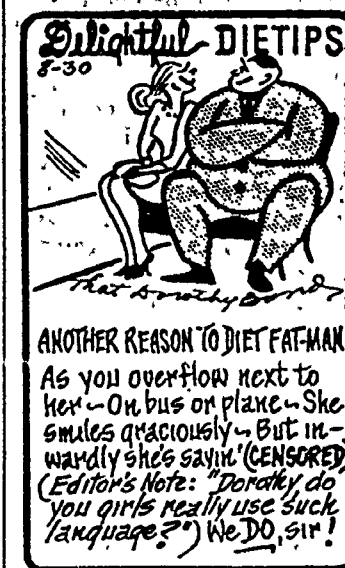

Floating Categories

Somewhere in - between, or possibly outside both of these descriptions, are a few floating categories of snobbery that may be worth a brief mention: Cultural snobbery can involve anything from owning a Honda to going to a Happening; from harpsichord recordings of early music to very advanced jazz; from Lowestoft to a wood-burning fireplace that really works. There's nothing wrong with any of this. What differentiates the Cultural Snob from the Cultivated Person is his imitating, is that the cultivated person doesn't take all these things of the Good Life too seriously. That Cultural Snob does. The recordings often are too loud; the fire too hot, and there are just too many herbs in the salad.

Reverse Snobbery takes many forms; some amusing and refreshing, some at least mildly irritating. The Beatniks, with their elaborate avoidance of conventional clothes, or a newer example, the gal who is invited to New England for a ski weekend, carefully selecting an apres-ski wardrobe . . . who skies? That's for . . .

Counter Snobs have no axe to grind; they aren't trying to keep up with anybody. They don't feel better or worse than anybody else; they just enjoy life.

if canned soup is one day old or ten?

Freshly-made tomato soup is good, of course. But to a gourmet, it tastes better after it has been allowed to mellow for a few days.

Takes 10 days for the flavors to blend and blossom.

So our Ann Page tomato soup is kept in the plant for ten days...until the rich, characteristic flavor is fully developed.

Our tomato soup has a well-developed character!

Matter of fact, the only "underdeveloped" thing about our soup is the price.

Wisconsin's First Public Hospital To be Honored in Sunday Rites

Wisconsin's first public hospital, operating at Milwaukee since 1848, will be honored Sunday by the State Medical Society and State Historical Society.

St. Mary Hospital on the city's northeast side, originally was called St. John Infirmary. It pioneered in providing the civilian sick with clean surroundings, choice of physician, and nursing care. The Daughters of Charity of St. Vincent de Paul have operated the institution since its beginning.

Under the sponsorship of the State Medical Society, a marker will be placed on the hospital grounds in ceremonies at 3:30 p.m. Sunday. The hospital is located at 2320 N. Lake Drive. The marker, granted by the State Historical Society after extensive research, designates St. Mary Hospital as an official U.S. historic site.

While there were three military hospitals in early Wisconsin, public concern for the civilian sick was limited to attempts to curb the spread of infectious disease. Victims of cholera or smallpox were shut up in pesthouses, and thus out of the way, were given scant attention.

Forward Looking

St. John Infirmary was opened by four nuns, in a two-story frame building at what is now the corner of Jackson and Wells streets, across from St. John Cathedral.

An announcement in the Milwaukee Sentinel of May 12, 1848, signed by Sister Superior Felicitas, explained the revolutionary attitude at St. John's:

"...there will be no departure from the strictest order, the greatest cleanliness, and the most unremitting attention," she announced.

"Patients may call in any duly authorized medical man they please; but all food and medicine must be administered by the sisters. But this rule does not suffer them to deviate from the physician's advice.

"Any patient may call for any clergyman he may prefer. But no minister, whether Protestant or Catholic, will be permitted to preach to, pray aloud before, or interfere religiously with, such

$24,000 Allotted for Winnebago; Other Welfare Projects Set

MADISON (AP) — Nearly $4 million in welfare construction has been authorized by the State Building Commission after a hassle over spending more than $300,000 for a penal cottage to house only 20 girls.

The commission earmarked $10,000 to begin planning for the building at the Wisconsin School for Girls at Oregon on a 5-1 vote after engineers said the cost of the $305,368 project was pushed up by security requirements for the cottage.

"This seems a terrific price to pay for a house for 20 girls. We can build them each a house for $10,000," said Assemblyman David O. Martin, R-Neenah, who cast the only vote against the project.

The planning funds totaled $137,000 for six projects. Construction authority was included in each vote.

Approved were $15,000 to plan a $489,000 patient building at Central State Hospital at Wau-pun; $24,000 to plan a $795,000 administration building at Winnebago State Hospital near Oshkosh; $30,000 to plan an $808,000 housing project at the Northern Colony near Chippewa Falls, and $58,000 to plan housing projects costing $955,000 and $627,000 at the Southern Colony near Union Grove.

patients as do not ask for the exercise of his office. The rights of conscience must be held paramount to all others."

A patient census for 1849 shows that the four nuns had 241 patients. Of these, 28 had cholera and 16 died.

Later that same year, by a contract with the U.S. Treasury Department, St. John Infirmary became a marine hospital to provide for the care of sick and injured seamen. The contract still is in effect.

Fight Epidemic

In 1850 the steamer Allegheny docked with 300 immigrants from Norway and Sweden and a raging typhus epidemic. Twenty-five had died during the crossing. The Milwaukee mayor commandeered empty buildings near the dock for added hospital facilities. The community of nuns had doubled with the arrival of four others from the convent, so the mayor asked them to render nursing care in the dock buildings. Despite their services, 200 of the 260 quarantined died within three weeks.

Land for the present hospital site was donated in 1857 by the city of Milwaukee in appreciation for the nuns' work.

A 55-bed, three-story building was opened here the following year, its name now St. Mary Hospital. Here, in 1861, Dr. E. B. Wolcott, a surgeon, performed the first successful kidney removal in medical history.

During the Civil War, returning wounded and disabled were assigned to the hospital, with a continuing daily census of from 50 to 80 military.

Housing Bill Gives Rise to False Claims

Radicals Inaugurate Fear Campaign to Oppose Provisions

BY ROWLAND EVANS AND ROBERT NOVAK

WASHINGTON — As part of the fear campaign against the open housing provision of the Civil Rights bill, the radical right has put an outrageous — and totally fictitious — statement in the mouth of Attorney General Nicholas De B. Katzenbach.

For a full month now, members of Congress, newspaper editors and Katzenbach himself have been receiving indignant letters about the attorney general. The source of the indignation is the following statement, alleged to have been made by Katzenbach to a congressional committee but suppressed by the liberal press:

"The policy of this administration is to favor a compelled amalgamation of all races, colors, and creeds in residential areas; individual preferences, the right of private property, and personal freedom must be sacrificed to this overriding policy."

Opposition Reason

Any statement like that by the attorney general would indeed be reason enough for opposing President Johnson's open housing provision (passed by the House and now confronting a Senate filibuster). In fact, however, it is a fabrication that provides a case study not only of how extremists on both sides can distort debate on an important issue, but also in the technique of the big lie.

The story starts on June 6 when Katzenbach, testifying before a Senate judiciary subcommittee, asserted that the open housing provision was unjustly labelled a "forced housing" proposal when it really was directed against "forced housing" requiring Negroes to stay in ghettos.

Sylvester Petro, a New York University law professor and theoretician of the respectable right, challenged Katzenbach's theory before the same subcommittee three days later.

Assertion Remains

"When one removes the tortured indirectness from the attorney general's language," said Petro, "what remains is this assertion: 'The policy of this administration is to favor a compelled amalgamation; etc., etc., etc.' Word for word, this is the statement now attributed directly to Katzenbach. What Petro claimed to see the mind of the attorney general now has been put in his mouth by direct quotation.

Actually, Petro's testimony probably would have gone unnoticed had not it been placed in the "Congressional Record" of June 21 by Sen. Sam J. Ervin Jr. of North Carolina, a foe of the open housing provision. It was noticed there by Phoebe Courtney who, with her husband Kent Courtney, publishes the far right Independent American of New Orleans.

In an undated pamphlet apparently mailed by the Courtneys early in July the quotation pops up. Correctly, it is preceded ed by this clause: "... Stone letters wrote protesting letters to newspapers across the country, some of which were printed in letters-to-editors columns — thereby inadvertently spreading the lie. As a result, even friends of civil rights expressed their alarm over the scare words in letters to the Justice Department.

Ironically, in its present form, the open housing provision does not even apply to individual home owners. But by now it is probably impossible to convince many of them that Katzenbach did not tell Congress that "personal freedom" must be sacrificed. Through the technique of the big lie, the spurious Katzenbach quote has become inseparably entwined with hysterical opposition to open housing.

Boy Scout Leaders to Take Training Course

New Program Result of More Than 3 Years Of Preparation, 2 Years of Testing Work

Don Brown, leadership training chairman for the Valley Council — Boy Scouts of America, has announced a completely new program for the training of troop leaders. Training facilities have been formed, and the training will be conducted throughout the Valley Council this fall.

"The new course has been in preparation for more than three years, has been tested by the National Boy Scout Council for two years, and rewritten at least three times," Brown explained. "In addition to completely new visual aids and literature, there is a new faculty and student structure. The seven session course will operate on the Boy Scout troop basis. The scoutmaster, assistant scoutmaster, and senior patrol leader will be the primary instructors. The patrol leaders will be both trainees and instructors, just as in a troop where patrol leaders are both boys and leaders," said Brown. "The emphasis will be on the patrol method, and the entire course will illustrate how character, citizenship, physical fitness, leadership, and self reliance are built with this method," added Brown.

Course instructors from the Valley Council are: Walter Van Mun, Warren Smith, Clarence Gurnee from Appleton; Ed Bloch, Jim Vandenburg, Richard Murray from Neenah; John Jacobs from Menasha; James Kluge and John Van Mun from Kimberly; Dean Evel from Brillion, Don Burton from Freedom, James Schmidt from Sherwood, Tim Tousey from Kaukauna, Jack Kaphingst, Lowell Walker, and Robert Chagnon from Clintonville; Vern Lehman and Howard Pinch from New London; Elmer Crowell from Wittenberg; and Walter Breitrick from Shawano.

These men met Saturday at the council's Gibson Island Training Center on Pine Lake. The purpose of the meeting was to acquaint the trainers with the visual aids, literature, and methods of the new course. The afternoon and evening sessions were conducted by Don Brown and Ty Steff from Appleton, and Dwight Donelson, Harvey Lueb- ben, John Nebel, Charles Wol- lin, and Tom Wright of the Valley Council professional staff.

The training course will be held at the First Methodist Church in Appleton on Sept. 21 and 28; Oct. 12, 19, and 26; and Nov. 2. It will also be conducted at the Christ Lutheran Church in Clintonville on Oct. 4, 11, 18, and 25; and Nov. 1, and 8. The third session in the series of seven sessions deals with the outdoor skills of scouting, and will be held at the Gibson Island Training Center on the week- ends of Oct. 1 and 2; and Oct. 15 and 16.

Shows Tonight Will Stretch from the Pacific north- west to the central Gulf states and from New England to the middle Atlantic states. It will be cooler in the Lakes area, the upper and central Mississippi valley and the Ohio valley. (AP Wirephoto Map)

Committeemen Chosen In 41 County Precincts

The unheralded office of pre- cinct committeeman, elected almost entirely by write-in votes, saw 49 selections made in 41 of the county's 57 wards and precincts.

Five outlying areas failed to elect a committeeman to either party. Appleton voters did not elect committeemen in nine of 21 precincts and Kaukauna did not elect in two of five precincts.

Results in Appleton's 21 pre- cincts, where indicated on the election returns, were: First Ward, Democrat, Jacob Shilcrat (55); Second Ward, Republican, Andrew C. Jimos, (274) and Democrat Clarence Wundow, (3); Third Ward, Democrat, Richard Schoenbeim, (2); Fifth Ward, Republican, Peter S. Nelson, (277); Eighth Ward, Republican, Patrick J. Heenan, (331) and Democrat, Lester A. Balliet, (115); Ninth Ward, First Precinct, Republican, Don Hein- ritz, (7); 10th Ward, Republi- can, Harry B. Splitt, (276).

Happiness is SOLO Poppy Cake

POPPIE FORM CAKE

1 cup shortening • 1 1/2 cups sugar • 1-1/2 oz. can "SOLO" Poppy filling • 4 eggs, separated • 1 teaspoon vanilla • 1 cup sour cream • 2 1/2 cups sifted all purpose flour • 1 teaspoon soda • 1 teaspoon salt • confectioners' sugar

Cream shortening and sugar until light and fluffy. Add "SOLO" Poppy filling. Add egg yolks, one at a time, beating well after each addition. Blend in vanilla and sour cream. Sift together flour, soda and salt. Add gradually to "SOLO" Poppy mixture, beating well after each addition. Fold in stiffly beaten egg whites. Pour into a greased 9 or 10 inch tube pan, which has the bottom lined with waxed paper.

Bake in a moderate oven (350°) about 1 hour and 15 minutes or until done. Allow cake to cool about 5 minutes. Remove from pan. Decorate by sifting confectioners' sugar through a paper doily or a cut-out. (Pg. 5, SOLO Cookbook)

Lawrence Will Pass More This Season, Says Roberts

BY JOHN L. PAUSTIAN
Post-Crescent Sports Editor

Lawrence University's football team will "open up" its attack this season, Head Coach Ron Roberts told The Viking Bench Tuesday night at the Riverview Country Club.

Last year, the Vikes ran the ball two-thirds of the time, Roberts told members and guests of the booster group, but they will put it in the air more in '66.

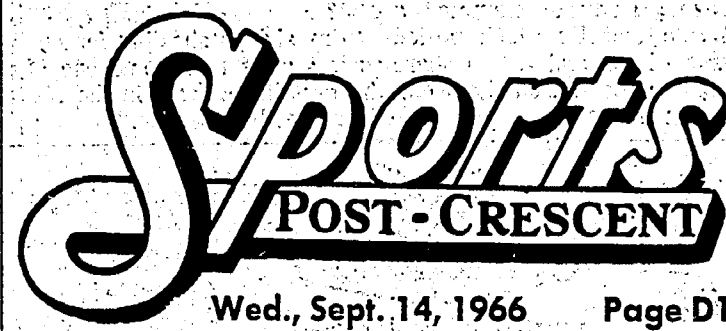

The coach said the Vikes will be a "double width" team—that is splitting receivers on both ends. This will force the defense to commit at least two men immediately, and make the Vikes running game even more effective, he indicated. The Vikes plan to do some running out of the "I" formation, Roberts said.

Roberts emphasized that he is opening the season on the same optimistic note he did last year. "We've told our players we could have won the title last year," he elaborated. He said the sophomore-accented squad suffered somewhat of a letdown after the Ripon game, in which Lawrence suffered its first loss.

Lawrence will have a good running attack and "adequate passing to keep the defense off-balance," he declared. Roberts indicated that the defensive unit has lost only two regulars and that the Vikes defense could be even better than last year.

Bob Long, Green Bay Packer flanker, gave a short talk as a special guest of The Viking Bench. He said his leg was "coming along fine" and that he might be ready to play in Sunday's game. Long said the injury made it a "rather frustrating month" for him.

Long told the group that the Packers' win over Baltimore was a gratifying one—especially in view of the way the Colts had boasted about what they would do. Long was introduced by Gary Knafelc, a former Packer.

Pirates, Giants Win

Johnson's Two Homers Power Dodgers to 8-3 Victory Over New York

By MURRAY CHASS
Associated Press Sports Writer

It could be the World Series for the Los Angeles Dodgers and City Hall for Lou Johnson all over again this year.

The two seem to go together, and the Dodgers couldn't be more pleased.

They maintained their 1½-game lead in the torrid National League pennant race Tuesday night by crushing the New York Mets 8-3 behind Johnson's slugging.

The left fielder, clouted two homers and drove in four runs, surpassing last year's marks that helped direct him to City Hall in Los Angeles where he received a special citation for his unexpected part in the Dodgers' successful fight for the pennant.

Called in "Emergency" Johnson was called up to the Dodgers, his 18th team in professional baseball, in an emergency last season to fill the left field spot suddenly left vacant when Tommy Davis broke his right ankle May 1.

The Dodgers didn't really expect much from Johnson, but he did more than most of their hitters in driving them to the Series.

He batted only .259, but many of his hits were clutch hits and he drove in 58 runs and tied Jim Lefebvre for the team lead in homers with 12.

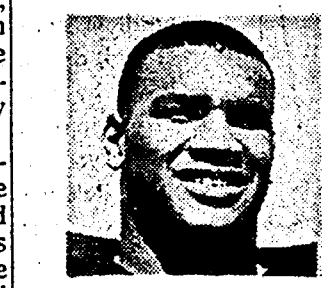

"Might Not Be Here" "If it hadn't been for the job Johnson did, we might not be here today," Sandy Koufax said after Los Angeles won the pennant.

But this year Johnson is doing even better. His performance against the Mets raised his average to .269 and vaulted him ahead of his 1965 slugging totals. He now has socked 13 homers and driven in 61 runs.

He is second in both departments only to Lefebvre, who has belted 23 homers and knocked in 72 runs.

The Dodgers certainly wouldn't mind stopping at City Hall on their way to the first game of the Series this year.

Los Angeles' two competitors also won Tuesday night, Pittsburgh remaining 1½ games back by walloping Houston 9-3 and San Francisco staying 2½ out with a 7-2 triumph over set up the go-ahead TD for a 13-10 lead, in the final period.

Jim Bakken's 27-yard field goal finally won the game in the last five seconds.

Bart Starr of Green Bay scored a touchdown on an improvised eight-yard run out of out after the running title vacated by Jim Brown when he carried 16 times for 99 yards in the Vikings' 20-20 tie with San Francisco. Fred Cox tied it with a 31-yard field goal into the wind with six seconds to go.

Homer Jones, the New York Giants' fleet spread end, scored twice at Pittsburgh on pass plays from Earl Morrall that covered 75 and 98 yards. He caught only two all day in the 34-3 tie, but they added up to 173 yards.

Nowatzke Outstanding.

Tom Nowatzke, the second-year man from Indiana who took Nick Pietrosante's fullback job at Detroit, was outstanding for the Lions in a 14-3 upset of Chicago. Nowatzke gained 84 yards on 21 carries and ran for six of his team's 14 first downs.

He also scored the first touchdown on a six-yard run.

Three Injured Hawks May Play Saturday

Xavier to Make Conference Debut Against Lourdes

Xavier High School's three injured senior football players may all return to action Saturday in the Fox Valley Catholic Conference opener in Oshkosh against Lourdes.

Gene Jack and Dennis Ulman are almost sure to see action Saturday, according to Coach Gene (Torchy) Clark, while Terry Graff is a possibility for active duty. The definite word on Graff may come Thursday, Clark said.

Terry Graff, the Hawks' leading ground gainer and a regular defensive back, has had trouble with his right knee most of the young season. "In last Friday's game at Rhinelander, he strained the other knee. At first, it was feared Terry would be out for some time, but the latest injury didn't prove quite as serious as expected.

Ulman, another running back, was forced out of the Rhinelander game with a back muscle injury—but it has been responding to treatment.

Misses Game Jack, a running back and defensive back, sustained a sprained ankle in practice before the Rhinelander contest and missed all action against the Hodags. Jack, a standout in the Hawks' opening victory against St. Paul Hill, should be ready Friday.

Last week's injuries gave sophomore Brad (Bubsy) Graff his first chance at lengthy varsity action, and he responded notably. The 153-pound speedster cracked a scoreless tie with a third-quarter touchdown. The younger Graff may start against Lourdes Saturday at a halfback spot. He also worked at quarterback in case the need arises for John Wenning to be spelled.

Clark lauded the play of his team—particularly on defense—in the two non-conference victories that boosted Xavier's 2-season win streak to 10 games. He said the Hawks have done everything expected of them—and more—against Hill and Rhinelander who outweighed Xavier by 10 and 15 pounds per man, respectively.

LA's Sutton May be Lost For Season

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Don Sutton, rookie right-handed pitcher for the Los Angeles Dodgers, may be through for the season.

A strained muscle in his pitching arm has sidelined the star hurler for at least 10 days, a Dodger official said Tuesday.

Sutton, who has won 12 of 23 decisions, complained of pain Tuesday and team physician Dr. Robert Kerlan said the rookie would miss at least two pitching turns.

"And if he misses two turns, it may be tough for him to get back in good enough shape to pitch again this season," Dr. Kerlan said.

Sporting a solid team of nine lettermen and a number of experienced players, the Neenah Rockets have been tabbed as the team to beat in the Mid-Eastern Conference.

League action gets underway this weekend after a set of non-conference tilts last Friday and Saturday in which M-E teams received some rough treatment in the won-lost department.

Out of eight games played last Friday and Saturday, only three M-E teams, Neenah, New London, and Kaukauna, managed to come out with victories.

Wins Four Crowns

Neenah has wrapped up four consecutive Mid-Eastern titles, all under the guidance of Coach Harland Carl. The Rockets have a new head coach this season in Ben Meisl, now that Carl has joined the University of Wisconsin coaching staff.

Chief threats to Neenah's march toward a fifth crown appear to be Kaukauna, Clintonville and a darkhorse, New London team.

Kaukauna and Clintonville have a good number of holdovers from last season and the Ghosts are perennial contenders because of their hard-nosed game.

10 Lettermen

New London had a 3-3 record last season and has 10 lettermen back. When fullback Henry Linke recovers from a collarbone fracture the Bulldogs will be even tougher and could cause trouble for any team in the circuit.

Here is a rundown on teams and their top performers:

Neenah: The Rockets, with a senior-dominated starting unit, appear to be the team to beat and the 19-13 non-conference victory over Monona Grove last weekend should clinch this argument.

New coach Ben Meisl will send his gridders against Clintonville in the opener with an attack directed by veteran Gary Losse at quarterback.

Other starters back from last year are Jim Burton, end; Jim Fetters, guard and Greg Nash, guard. In all, the Rockets have nine lettermen as a nucleus.

Menasha: Coach Tom Weede's club bowed to Berlin last Saturday and early indications point to a long season for the Bluejays, unless underclassmen develop in a hurry.

Lightly-regarded Berlin came back from a 7-0 deficit to beat the Bluejays, 13-7, in the non-loop game.

Has 9 Lettermen

Menasha has nine lettermen and a newcomer, Tom Kenney operating at quarterback. In the Berlin game, letterman Jim Krautkramer paced the running attack. Biggest man on the squad is letterman Dan Lingnolski, a 280-pound junior tackle.

Kaukauna: Coach Harry Wilson, of the Ghosts, has 13 lettermen back, but must fill the gaps caused by the graduation of six 2- and 3-year regulars from last season.

Kaukauna had a disappointing record last year, but the Ghosts may be ready to return to the thick of the M-E battle if the 19-

Collier Rates Browns, Bays as 'Pretty Even' For Sunday's Battle

Doesn't Consider Sunday's Contest As 'Grudge Match'

CLEVELAND (AP)—"I don't consider this any grudge game," says Blanton Collier.

The Cleveland Browns coach was referring to Sunday's game against the Green Bay Packers, who beat the Browns for the National Football league championship in January, 23-12. "Some people have been making a point of this (grudge) because of our loss in the championship game," Collier said Tuesday. "This is another season and another game. We're looking forward, not backward."

The game at Cleveland Municipal Stadium is expected to be a sellout, which means a crowd of over 80,000. Collier feels the clubs are "pretty even."

Have Fine Speed "They have fine speed in their defensive backfield, for instance but I think we pretty well match it," he said. "Linebacker is a Green Bay strength and they have a great one in Ray Nitschke."

Collier indicated a key to a possible Browns' victory could be defensive tackles Frank Parker, Walter Johnson and Jim Kanicki. They had the "size, speed and brains to do the job," he added.

Collier switched to the Packers. "They are different from most other clubs in that they have an almost perfect balance of running and passing," he said. "Many people credit them only with a good running game."

Passing Attack "They also have a fine passing attack," he added. "Bart Starr is a quarterback who gets the maximum out of his own ability. He can throw and also carry out the game plan. This is a fellow who has the ability it takes to concentrate. During that ball control demonstration against Baltimore, some of the short passing was sensational."

The Packers beat the Colts, 24-3, Cleveland opened with a 38-14 victory over the Washington Redskins.

The Browns will have an extra running back to use against Green Bay. Fullback Nick Pietrosante officially was added to the squad and flanker Tom Hutchinson put on waivers as an injured player Tuesday.

Caffey Named Top Defensive Player of Week

Interception Keys Packers' 24-3 Win Over Baltimore

By KEN HARTNETT
GREEN BAY (AP)—Loping Lee Roy Caffey has turned his back on the backfield. He's finding all the running room he needs as a member of the Green Bay Packers' linebacking corps.

Caffey, a fullback in his college days at Texas A&M, ran like one last Saturday night

when he intercepted a John Unitas pass and raced 52 yards for a touchdown against the Baltimore Colts.

The touchdown sparked the Packers to a 24-3 win and earned Caffey The Associated Press award as National Football League defensive player of the week.

"I definitely miss the excitement of running with the ball," said Caffey.

"Gained Weight" "But I've gained a lot of weight since college," he said. "I was 220 as a fullback then. Now I'm up to about 240-245. I don't think I could ever play the backfield now."

Besides, Caffey is having too much fun playing in a crew that includes "battle-worn" Ray Nitschke and the strong and swift Dave Robinson.

"I'm at home back there," said Caffey, who came to the Packers in a trade with the Philadelphia Eagles two years ago. "And I have the best in the

Named NFL's Offensive Player of Week Cardinals' Roland Honored

By JACK HAND

NEW YORK (AP)—Johnny Roland wasn't even a starter last Sunday when the St. Louis Cardinals played the Philadelphia Eagles. He didn't play in the first half, except to run back a punt for 11 yards.

But when Charley Winner, new Cardinal coach, cut him loose in the second half, he helped St. Louis turn a 10-3 deficit into a 16-13 victory. Johnny will start from now on.

Because of his inspired performance under pressure, The Associated Press has selected the Missouri rookie halfback as the Offensive Player of the Week in the National Football League.

Roland ran for first downs three times after he entered the game. He rushed eight times for 53 yards, caught two passes for 40 yards, returned two kickoffs for 50 yards and brought back two punts for 16 yards. For his first day on the job—even if it was a half day—he contributed 159 yards to total offense.

"I thought about starting Roland earlier in the week," Winner said. "But I decided to go with experience. I went to him in the second half because he's an opportunist. He reminds me of Paul Hornung in that he makes the most of what he has."

Roland, who played defense last year at Missouri to a plug a need, has become a prime favorite with Card fans. He grabbed a deflected pass for a 37-yard gainer on a third-and-33 situation. The catch, after Joe Scarpati of Philadelphia and Sonny Randle of the Cards collided and both touched the ball,

Frustrating Delay Ends for Bob Jeter

BY LEE REMMEL
Post-Crescent News Service

"At first, I was a little discouraged because I wasn't used to sitting on the bench — I was a starter in college and when I played in Canada."

Catlike, Bob Jeter, who came to the Packers via long distance (from Weirton, W. Va., by way of Iowa City, Iowa, and Vancouver, B. C.) was reflecting upon four years of waiting in the wings, an eternity of dreams and disappointments which now would seem to be permanently behind him.

The soft spoken University of Iowa alumnus, it would appear, finally has staked a solid claim to National Football League starting status at the somewhat advanced age of 29 in the wake of his performance along the exhibition trail and in last Saturday night's resounding baptismal triumph over Baltimore's suddenly deflated Colts, thereby climaxing a reverse, football version of the oft-told Cinderella tale.

On Cab Squad
Jeter, who languished in cab squad obscurity in 1962 before crashing the official Packer roster the following year and toiling for three more seasons as a reserve and member of the platoons, adapted himself to his circumstances and bided his time.

A high school All-American and later an all-Big Ten choice at Iowa, Bob explains matter-of-factly, "I adjusted after a while and it didn't bother me — as long as I was part of a team. I just hoped I would get a chance to play."

It came, at long last, in 1965 when he was transferred from flanker to cornerback, and the West Virginia native appeared to be making good progress when fate unsympathetically intervened.

Injured Against Browns
He was injured in the Packers' second last pre-season game against the Cleveland Browns ("I had a couple of bruised ribs and a hairline fracture of my float-er") and gave way to Doug Hart, another former taxi squad tenant. Unable to dislodge the wiry Texan, Jeter returned to the bench, where he remained until the championship game against the Browns last Jan. 2.

Pressed into service near the close of the first quarter when Hart suffered a foot injury, Jeter played a major role in the title victory, covering the dangerous Warfield like the proverbial blanket.

Bob, who has started every game since (five exhibitions and the Baltimore opener), is happy with his stunning interception against the Hosses for more than one reason.

Fell 3 or 4 Times
"It was really a big thrill, especially against the Colts," he confided with a wide grin, explaining, "Last year I intercepted one against them and the other guys on the defense have been kidding me about it ever since. I must have fallen three or four times before I made it up off the ground, I was so anxious."

Although he admits to liking defense as well as offense — he was a star running back at Iowa and a flanker with the Packers for two seasons before joining the defense. Bob concedes, "I sometimes wonder how I would have done at flanker. I'd like to know."

His tenure at wide end was not without value, however, he reports. "Playing flanker those two years has helped me in figuring out pass patterns and recognizing formations," he says.

Too Light for NFL
Jeter, who detoured to the Pack through Canada "because I felt I was too light for the NFL," now feels he might have spared himself the delay. "I think I could have made it at defensive halfback, but it all depends on where they planned to use me," Bob smiled. "I know I couldn't have made it at offensive halfback — I only weighed 183 when I got out of school."

"I weigh about 200 now. Last year, I played at 205, and the two years before that, when I was at flanker, I weighed between 205 and 210. I thought if I'd get down to 200, I'd be a little quicker."

The Colts, particularly Raymond Berry, are convinced he is.

Dodgers Have Caught Fire In September

Los Angeles Surge Similar to Hot Finish in 1965

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
LOS ANGELES (AP)—Sweating out the returns on Presidential election night ceased to be fun once computers were used to diagnose the early trends.

The same thing might happen if the mathematical monsters were to calculate the National League pennant race. There are two definite indications that the Los Angeles Dodgers will outlast Pittsburgh and San Francisco.

On a short term basis, it seems significant that the Dodgers have caught fire in September, just as they did a year ago when they captured 13 games in a row and 14 of their last 15 to overtake the Giants.

Trailed By Three
When this month began, the Dodgers trailed Pittsburgh and San Francisco by three games. But while the Dodgers have captured 10 of 12 starts, the Pirates have lost six of 11 and the Giants have dropped seven of 12. In less than two weeks, Los Angeles has gained 4½ games on the Pirates and 5½ on San Francisco.

An even more reliable yardstick may be a comparison of the three contenders since the all-star game in mid-July. The Dodgers have played at a 37-23 clip since then. The Pirates have barely kept their heads above water, 31-28. The Giants have been one game under .500, 28-29.

The Dodgers have been making hay at the expense of tailenders, winning four straight from Houston all on shutouts, last weekend before making it five in a row Monday night with a 3-2 squeaker over the New York Mets.

Marichal Gets Postponement on Building Hearing

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Juan Marichal, who now can devote his thoughts exclusively to baseball for a while, tries to keep the San Francisco Giants in the National League pennant race tonight when he faces the Philadelphia Phillies.

Ford Introduces Bill to Permit Pro Grid Merger

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. Gerald R. Ford, R-Mich., introduced Tuesday a bill to permit the National and American Football Leagues to merge without the threat of antitrust action.

Ford's bill also would prohibit televising of professional football games on Friday nights after 6 p.m., to protect high school football games.

The representative, who was a college football star and now is Republican leader in the House, said the leagues' merger plan is "obscured by confusion and uncertainty under our antitrust laws."

Revamped Attack to be Unveiled by Wisconsin Against Iowa State '11'

By JAMES R. POLK
MADISON (AP)—Milt Bruhn puts his coaching future on the line starting Saturday.

The Wisconsin football coach will unveil a revamped backfield attack as he starts his 11th season Saturday against Iowa State. But a lack of depth in the line could be critical for the career of the hefty, 54-year-old former Minnesota guard.

The starting quarterback and the leading rusher on the beleaguered 1965 Badger team that finished in a dismal 2-7-1 tailspin both have been benched in favor of a retooled ground game. The line will be the key to Bruhn's plans for a strong, inside running attack.

"Don't Have Depth" Bruhn, has reshuffled his coaching staff as well as his offense since escaping with a one-conceded quarterback John Boyajian. "We've had good coaching, though, and we're getting everything we can out of them."

Boyajian, a junior from Hammond, Ind., who has been tapped to start at quarterback, completed 10 passes without a miss in the first half of an intrasquad game Saturday as the first-string linemen mauled the second unit 42-13.

The pushover revealed the sharp dropoff between the first two teams. The No. 1 offensive line never faced the first-string defense, Bruhn said, "because I didn't want to take the chance of running one against one and getting all crippled up."

Reshuffled Staff Bruhn, has reshuffled his coaching staff as well as his offense since escaping with a one-business back there with me, Ray Nitschke. He has helped me an awful lot. You can't help but learn with a guy like him."

Caffey agreed with Colts Coach Don Shultz that he may have made the interception by "reading Units' eyes."

"In a way I did key to the way Units was looking. Sometimes you can tell that way the direction a quarterback is going to throw. That doesn't mean you can tell by reading the whites of his eyes."

Caffey said he was guarding Colts' receiver John Mackey on the play.

"I had to release him to the safety man, and I turned back inside. Units was curling to Ray Berry, who was throwing back in. After that the blocks made the play. Willie Wood had a good one just as I took the ball, and Henry Jordan had a real fine block. So did Willie Davis and Nitschke."

The touchdown was Caffey's third with an interception since joining the NFL in 1964.

At 25, he still has a number of years left in the league. His goal?

"I'm always shooting for one goal. I want to become one of the best linebackers in the National Football League."

Former Major League Player Dies at 78

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP)—Ralph R. Comstock, 78, a major league baseball player 50 years ago, died here Tuesday after a long illness.

Comstock played baseball with the American Association in 1910, and between 1913 and 1918 was a pitcher for the Detroit Tigers, Boston Red Sox and Pittsburgh Pirates. He entered the insurance business after his retirement from baseball.

year extension of his contract after the school's athletic board deadlocked on his dismissal last fall. Bruhn won't comment this year on the four disastrous defeats by a total of 180 points that ended the 1965 season.

Boyajian, who sat on the bench behind sophomore quarterback Chuck Burt last fall, was named to start against Iowa State because he is regarded as a better ball-handler and runner. Burt, who may make an appearance Saturday at split end, is listed this year as No. 3 quarterback, a considerable slide for a youngster who ranked 10th in the nation in passing his first season.

Two sophomores, 225-pound blocking halfback Lynn Bussly from Wausau, Wis., will join Boyajian in the backfield. Fullback Tom Jankowski, who led rushing efforts in 1965, is listed on the third string.

Junior Gale Bucciarelli of Joliet, Ill., who missed most of last year with injuries, is considered likely to get the start-

Alma Peterson Slams 540 Set

Lo Berg Records 212 Singleton in American League

Alma Peterson rocked a 190 singleton en route to a 540 series to set the pace in the Tag-A-Long League at the 41 Bowl Tuesday.

Alfreda Meyers was next in line with 503, while Grace

DeLain posted a 190 game. Joan Hawkins, with marks of 192 and 518, and Eileen Belling, author of a 200 solo, divided laurels in the 5 by 8 circuit at Hahn's Lanes.

Lo Berg rocked a 212 single on the way to a 501 finish and Joan Kolosso pounded a 211 game and a 513 series to set the pace in the American League at the 41 Bowl. Marlene Hassell's 191 and 508 were the only other honor scores.

Connie Radich slammed a 224 solo and Pat Jack posted marks of 193 and 536 to share honors in the Hortonville Women's League.

Defending co-champion Denmark High School will participate in the Little Nine Conference's "game of the week" for the second time in a row.

Saturday afternoon, the Vikings visit Wrightstown, the home of the Tigers, who finished only a half game out of first place last season.

The Doug Davidson-coached Tigers and the Jerry Leiterman-directed Vikings both won their 1966 openers. They are the only first-week winners who'll be matched this weekend.

Brillion, Reedsville and Hilbert will all seek their second wins against opening-week losers. Brillion plays host to Omo in Friday night's only game. Saturday contests are these: Hilbert at Hortonville, Shiocton at Reedsville and Freedom at Winneconne.

Wrightstown's young Tigers showed unexpected power in whipping Omo, 26-6, in their opener. Denmark topped highly-rated Winneconne, 12-0.

Defending co-champion Freedom, which is rebuilding, ran into an air-minded Brillion team and lost, 25-7. Dennis Behnke day night, "Dob" Gaffney posted a 587 and Ron Sanderfoot had a 550 for the only honor scores.

Pete Schmidt's 581 series led the way in the Tri-City League at the Little Chute Recreation Lanes last night. Ed Belongea recorded the only other honor score, a 550 set.

The Universal League at the 41 Bowl Tuesday night was paced by Dave Blahnik with a 592 series and John Kennedy was close behind with a 588.

Norm Jahnke had a 235 game and 589 series to lead the Tri-City Men's League at Sabre Lanes, a new league this season, did not have any honor scores last night, but the Treasure Island team swept to four straight points to take over first place.

Freedom's only score came on an 80-yard pass play. Pete Van Wychen to Dan VandeWettering.

Hilbert a 12-0 winner over Shiocton, will meet the Polar Bears, a 6-0 loser to Reedsville.

Jerry Tubbs Will Rejoin Cowboys

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — The Dallas Cowboys of the National Football League said Tuesday they have officially activated linebacker Jerry Tubbs, 31, who retired after last season.

Tubbs, who has been with the Cowboys since they joined the league in 1960, will serve as backup man for Lee Roy Jordan.

Hitchcock Refuses To Take Any Credit

By MURRAY CHASS
NEW YORK (AP) — Manager Billy Hitchcock of the Atlanta Braves says it was inevitable. The Atlanta Braves say it's Billy Hitchcock. Whoever is right, whatever the reason, the Braves have won six straight games, 11 of their last 12 and 22 of 33 since Hitchcock replaced Bobby Bragan as manager Aug. 9.

"Ability" always shows itself over the long haul," Hitchcock says modestly. "I don't take credit for anything."

But the 48-year-old Hitchcock also added:

"For many reasons a team change as ability showing itself gets headed in the wrong direction and can't change. But the boys are relaxing now and doing their jobs. They've certainly gone all out and given 100 per cent."

Hitchcock interprets this Bragan.

May Return to Ring Marciano Says He Has Trained for 5 Months

MILAN, Italy (AP) — Rocky Marciano, the former world heavyweight boxing champion, said Tuesday he had been training for the past five months for a possible return to the ring.

But the 43-year-old American boxer added: "This possibility, however, is very faint."

Marciano, who retired undefeated from boxing 10 years ago, told newsmen in this north Italian city:

"I have been cutting wood, shadow boxing and doing calisthenics for the past five months. I want to see how my body reacts to strain before deciding on any possible return to fighting."

"I would like to resume boxing," he said, "but I will know whether I can get back into good enough physical shape after several more months of training."

Marciano arrived Tuesday from the United States. He said he came to visit an orphanage charity institute at nearby Pavia and would return home Wednesday.

Marciano announced his retirement from the ring in 1956 after racking up a perfect record of 49 victories, including 43 knockouts.

His last fight was on Sept. 21, 1955 when he knocked out Archie Moore in the ninth round of a title bout.

Freehan, Horton Homers Stop Kaat's Bid for 24th Win

6-5 Victory Lifts Detroit Back Into Second; White Sox Lose

By RON RAPOPORT

Associated Press Sports Writer

Jim Kaat, who leads the majors in home runs given up by a 23-game winner, has finally had cause to regret it.

Of course, there's only one other pitcher with 23 victories around — fellow name of Koufax — and Kaat, who had won eight games in a row despite opposition homers, was done in by a couple Tuesday and missed a golden opportunity to pass Sandy for most victories.

A three-run homer by Willie Horton and a solo by Bill Freehan gave Detroit just enough runs to post a 6-5 triumph over Minnesota and deny Kaat his 24th victory and ninth in a row.

Sundered Six Homers
In his last four outings, the Minnesota southpaw has surrendered six homers, but not till Tuesday did it seem to matter. The Twins always came back with at least enough runs to win, and often a lot more than enough.

They almost did it again Tuesday, too. Minnesota got three unearned runs in the second and, after Detroit had taken a 6-3 lead, Zoilo Versalles hit a home run to bring Minnesota within a run.

In all, Kaat has given up 22 home runs this season, as against 17 allowed by Koufax. Jim was nipped for a first-inning run by the Tigers and then retired 16 men in a row before Jake Wood singled in the sixth inning. Al Kaline then walked and Horton hit his 25th homer. Freehan hit his the following inning.

In other American League contests, Boston beat Chicago 10-1, Washington edged New York 3-2 and Kansas City outlasted Cleveland 3-1 in 15 innings. Baltimore and California were rained out.

Back In School
The Detroit victory put the Tigers back in second place, 9½ games behind the Orioles, and dropped the Twins to third, 10 games out.

George Scott was the hero of the Boston rout, driving in four runs with a single and a double. Jim Lonborg gave up just six hits, including two doubles and a single.

Bob Saverine hit a two-run homer, boosting the Senators past the Yankees as Phil Ortega, 11-12, went the distance. Bobby Murcer drove in a run for the Yankees with a triple and scored on a single by Joe Pepitone.

Kansas City and Cleveland were threatening to play just about forever until Roger Repoz' two-run homer in the 15th.

Policemen Stand Guard at Badger Football Drills

MADISON (AP) — Two uniformed policemen stood guard Tuesday as security-conscious Wisconsin readied for Saturday's football opener with Iowa State with another secret practice session.

Coach Milt Bruhn has had secret practices before for his Badgers but veteran newsmen covering Wisconsin football could not recall ever seeing uniformed guards assigned to keep the unwelcome away.

Bruhn began secret workouts Monday. He acted after Iowa State coaches claimed they had caught a "spy" from Wisconsin observing the Cyclones' workouts. Bruhn emphatically denied that Wisconsin was trying to filch Iowa State battle plans.

Philadelphia. In other games, St. Louis edged Cincinnati 3-2 and Atlanta trounced Chicago 10-2.

Climaxes Fifth
Johnson's first homer, in the fourth inning, tied the Mets 2-2, and his second, a three-run blast, climaxed a five-run eruption in the fifth. Lefebvre's two-run single snapped the tie earlier in the inning. Claude Osteen, with relief help from Bob Miller, gained his 16th victory against 11 defeats.

The Pirates unloaded a 16-hit attack on Houston, with Willie Stargell driving in four runs with a sacrifice fly and his 30th homer. Gene Alley stroked four hits and Matty Alou three while Roberto Clemente drove in two runs with a single and a double.

San Francisco's Juan Marichal scattered seven hits for his 22nd victory against six defeats. Tito Fuentes lashed a key two-run double in the sixth inning, and Willie McCovey, socked his 29th homer, a two-run shot, in the eighth.

Flood Boosts Cards
Curt Flood's two-run, eighth-inning double boosted St. Louis past Cincinnati. The blow wiped out a 2-1 lead Cincinnati had taken on Deron Johnson's run, scoring double in the fourth and his homer in the seventh.

Hank Aaron drove in three runs with his 38th and 39th homers, leading an Atlanta attack against Chicago that also included homers by Rico Carty and Felipe Alou.

Gemini Spacemen 'On Top of World' At Record Height

Gordon Stands Up in Seat to Photograph High-Flying Sights

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) —Shouting "We're on top of the world," the Gemini 11 astronauts today soared higher and faster than man has ever flown and Richard F. Gordon Jr. later poked the upper half of his body into space to photograph the stars.

"I tell you, you can't believe it!" command pilot Charles Conrad Jr. exclaimed as Gemini 11 rode the power of an Agena rocket 850 miles above the earth over eastern Australia. "Utterly fantastic... the world is round."

After reaching the high outpost twice, the astronauts returned to their original path, which ranged from 180 to 190 miles high.

Opened Hatch
At 8:49 a.m. (EST) Gordon opened his hatch and stood in his seat as Gemini 11 passed high over the Indian Ocean.

For 2 hours, 20 minutes he was to snap scientific pictures of relatively young stars.

Because he only had to stand there, the workload was much

Martin Loses Bid

Rolvaag Victorious Without Backing

WASHINGTON (AP) — Minnesota Gov. Karl F. Rolvaag, rejected for renomination by his own Democratic-Farmer-Labor party, won the chance on his own Tuesday to seek a second term in the Nov. 8 general election.

In another of Tuesday's 11 primary elections, Edward J.

Martin Mrs. Heckler

McCormack, a long-time challenger to the Kennedy clan, captured the Democratic nomination for governor of Massachusetts. He defeated Kenneth P. O'Donnell, a top aide to President John F. Kennedy.

Former House Speaker Joseph W. Martin, 81, lost his bid

Viet Cong Storm Motor Pool; 4 Killed, 52 Trucks Destroyed

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — In a daring pre-dawn raid, a Viet Cong demolition squad stormed into a military motor pool near Saigon today, captured an American soldier, killed four Vietnamese militiamen and blew up 52 trucks.

U.S. officials estimated damage at $1 million. They said the Communist guerrillas escaped without losing a man.

Edward J. Kubitz,
Appleton, Faces
First-Degree Count

Edward J. Kubitz, 70, 1422 E. Wisconsin Ave., late Tuesday afternoon was charged with first degree murder in connection with the shooting death Sunday night of his former daughter-in-law, Mrs. Delores Kubitz, 32.

The warrant, was signed at 4:45 p.m. by Outagamie County Judge Gustave J. Keller following a 90-minute John Doe investigation which saw testimony by five witnesses.

The closed door proceeding, presided over by Judge Keller, was called following a conference Tuesday morning in the office of Dist. Atty. Nick F. Schaefer. The John Doe hearing, first in Outagamie County in many years and one of only a few in county history, reportedly was called to obtain a certain piece of potential evidence that otherwise would not have been made available.

Good Condition
Authorities this morning said they were not sure when Kubitz could be arraigned. The Appleton man was reported in good condition at Appleton Memorial Hospital recovering from a shotgun wound in the left foot.

He is under 24-hour police guard. Schaefer said Kubitz will be arraigned on his release from the hospital.

Mrs. Delores Kubitz, 1419 E. Amelia St., divorcee and the mother of two young children, was struck in the back by a shotgun blast as she worked in a small garden behind her home about 6:50 p.m. Sunday. She died an hour later at Appleton Memorial Hospital.

Appleton police believe the blast was fired from a .12 gauge shotgun pointed through a 16-by-21-inch window on the second level of the Edward Kubitz garage.

The rear of the Kubitz garage overlooks the back yard of the dead woman's home.

Marx Gets GOP Sheriff Nod By 65 Votes Over Heinritz

Faces Main of Kaukauna in Nov. 8 Test

Outagamie County Republicans Tuesday gave Undersheriff Norbert J. Marx a 65-vote edge over former sheriff Donald J. Heinritz to run in November against Democrat Robert Main of Kaukauna for the county's top law enforcement post.

Unofficial returns gave Marx

4,615 votes to 4,550 for Heinritz. The official vote canvass probably will be completed later in the week.

The Republican sheriff primary was one of the closest in recent years. However, 1962 saw Heinritz, who then was undersheriff, outpoll City Clerk Elden Broehm by a mere 28 votes for the Republican nod for sheriff.

Unless the official canvass reverses the results, Marx will have been successful in his initial attempt at any type of election. The 53-year-old Appleton man, retired as a detective sergeant after 24 years on the Appleton Police Department.

Two Terms
Sheriff Calvin L. Spice appointed Marx as his undersheriff when he defeated Heinritz in the 1962 general election. Spice reappointed Marx again after winning in 1964. Spice, a Kaukauna resident, has held the sheriff's job for two consecutive terms and therefore, under Wisconsin statute, cannot seek a third successive term.

Heinritz, 44, an Appleton native and presently superintendent of the city's parking meter department, was seeking to return to a job he held for four years. He was elected sheriff in 1956 and again in 1958, then served as undersheriff four years under his brother, Robert.

Main Marx

Kaukauna Police Lt. Robert Main, 54, who was unopposed in the Democratic primary for sheriff, polled 3,436 votes. Nearly half of the Kaukauna man's votes — 1,770 of them — came from the City of Appleton while the remainder were gathered in the county.

Main, a 30-year veteran of the Kaukauna Police Department, piled up more votes in Kaukauna than did Marx and Heinritz together. His Kaukauna vote totaled 656.

See-Saw Contest
The Marx-Heinritz battle saw-sawed from the time the returns came in from the Town of Deer Creek, the second of 56

Pearson Trying To Halt Breakup Of British Talks

LONDON (AP) — Canadian Prime Minister Lester B. Pearson was striving today to avert a breakup of the 22-nation Commonwealth conference over the Rhodesian crisis.

He and his aides worked through the night on a compromise formula to reconcile the widely diverging views on how best to end the 10-month-old rebellion by Rhodesian Prime Minister Ian Smith's white minority government.

British Prime Minister Harold Wilson has declined to give such a pledge. He favors a gradual transition to black African self-rule.

Escapee's Tale of Torture

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP) — It was like this for the first American pilot to escape from North Vietnamese and Pathet Lao captors:

"They held a gun at my head and went 'click-click — ha, ha, American.' They beat me and hanged me upside down, putting ants on my face," said Lt. j.g. Dieter Dengler.

"We ate things that crawled through our hut. Once we caught a snake that had eaten two rats. We cut it up and ate the rats, too."

Dengler, a slender, handsome 28-year-old from Pacifica, Calif., spoke with a trace of an accent at a news conference. He was born in Germany and came to the United States in 1957.

Described Ordeal
Tanned, smiling and weighing 143 pounds, 45 more than when a helicopter snatched him from the jungle after five months in a Laotian prison camp run by North Vietnamese, he described his ordeal.

"In one village I was tied to a tree and used for target practice — the guards tried to see how close they could come to shooting me. Another time, one pulled a trigger with the rifle next to my left ear. It caused a deafness that lasted for several months."

"But the worst torture was being dragged by a water buffalo. My hands were tied so tightly the nerves were cut off."

Geneva Convention

Dengler said he told his captors nothing except his name, rank and serial number, as prescribed by the Geneva convention on prisoners of war.

"Those people don't even

know what the Geneva convention is," he said. "They don't even know we exist. All they know is Laos, Cambodia and North Viet Nam."

He saw no prisoners sign professed statements denouncing the United States, he said, though all were harassed.

Dengler hesitated to say how he escaped with Air Force Lt. Duane Martin of Denver, Colo., then watched a villager hack Martin to death.

Knowles Piles Up Big Total Running Unopposed On GOP Side of Ballot

MILWAUKEE (AP) — Lt. Gov. Patrick J. Lucey, who hitched his future to the rising star of John F. Kennedy six years ago, soared to victory in Tuesday's four-way primary for the Democratic nomination for Governor of Wisconsin.

And five hours after acknowledging his triumph, Lucey headed back to the plant gates to start his campaign against Gov.

came in, it appeared that Lucey might total more votes than National Committeeman David Carley, Milwaukee attorney Dominic Frinzi and businessman Abe Swed combined.

With 3,291 of the state's 3,291 precincts reporting, the vote stood:

Lucey 127,465
Carley 96,283
Frinzi 44,281
Swed 15,731

Gov. Warren Knowles piled up nearly a two to one margin over the combined total of the four candidates seeking the Democratic Party nomination for governor in Tuesday's primary election in the four-county area.

Knowles totaled 20,093 in the four counties with the four Democrats receiving 11,559 votes. As he did in the state, Lucey had 5,419 in the four counties, David Carley had 4,226, Dominic Frinzi totaled 1,231 and Abe Swed trailed with 683.

Knowles had his largest total of 7,804 votes in Outagamie County where the Democratic totals were 2,158 for Lucey, 1,857 for Carley, 332 for Swed and 275 for Frinzi.

In Winnebago County Knowles had 7,789 while the Democratic totals were 2,366 for Lucey, 1,562 for Carley, 797 for Frinzi and 269 for Swed.

The Calumet County totals had Knowles with 2,894 and the Democratic scores were Lucey 411, Carley 238, Frinzi 45 and Swed 38.

In Waupaca County Knowles had 1,606, Carley was ahead of Lucey 569 to 484, Frinzi had 114 and Swed trailed with 44.

Warren P. Knowles, who piled up a towering total in the undisputed Republican primary.

If Wisconsin Democrats showed they still love Lucey, and the Kennedy clan, they will get multiplied exposure to both, now that the primary decision is past.

Open Support
Earlier open support was expressed chiefly by associates of the late President, but with unofficial returns nearly complete, Lucey confirmed one of the worst-kept political secrets of the year.

Sen. Robert F. Kennedy, D-NY, with whom Lucey worked intimately in fashioning the 1960 victory in Wisconsin's presidential primary, is due in the state this weekend, and again the weekend of Oct. 9, while Sen. Edward Kennedy, D-Mass., is coming Oct. 27.

Byrnes, Steiger, Laird Unopposed; Make Good Showing

Incumbent Republican congressmen in the Seventh and Eighth districts Tuesday outpolled Democrats seeking office in those districts while Democrat John Race, Fond du Lac, seeking re-election in the Sixth District, was overshadowed by his GOP competitor Assemblyman William Steiger, Oshkosh, by a 3-to-2 ratio.

Reps. Melvin R. Laird and John W. Byrnes, Republicans, were leading Democratic candidates in the Seventh and Eighth by considerable margins with most of the primary election votes counted.

In the Sixth District, a longtime Republican stronghold, Race faces a stiff challenge from youthful Steiger. Democratic races attracted much voter interest in the district but Steiger received 26,956 votes to Race's 17,773 with 252 of 286 precincts counted.

Byrnes-Kagen
Byrnes, 53, of Green Bay, is seeking his 11th term in the Eighth District and will face Dr. Marvin S. Kagen, Democrat from Appleton, in November. Kagen had 26,985 votes to Byrnes's 17,523 with all but six of the district's 289 precincts reported.

Laird, 44, chairman of the House Republican Conference is trying for an eighth term in the Seventh District. He will run against Democratic Assemblyman Norman L. Myhra, Stevens

Why Not Call Whynot Whynot? So They Did

By SAM MORTON

WHYNOT, N.C. (AP) — Why did they name Whynot Whynot? "Why not?" says Mrs. M. C. Auman, who's lived about 60 of her 73 years in Whynot. "They couldn't think of anything else."

"At least that's what my mother told me," adds Mrs. Auman. "And that's the story most folks agree to."

Elderly J. B. Slack, born and reared in Whynot, agrees. Sometime before the turn of the century, he says, Whynot's menfolk got together to name their community.

"They suggested a lot of names and couldn't agree," says Slack. "It got later and later. Finally, somebody said,

"why not call it Whynot?" So they did."

Whynot is two miles from Seagrove, three miles from Jugtown, eight miles from Erect, 13 miles from Ether, 15 miles from Star and 32 miles south of Greensboro in the rolling hills of central North Carolina.

You can miss it if you're not careful because someone tore down its only road sign. The only building on the highway bearing "Whynot" is the Whynot Upholstery Co. It is the community's only real industry. Most of the residents farm.

Nobody's sure exactly how big Whynot is.

"It's all according to how far you want to extend it. A lot of people live in these hills," says Slack, a retired regional director for the Farmers Home Administration.

How many people does Whynot have?

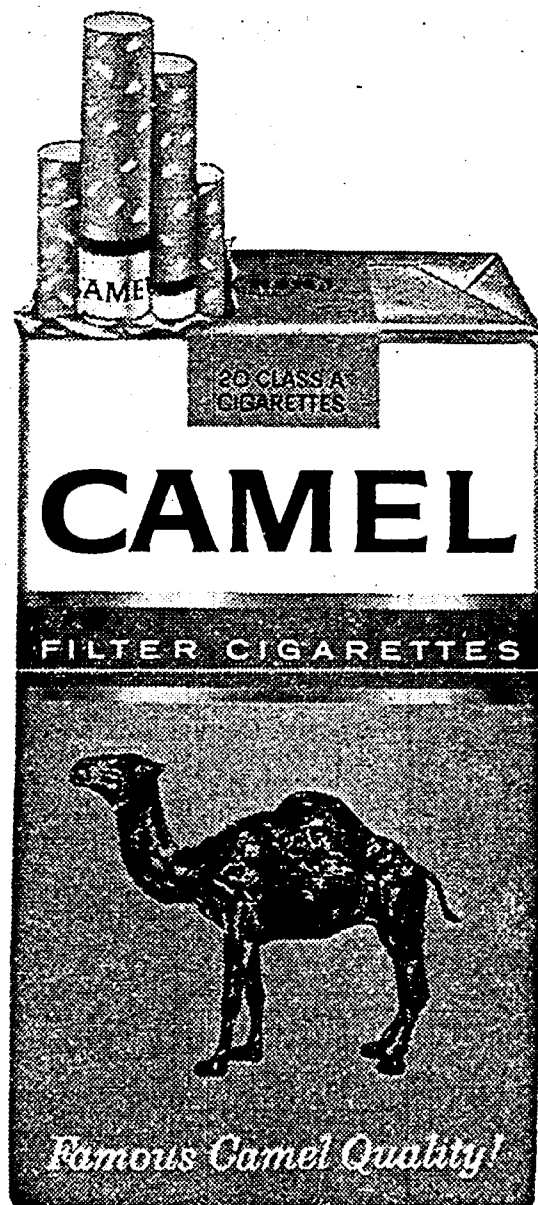

"Let me think a minute," said Arden Macon. "There are a lot of children born recently that I haven't seen. I guess there's anywhere from 75 to 150."

Whynot, says Mrs. Slack, used to be on the old plank road from Winston-Salem to Wilmington on the coast.

"And Whynot," Slack recalls, "had one of the best schools in North Carolina years ago. It was Whynot Academy and was a boarding school. It went through the seventh grade and attracted students from all over this part of the state."

"But the schoolhouse burned in 1915 and only the church was left beside it. Then some years ago, they removed the post office and made the mail address Seagrove."

New London Intersection To Get Lights

PSC Approves Signals for U. S. 45-State 54

NEW LONDON — Timed traffic control lights for the hazardous State 54 and U.S. 45 intersection have been approved by the State Highway Commission.

D. L. Cronkite, district engineer, and Fred Grunwald, Waupaca County highway commissioner, made the disclosure at a meeting with Mayor Harry S. Emans and Ray Pelishek, public works director.

The two men also announced that plans to reconstruct the intersection are under consideration.

Council Request

The control light decision ended years of work by the city council, chamber of commerce and individual residents to have lights at the accident riddled intersection.

A city council resolution asking for the lights apparently was the determining factor in final approval.

The push for signals at the corner started after a 1959 accident claimed five lives and left nine others hospitalized.

On special occasions, such as Green Bay Packer football games and the Manawa rodeo, police were required to direct traffic on State 54.

Tourist Traffic

U.S. 45 carries a major load of tourist traffic on weekends and raises a number of problems in traffic control within the city. The intersection is the scene of a large number of accidents each year.

The traffic control lights will be the second within the city. A four-way stop light is located at Pearl Street and Wolf River Avenue intersection of U.S. 45 truck routes.

The city currently has a request for a timed control at Shawano and N. Water, both U.S. 45 routes. This intersection is considered by Police Chief Jack Algiers the most hazardous within the city.

A break in the flow of traffic provided by the two signals is expected to alleviate some of the city's traffic problem during the tourist season.

Waupaca Man Gets Jail Term For Bad Conduct

WAUPACA — Frank J. Surprize Jr., 38, route 3, Clintonville, was sentenced to 30 days in the county jail Monday when he was able to pay a $100 fine after pleading guilty of disorderly conduct.

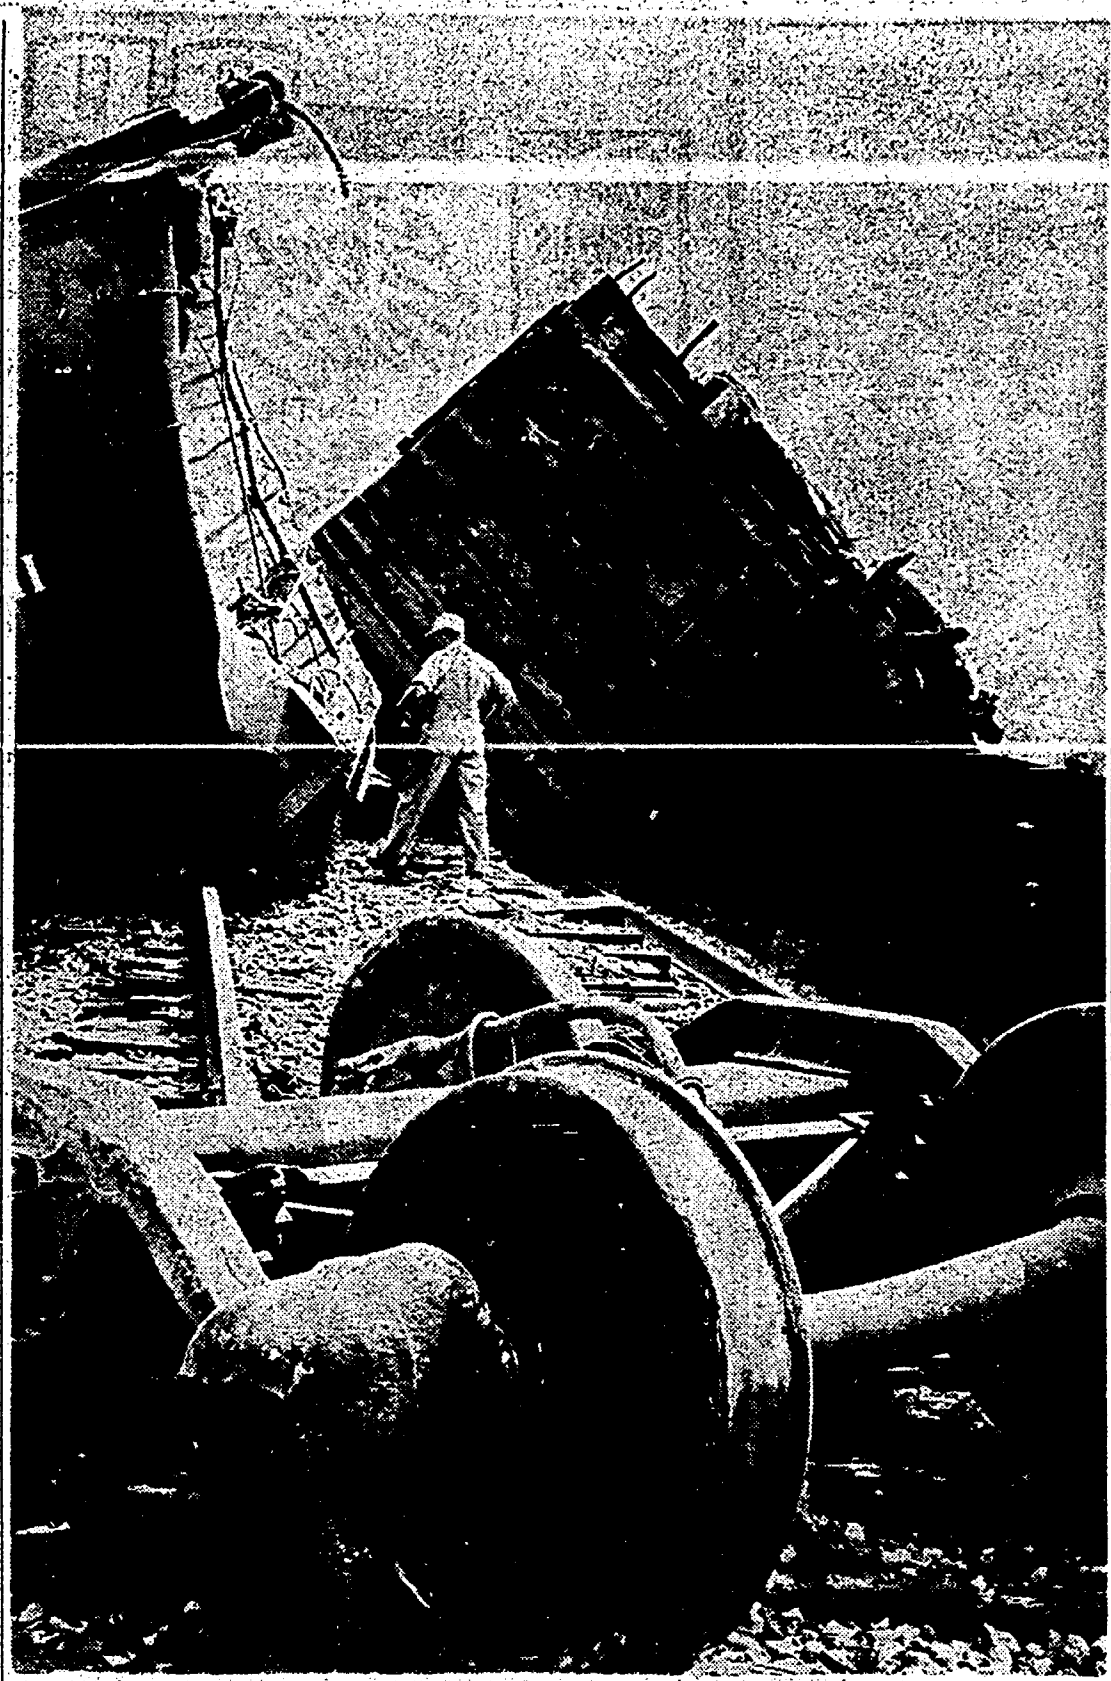

Surprize was arrested Sunday night by a county traffic patrolman after he created a disturbance on U.S. 45 near Clintonville.

According to police, the patrolman spotted two cars parked beside the road. When he stopped to inquire if either driver had encountered any trouble and needed help, Surprize became abusive and used profane language, the patrolman stated.

New London Railroad Bridge To Feel Wrath of Wreckers

NEW LONDON — High Bridge, a landmark here for many years, will soon feel the wrath of a wrecking crew.

The Public Service Commission (PSC) has informed the city that the joint petition by the Chicago and North Western Railway Co. and the city has been approved. This will allow the old wooden structure to be razed and a ground level grade crossing to be constructed by the city and railroad.

Thirty Cars of a Chicago and North Western Railway freight train derailed Tuesday morning about two miles west of Dalton in Marquette County. No one was injured. Rails were ripped up along a quarter-mile stretch.

Vice Wins Republican Nod For Calumet County Sheriff

Faces Weaver in November; Incumbent Struebing Beats Simon

CHILTON — Irvan Vice won the Republican Party nomination for Calumet County sheriff Tuesday and will be opposed by Democrat Herman Weaver in November.

Vice, 526 Murray Ave., Appleton, a Calumet County traffic patrolman for 18 years, notched an impressive victory over Norman Dohr, a Town of Woodville farmer, in the primary. Vice tallied 2,369 votes compared with Dohr's 1,040.

On the Democratic side of the ballot, Weaver, rural New Holstein farmer, polled 332 to defeat Alex Pudlow, a New Holstein factory worker, who received 266 votes.

A total of 4,594 votes were cast, a heavy turnout attracted by four GOP county level contests, one local Democrat and four state level Democratic contests. There were two three-way contests on the GOP ticket. In a close race for the GOP county clerk nomination, Donald Schwobe, rural New Holstein farmer, picked up 1,286 votes to Terrence Owens, Chilton, a factory worker, won the GOP nomination for clerk of courts, upsetting incumbent Mrs. Nick Keuler, Chilton, by an 89-vote margin. Owens received 1,234 votes; Mrs. Keuler, 1,145, and a third Republican candidate, Robert F. Schroeder, Stockbridge, tallied 1,139. There was a difference of only 95 votes between the high and low.

Struebing Wins Owens' November opponent will be Democrat Mrs. Ed Morgan, rural New Holstein. Unopposed, she polled 518 votes. In the other GOP contest, incumbent assemblyman William Struebing, rural Brillion, for the second time defeated challenger Sylvester Simon, route 1, Menasha, for the party nomination for the county's seat in the state assembly. Struebing, in quest of his third term, polled 2,131 votes to Simon's 1,360. Struebing will be opposed by Gervase Hepher, Chilton, in

Traffic Violations Net Rural New London Man 180-Day Jail Sentence

NEW LONDON — Raymond O. Heinke, 38, route 3, was sentenced to 180 days in the Waupaca County Jail when he pleaded guilty to three traffic charges Monday in Municipal Justice Court.

City police arrested Heinke on March 1, but were unable to bring him into court until Monday, because he was serving a six-month term in Outagamie County.

He was charged by city police with speeding 75 miles per hour in a 55 m.p.h. zone, operating a vehicle after revocation of his license and failing to yield to an emergency vehicle.

Justice Charles Egli sentenced Heinke to 180 days in jail for driving after revocation and 30 days each on the other counts, with the sentences running concurrently.

Truck Hits Side of Car East of Menasha

CHILTON — No one was injured when the truck driven by William R. Ankam, 27, Omro, backed into the side of the car driven by Janet A. Vavrunek, 19, Manitowoc, at 9:15 a.m. Monday, 2 miles east of Menasha on U.S. 10 and State 114.

According to Calumet County police, the truck was backing to dump blacktopping for road construction and struck the left side of the Vavrunek vehicle which was stopped as directed by flagmen.

Policemen Promoted by Committee

2-1 Vote Elevates 2 County Patrolmen To Sergeant Rank

By a 2-1 vote, the Outagamie County Board's law enforcement committee Tuesday morning approved the promotions of two patrolmen to sergeants. Two committee members were absent.

The recommendation then went to the board's personnel committee for action.

Supv. John R. Schreiter of Appleton cast the lone dissenting vote against Sheriff Calvin L. Spice's recommendation that Patrolmen Edward Metko and Robert Keating be promoted to sergeants in the traffic bureau.

Voting for the measure were George Greisch, Appleton supervisor and law enforcement committee chairman, and Emil Diestler, Hortonville supervisor.

Schreiter indicated that he did not approve of the methods being used to elevate the two patrolmen. He contended that there are two other patrolmen eligible under employ regulations, for promotions to the two sergeant vacancies. Schreiter, former chairman of the law enforcement unit, said he did not think the other two men were being given due consideration for the jobs.

There now are two sergeants, William Block and Stanley Arnold. The two additional sergeants are needed to fill posts created by the merging of the sheriff and traffic departments and the establishment of two new officer positions with a new work schedule.

New London to Join Promotion Of Wisconsin

NEW LONDON — Orville Johnson, city promotion chairman, has been named to head Chamber of Commerce participation in the "Wonderful Wisconsin Week" promotion Sept. 18-24.

Johnson said the local program would follow that outlined by the state organization. Greater Wisconsin Foundation which is designed to stimulate citizen interest in the advantages and opportunities in the state.

Heritage Day will begin the celebration Sunday. All churches in the city have been asked to cooperate by ringing their bells at noon.

A program is being worked out to recognize educators and youth on Monday. A program for government day on Tuesday has not been completed.

Sept. 21-23 have been designated as "Wisconsin at Work Days." Hospitality Day, Sept. 24, will end the events.

Brillion District Electors Vote Down $1.3 Million School Bond Proposal

770-340 Decision Doooms Plans For Construction of New Plant

BRILLION — School district electors Tuesday voted better than two-to-one against a referendum proposal which would have given the district the right to bond itself for $1.35 million for new school construction.

A total of 770 voted against the bonding plan and 340 were in favor. The 1,100 votes cast represents less than half of the district's eligible voters.

Studied Other Plans

The referendum was ordered after more than 18 months of study of various expansion plans by the board of education and a 20-member building committee.

Had bonding been authorized, the money would have been used to construct a complete new high school on a site other than the existing school grounds. The site listed on the referendum consisted of 25 acres adjacent to the present school complex.

Before deciding to press for a new school, expansion of existing facilities had been considered but the idea was rejected by the board and its study committee as being unfeasible. Primary reason for favoring a new high school was the advantage of separating the high school plant from the elementary department. The feeling was shared by a majority of school board and building committee members.

No Plans Announced

The board of education has not announced what further steps it will take to alleviate crowded classroom conditions, however some action is expected soon.

A breakdown of the vote by municipality shows: City of Brillion, 226 yes, 401 no; Town of Brillion, 62 yes, 263 no; Town of Rantoul, 24 yes, 31 no; Town of Woodville, 5 yes, 15 no; Town of Maple Grove, 11 yes, 43 no; Town of Rockland, 4 yes, 15 no; Town of Morrison, 7 yes, 0 no; Town of Holland, 1 yes, 2 no.

Post Office Dedication Set Sunday at Hilbert

HILBERT — Sixth District Rep. John R. "Duff" DuPont, of Third and Main streets, is part of the Post Office Department's lease construction program, Hauser said. Under this program, investment financing is used to obtain needed facilities which remain under private ownership, pay local taxes and be leased to the federal government.

The Post Office Department is constructing new facilities only where they are most urgently needed. In areas where it is practical to do so, existing buildings are being renovated.

"The fact that Hilbert was chosen for a new post office reflects credit on our growing contribution to the economy and life of the nation," Hauser said.

Mail business in Hilbert has jumped from $13,485 ten years ago to $22,491 the fiscal year ending June 30, Hauser said.

First Flight Scheduled For Oct. 2

CLINTONVILLE — After an absence of seven months, air service is scheduled to resume Oct. 2 at Clintonville Municipal Airport.

Clintonville has been without scheduled air service since North Central Airlines terminated flights Feb. 28. The new service will be provided by Midstate Air Commuter Service, Marshfield.

Two round trips daily, Monday through Friday, are scheduled with no flights on Saturday and one round trip on Sunday between Clintonville and Chicago.

An airport commission meeting Monday night at the city hall was attended by a representative of Air Wisconsin, Appleton, and Roy Shwery of Midstate Air Commuter Service.

Air Wisconsin Proposal

After discussing a proposed service schedule by Air Wisconsin, and in view of the commitment by the common council on Aug. 4, 1961, to Midstate Air Commuter Service, the council adopted a motion favoring service by Midstate.

In the Air Wisconsin proposal, a total of 215 customers per month was one of the requirements, but Midstate called for 208. One of the details to be worked out is the amount of credit which will be given Clintonville for over-flights due to weather conditions. This is one of the modifications.

Another concern paying for the services of a man at the airport for duty at flight time. It will be worked out directly between Midstate and Ron Otto, the fixed-base operator at the municipal airport, at no cost to the city.

Flight Schedule

The first flight will leave Clintonville at 8 a.m. and arrive in Chicago at 9:35 a.m., then leave Chicago at 10:20 a.m. and arrive in Clintonville at noon. In the afternoon, the flight will leave Clintonville at 4:15, arrive in Chicago at 5:50 p.m., and on the return flight leave Chicago at 6:25 and arrive in Clintonville at 8:05 p.m. This schedule is for five days per week.

At the present time, all ticketing will be handled through the Krueckenberg Travel Agency and not at the airport.

Waukesha Names New Police Chief

Faces Gordon Gorges Conradt will face Democrat Gordon Gorges of Black Creek in November. Gorges polled 756 votes, also without being contested.

In the county's uncontested assembly primary, for the Second District nominations, incumbent Democrat William Rogers of Kaukauna counted 1,488 votes and Republican Keith C. Van Vuren of Seymour counted 812.

Froehlich won handsily over Wussow, a county supervisor serving his first term, in all city wards. Wussow's best showing was in his home Fifth Ward, where he totaled 97 votes to Froehlich's 227. Froehlich piled up his biggest advantage in the 12th ward, winning 323-81.

The first assembly district is comprised of Appleton's First through 14th wards and the 20th ward.

Democratic State Winners Also Lead in County

Outagamie County voters were in general agreement with voters around Wisconsin Tuesday in deciding the outcome of four contested Democratic primary elections for state offices. In each of the four contested Democratic primaries, the leading vote-getter in Outagamie County was the final winner in the state.

In a hot state contest for the Democratic nomination for governor, Lt. Gov. Patrick J. Lucey came out on top. Lucey led Democratic National Committeeman David Carley by only 301 votes in the county but defeated Milwaukee Democratic candidates Abe L. Swed and Dominic H. Frinzi by substantial margins.

Republican Gov. Warren P. Knowles outpolled Lucey by more than 3,000 votes, unofficial county primary election results showed.

Knowles received a total of 7,804 votes in Outagamie County, 2,343 being cast in outlying precincts and 5,461 in the city of Appleton.

Democrats Total 4,622. Unofficial tabulations showed the four Democratic candidates receiving 4,622 votes in the county. Of those, Lucey had 2,158; Carley showed 1,857; and Swed and Frinzi were listed as receiving 332 and 275 votes respectively.

In the race for the Democratic party's nomination for lieutenant governor, 27-year-old State Sen. Martin J. Schreiber, Milwaukee, won handily over Jerome D. Grant, Glendale, in Outagamie County and the state. Schreiber received 2,736 Democratic votes to Grant's 1,242 in the county.

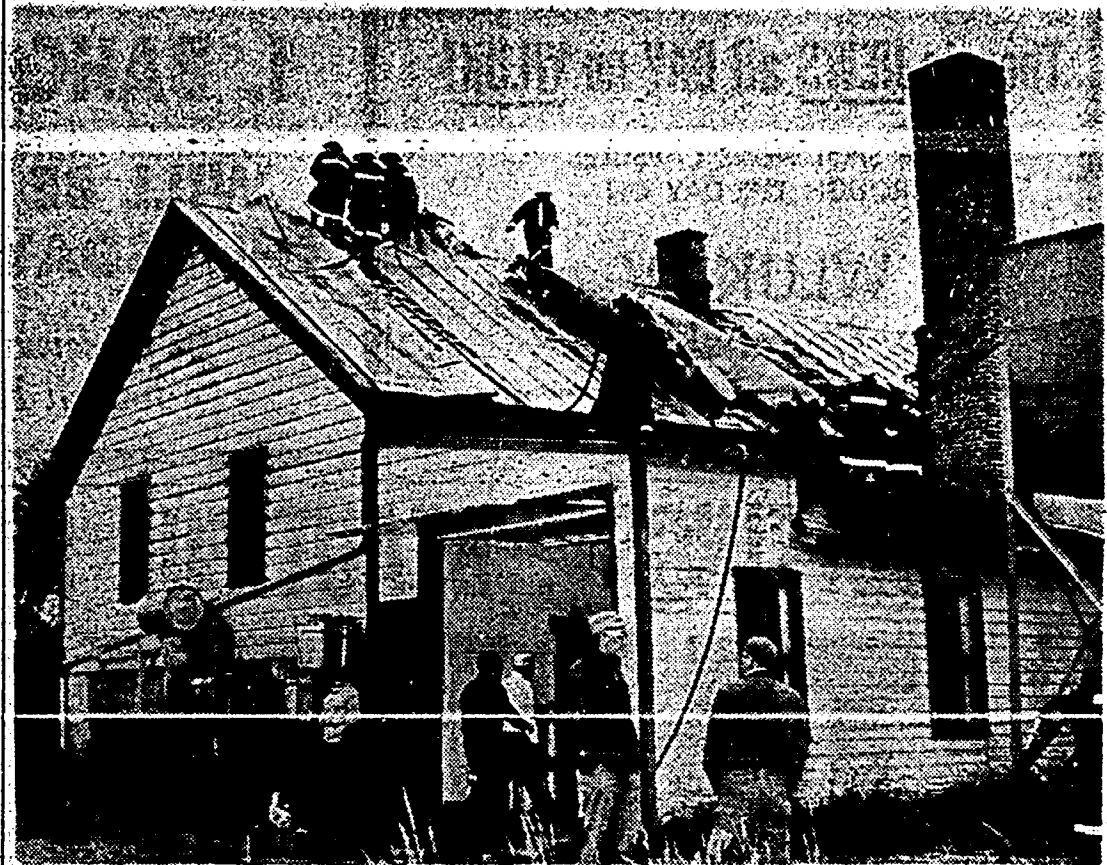

The GOP's lone candidate for lieutenant governor, Jack B. Olson, received 7,894 tallies.

Cletus J. Johnson, Green Bay, won the Democratic nomination to try to unseat Secretary of State Robert C. Zimmerman by a 240-1 ratio in the state. His statewide margin over Mrs. Minnie Townsend, Milwaukee, was reflected in the choice of Outagamie County voters as they cast 2,537 votes for Johnson ... 1,366 for Mrs. Townsend.

Zimmerman Leads GOP
Zimmerman, the incumbent Republican secretary of state, received 8,053 votes in the Outagamie County primary, the top GOP state candidate total.

Republican State Treasurer Dena Smith seemed a solid choice for another victory, at least in Outagamie County, as she received 7,785 votes to a total of 3,968 for the three Democratic candidates. Democrats Eugene M. Lamb, Richard J. Zaborski and Floyd Lucia polled 1,564, 1,455 and 949 votes respectively in a close county race.

In the only uncontested Democratic race for a state office, incumbent Atty. Gen. Bronson C. La Follette received 3,593

Fire Damages Cheese Factory At Sherwood

Three Departments Fight Blaze in Roof of Plant

SHERWOOD—Fire Chief Hilard Brantmeier came to the cheese factory here this morning to deliver milk and wound up pouring water on the building.

Brantmeier was dumping milk about 8 a.m. when a blaze which extensively damaged the upper portion and roof of the factory was discovered. The blaze, believed to have been started by faulty wiring, was discovered by a factory employee, William Timm, who noticed smoke pouring from the roof.

Chopped Holes

Both Town of Harrison departments and the Stockbridge community department answered the alarm. Firemen had to chop gapping holes in the tin roof to get at the fire which spread between the tin and an old shingle roof.

No damage estimate has been made by factory owner John Laughrin. Laughrin purchased the business from William Pfund about two months ago.

All of the cheese and dairy products were saved. Aside from the fire, the building, which is situated next to the fire station, sustained smoke and water damage.

Thiel Milk Products, Inc., will handle milk from Laughrin's customers until the factory is back in operation.

votes in Outagamie County. Republican Louis J. Ceci, who will oppose La Follette Nov. 8, gathered 6,314 votes in the county.

Officials to Discuss Bridge Problems

State Senator Hopes to Solve Ills in Northeastern Wisconsin

A special meeting to discuss replacement and improvement of bridges has been called for Friday by Reuben La Fave, chairman of the State Senate Highways Committee, and Gordon A. Bubolz, chairman of the Wolf River Basin Regional Planning Commission.

established April 11, 1873. There have been two rural routes added since Nov. 1, 1934.

Post masters who served at Hilbert are Julius K. Dayton appointed in 1873; Jacob Marx, 1876; Julius K. Dayton, 1878; Charles Pflugrad, 1880; Theodore Runte, 1886; Julius K. Dayton, 1889; Mathias Berg, 1893; Nicholas Berg, 1895; John A. Kropp, 1897; Rose Kropp, 1913; Joseph Marx, 1916; Rudolph Zimmer, 1925; Cyril H. Eldridge, 1934; Clarence P. Gehl, 1947; Cyril Gehl, 1949 and Hauser appointed in 1954.

Participating in the dedication program will be the high school band, under the direction of William Huebner; Raymond Krautkramer will serve as master of ceremonies and the welcome will be given by the Village President, Orville Manz. The Kupsh-Brockman American Legion Post will conduct the flag raising ceremony. The invocation will be given by the Rev. John Schmitt, pastor of St. Mary Catholic Church, with the benediction by the Rev. Kenneth Weber, pastor of St. Peter Lutheran Church.

On open house is scheduled until 4 p.m.

"The heavy volume of traffic on our highways makes it imperative that we courageously tackle the 'long bridge' problem; that we improve existing and replace obsolete bridges. Quite obviously the capacity of our new expressways are hampered by 'long bridge' bottlenecks," the state senator said.

He cited the intrastate bridges section of Wisconsin statutes as "inadequate for our present day problems."

La Fave said, "It is hoped that an action program can be agreed upon to help achieve the ultimate solution."

No Contests, Few Voters at Waupaca

2,871 Ballots Cast in Primary In Modern Record Low for County

WAUPACA — A dearth of contests for Waupaca County office on both sides of the ballot resulted in a modern record low turnout of voters in the county at Tuesday's primary.

Of an estimated 15,500 voters in the county, only 2,871 showed up at the polls. And the traditional Republican domination didn't show up. GOP voters didn't have a single contest, state or local, and only 1,606 cast ballots. Democrats, with four state level contests, made it close, polling 1,211.

All precincts of the county reported far below normal balloting. The number of votes Tuesday was well under the 1964 and 1962 primaries, when

United Fund Wins Approval At Clintonville

Clubs, Businesses Represented at Organizing Meeting

CLINTONVILLE — Plans to organize a local United Fund, Inc., were approved Monday night by 35 persons at a meeting in the senior high school's Little Theater.

Representatives attended from the Clintonville Woman's Club, the Junior Woman's Club, several industries, public schools, Association of Commerce, Girl Scouts, Boy Scouts, Waupaca County Association for Retarded Children, Red Cross, Heart Fund, Brotherhood Week, Town of Larrabee, press and radio.

Louis Krueckenberg, chairman of the steering committee which was instrumental in developing plans for the United Fund here, conducted the meeting. A movie was shown explaining the United Fund, after which Arthur Malin, Appleton, director of Community Services, spoke on the subject. A question and answer session followed.

Directors Presented

After approving organization of the local unit, a slate of directors was presented. Included were from the FWD Corp. either L. A. DePolis or Philip A. Larnino; Forest Schafer, Urban Telephone Corp.; Lowell Larson, Atlas Conveyor Co.; Glenn Giersbach, Utility Tool and Body Co.; William Martens, Hansen Glove Corp.; A. C. Torborg, Clintonville Lumber and Supply Co.; and Charles Mack, president of the Clintonville Association of Commerce.

Names added from the floor were Kenneth Luebke, Quality Plumbing; K. O. Rawson, Mrs. Harold Heuer, Mrs. G. R. McCauley, John Buehrens, Chairman Harold Steenbock, Town of Larrabee; Chairman Ervin Remling, Town of Matteson, Chairman Henry Kretlow, Town of Bear Creek, and Pat O'Connell, Embarrass. Organizational representatives are Earl Genskow, American Legion; Melvin Zuhse, Veterans of Foreign Wars; Dr. H. A. Laatsch, Rotary Club; John Schroeder, Lions Club; Mrs. Gordon Rindt, Clintonville Woman's Club; Mrs. Robert Kuehl, Junior Woman's Club, and Frank Urbanz, Jaycees.

It is the purpose of the group to see when a United Fund can be started.

It was the consensus that the organization could not be started this fall. Plans had already been made for separate drives.

The steering committee, which has served its purpose, will still assist where possible and work with the board of directors whenever necessary.

BABA Championship Birnamwood to Meet Menominee for Title

MARION — Birnamwood baseball team has earned the right to meet Menominee in the BABA championship finals Sunday after downing Clintonville 5-4 Sunday while Menominee was beating Waupaca 3-1.

This is the first time Birnamwood has made the championship bracket and the second for Menominee which finished second in 1949. Birnamwood had previously lost twice in the semifinals to Marion with identical 2-1 scores.

Clintonville has won the championship five times in nine trips to the finals.

Birnamwood jumped off to a lead in the first on a three-run homer by Larry Resch. Clintonville scored one run in its half of the first on a home run by Don Jirschele. Birnamwood increased the lead in the fourth

Meetings Approved

Board members authorized attendance by the Future Farmers of America poultry judging team at the national meet to be held in Kansas City Oct. 10-14. The team, Gordon Gasch, Tom Lintner and Ronald Hillmann, won the state championship last spring. Norman Pautz, group adviser, said that the state will reimburse the district for part of room and board expenses.

Librarians Mrs. Irma Hill and Mrs. Leatrice Lutterman received permission to attend the Sept. 30 and Oct. 1 meetings of the Wisconsin Library Association in Madison.

The school lunch and special milk program application were approved.

Board members decided to attend the Oct. 12 regional meeting of the Wisconsin Association of School Boards (WASB) in Two Rivers.

Vocational School

Gordon read a communication from the WASB informing the board of the regional public hearing on area vocational-technical school districts set for Sept. 28 in Sheboygan. Present plans indicate that area districts may be established along county boundary lines, although the law allows the establishment of district lines, as well, Gordon said.

Calumet County is tentatively included with Outagamie and Winnebago counties, which meets the approval of the Chilton board. Gordon and clerk, Al Larson will attend the hearing.

Small Freshman Class

John Sandberg, high school principal, attributed the smallest increase in high school enrollment in the past five years to the freshman class, which totals only 141. There are 145 students in both the sophomore and junior classes and 139 seniors.

Supt. A. W. Gordon said the $16,010 bid of School Interiors, Inc., was accepted.

Father, Son Seek $116,000 At Waupaca

Damage Suit to Cover Injuries in Merrill Accident

WAUPACA — A Waupaca father and son have filed a damage suit, asking for $116,000 for injuries the son received in a 1963 accident.

Walter Sohrweide and his son, Larry, 1215 Riverside Ave., Waupaca, are seeking the damages from Alan Olkowski, 1207 Berlin St., Waupaca, the General Casualty Insurance Co. and the Rural Mutual Insurance Co., both of Madison.

The action, filed Monday with Waupaca Clerk of Courts Orin Stevenson, claims that the younger Sohrweide was riding in a car driven by Olkowski when it was involved in an accident with a car driven by Merton R. Kretlow, address unknown, on State 17, six miles north of Merrill, on Sept. 17, 1963.

The Sohrweides are seeking $100,000 for alleged permanent injuries Larry suffered to his left leg plus future impairment; $10,000 for future medical expenses plus $6,000 for past medical expenses.

It is charged in the suit that both Olkowski and Kretlow operated their cars over the centerline of the highway; failed to yield the right-of-way to each other, failed to keep their cars under control, and failed to keep a proper lookout.

Woman Rolls 217 Line, 521 Series at Brillion

BRILLION — Mrs. Dennis Artz rolled a 217 game and 521 series for the Brillion Sport Shop team in women's bowling action at Koffarnus Lanes.

Six teams are tied for first place with 4-2 records after the second week of league bowling. They are Rent-A-Truck, Koffarnus, Reese-Drive-In, Pete's Barber Shop, Dougherty's Grocery and 49er's Steak House.

Lawrence Will Pass More This Season, Says Roberts

By JOHN L. PAUSTIAN
Post-Crescent Sports Editor

Lawrence University's football team will "open up" its attack this season, Head Coach Ron Roberts told The Viking Bench Tuesday night at the Riverview Country Club.

Last year, the Vikes ran the ball two-thirds of the time, Roberts told members and guests of the booster group, but they will put it in the air more in '66.

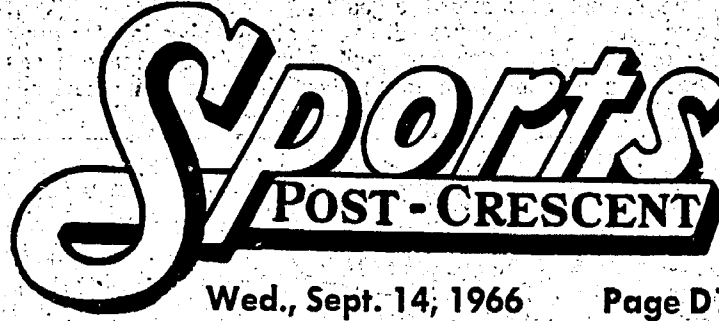

The coach said the Vikes will be a "double width" team — that is, splitting receivers on both ends. This will force the defense to commit at least two men immediately and make the Vike running game even more effective, he indicated. The Vikes plan to do some running out of the "I" formation, Roberts said.

Roberts emphasized that he is opening the season on the same optimistic note he did last year. "We've told our players we could have won the title last year," he elaborated. He said the sophomore-accented squad suffered somewhat of a letdown after the Ripon game, in which Lawrence suffered its first loss.

Lawrence will have a good running attack and "adequate passing to keep the defense off-balance," he declared. Roberts indicated that the defensive unit has lost only two regulars and that the Vike defense could be even better than last year.

Bob Long, Green Bay Packer flanker, gave a short talk as a special guest of The Viking Bench. He said his leg was "coming along fine" and that he might be ready to play in Sunday's game. Long said the injury made it a "rather frustrating month" for him.

Long told the group that the Packers' win over Baltimore was a gratifying one — especially in view of the way the Colts had boasted about what they would do. Long was introduced by Gary Knafelc, a former Packer.

Pirates, Giants Win

Johnson's Two Homers Power Dodgers to 8-3 Victory Over New York

By MURRAY CHASS
Associated Press Sports Writer

It could be the World Series for the Los Angeles Dodgers and City Hall for Lou Johnson all over again this year.

The two seem to go together, and the Dodgers couldn't be more pleased.

They maintained their 1½ game lead in the torrid National League pennant race Tuesday night by crushing the New York Mets 8-3 behind Johnson's slugging.

The left fielder clouted two homers and drove in four runs, surpassing last year's marks that helped direct him to City Hall in Los Angeles where he received a special citation for his unexpected part in the Dodgers' successful fight for the pennant.

Called in Emergency Johnson was called up to the Dodgers, his 18th team in professional baseball, in an emergency last season to fill the left field spot suddenly left vacant when Tommy Davis broke his right ankle May 1.

The Dodgers didn't really expect much from Johnson, but he did more than most of their hitters in driving them to the Series.

He batted only .259, but many of his hits were clutch hits and he drove in 58 runs and tied Jim Lefebvre for the team lead in homers with 12.

"Might Not Be Here" "If it hadn't been for the job Johnson did, we might not be here today," Sandy Koufax said after Los Angeles won the pennant.

But this year Johnson is doing even better. His performance against the Mets raised his average to .269 and vaulted him ahead of his 1965 slugging totals. He now has socked 13 homers and driven in 61 runs.

He is second in both departments only to Lefebvre, who has belted 23 homers and knocked in 72 runs.

The Dodgers certainly wouldn't mind stopping at City Hall on their way to the first game of the Series this year.

Los Angeles' two competitors also won Tuesday night, Pittsburgh remaining 1½ games back by walloping Houston 9-3 and San Francisco staying 2½ out with a 7-2 triumph over

Named NFL's Offensive Player of Week

Cardinals' Roland Honored

By JACK HAND

NEW YORK (AP) — Johnny Roland wasn't even a starter last Sunday when the St. Louis Cardinals played the Philadelphia Eagles. He didn't play in the first half, except to run back a punt for 11 yards.

But when Charley Winner, new Cardinal coach, cut him loose in the second half, he helped St. Louis turn a 10-3 deficit into a 16-13 victory. Johnny will start from now on.

Because of his inspired performance under pressure, The Associated Press has selected the Missouri rookie halfback as the Offensive Player of the Week in the National Football League.

Roland ran for first downs three times after he entered the game. He rushed eight times for 53 yards, caught two passes for 40 yards, returned two kickoffs for 50 yards and brought back two punts for 16 yards. For his first day on the job — even if it was a half day — he contributed 159 yards to total offense.

"I thought about starting Roland earlier in the week," Winner said. "But I decided to go with experience. I went to him in the second half because he's an opportunist. He reminds me of Paul Hornung in that he makes the most of what he has."

Roland, who played defense last year at Missouri to plug a need, has become a prime favorite with Card fans. He grabbed a deflected pass for a 37-yard gainer on a third-and-33 situation. The catch, after Joe Scarpati of Philadelphia and Sonny Randle of the Cards collided and both touched the ball, set up the go-ahead TD for a 13-10 lead, in the final period. Jim Bakken's 27-yard field goal finally won the game in the last five seconds. Bart Starr of Green Bay scored a touchdown on an improvised eight-yard run out of out after the running title vacated by Jim Brown when he carried 16 times for 99 yards in the Vikings' 20-20 tie with San Francisco. Fred Cox tied it with a 31-yard field goal into the wind with six seconds to go.

Homers Jones, the New York Giants' fleet spread end, scored twice at Pittsburgh on pass plays from Earl Morrall that covered 75 and 98 yards. He caught only two all day in the 34-34 tie, but they added up to 173 yards.

Nowatzke Outstanding Tom Nowatzke, the second year man from Indiana who took Nick Pietrosante's fullback job at Detroit, was outstanding for the Lions in a 14-3 upset of Chicago. Nowatzke gained 84 yards on 21 carries and ran for six of his team's 14 first downs. He also scored the first touchdown on a six-yard run.

Ernie Green rambled 88 yards on 11 runs and Frank Ryan completed 13 of 25 for three touchdowns in Cleveland's 38-14 win over Washington.

Three Injured Hawks May Play Saturday

Xavier to Make Conference Debut Against Lourdes

Xavier High School's three injured senior football players may all return to action Saturday in the Fox Valley Catholic Conference opener in Oshkosh against Lourdes.

Gene Jack and Dennis Ulman are almost sure to see action Saturday, according to Coach Gene (Torchy) Clark, while Terry Graff is a possibility for active duty. The definite word on Graff may come Thursday, Clark said.

Terry Graff, the Hawks' leading ground gainer and a regular defensive back, has had trouble with his right knee most of the young season. In last Friday's game at Rhinelander, he strained the other knee. At first, it was feared Terry would be out for some time, but the latest injury didn't prove quite as serious as expected.

Ulman, another running back, was forced out of the Rhinelander game with a back muscle injury — but it has been responding to treatment.

Misses Game Jack, a running back and a defensive back, sustained a sprained ankle in practice before the Rhinelander contest and missed all action against the Dodgers. Jack, a standout in the Hawks' opening victory against St. Paul Hill, should be ready Friday.

Last week's injuries gave sophomore Brad (Bubsy) Graff his first chance at lengthy varsity action, and he responded notably. The 153-pound speedster cracked a scoreless tie with a third-quarter touchdown. The younger Graff may start against Lourdes Saturday at a halfback spot. He also worked at quarterback in case the need arises for John Wenning to be spelled.

Clark lauded the play of his team — particularly on defense — in the two non-conference victories that boosted Xavier's 2-season win streak to 10 games. He said the Hawks have done everything expected of them — and more — against Hill and Rhinelander who outweighed Xavier by 10 and 15 pounds per man, respectively.

LA's Sutton May be Lost For Season

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Don Sutton, rookie right-handed pitcher for the Los Angeles Dodgers, may be through for the season.

A strained muscle in his pitching arm has sidelined the star hurler for at least 10 days, a Dodger official said Tuesday.

Sutton, who has won 12 of 23 decisions, complained of pain Tuesday and team physician Dr. Robert Kerlan said the rookie would miss at least two pitching turns.

"And if he misses two turns, it may be tough for him to get back in good enough shape to pitch again this season," Dr. Kerlan said.

Sporting a solid team of nine lettermen and a number of experienced players, the Neenah Rockets have been tabbed as the team to beat in the Mid-Eastern Conference.

League action gets underway this weekend after a set of non-conference tilts last Friday and Saturday in which M-E teams received some rough treatment in the won-lost department.

Out of eight games played last Friday and Saturday, only three M-E teams, Neenah, New London and Kaukauna, managed to come out with victories.

Wins Four Crowns Neenah has wrapped up four consecutive Mid-Eastern titles, all under the guidance of Coach Harland Carl. The Rockets have a new head coach this season in Ben Meixl, now that Carl has joined the University of Wisconsin coaching staff.

Chief threats to Neenah's march toward a fifth crown appear to be Kaukauna, Clintonville and a darkhorse New London team.

Kaukauna and Clintonville have a good number of holdovers from last season and the Ghosts are perennial contenders because of their hard-nosed game.

10 Lettermen

New London had a 3-3 record last season and has 10 lettermen back. When fullback Henry Linke recovers from a collarbone fracture the Bulldogs will be even tougher and could cause trouble for any team in the circuit.

Here is a rundown on teams and their top performers: Neenah: The Rockets, with a senior-dominated starting unit, appear to be the team to beat and the 19-13 non-conference victory over Monona Grove last weekend should about clinch this argument.

New coach Ben Meixl will send his gridders against Clintonville in the opener with an attack directed by veteran Gary Losse at quarterback.

Other starters back from last year are Jim Burton, end; Jim Fettes, guard and Greg Nash, guard. In all, the Rockets have nine lettermen as a nucleus.

Menasha: Coach Tom Weede's club bowed to Berlin last Saturday and early indications point to a long season for the Bluejays, unless underclassmen develop in a hurry.

Lightly-regarded Berlin came back from a 7-0 deficit to beat the Bluejays, 13-7, in the non-loop game.

Has 9 Lettermen Menasha has nine lettermen and a newcomer, Tom Kenney operating at quarterback. In the Berlin game, letterman Jim Krautkrammer paced the running attack. Biggest man on the squad is letterman Dan Lingnolski, a 280-pound junior tackle.

Kaukauna: Coach Harry Wilson, of the Ghosts, has 13 lettermen back, but must fill the gaps caused by the graduation of six 2- and 3-year regulars from last season.

Kaukauna had a disappointing record last year, but the Ghosts may be ready to return to the thick of the M-E battle if the 19-

Doesn't Consider Sunday's Contest As 'Grudge Match'

CLEVELAND (AP) — "I don't consider this any grudge game," says Blanton Collier. The Cleveland Browns coach was referring to Sunday's game against the Green Bay Packers, who beat the Browns for the National Football League championship in January, 23-12. "Some people have been making a point of this (grudge) because of our loss in the championship game," Collier said Tuesday. "This is another season and another game. We're looking forward, not backward."

The game at Cleveland Municipal Stadium is expected to be a sellout, which means a crowd of over 80,000. Collier feels the clubs are "pretty even."

Have Fine Speed "They have fine speed in their defensive backfield, for instance but I think we pretty well match it," he said. "Linebacker is a Green Bay strength and they have a great one in Ray Nitschke."

Collier indicated a key to a possible Browns' victory could be defensive tackles Frank Parker, Walter Johnson and Jim Kanicki. They had the "size, speed and brains to do the job," he added.

Collier switched to the Packers. "They are different from most other clubs in that they have an almost perfect balance of running and passing," he said. "Many people credit them only with a good running game."

Passing Attack "They also have a fine passing attack," he added. "Bart Starr is a quarterback who gets the maximum out of his own ability. He can throw and also carry out the game plan. This is a fellow who has the ability it takes to concentrate. During that ball control demonstration against Baltimore, some of the short passing was sensational."

The Packers beat the Colts, 24-3. Cleveland opened with a 38-14 victory over the Washington Redskins.

The Browns will have an extra running back to use against Green Bay. Fullback Nick Pietrosante officially was added to the squad and flanker Tom Hutchinson put on waivers as an injured player Tuesday.

Caffey Named Top Defensive Player of Week

Interception Keys Packers' 24-3 Win Over Baltimore

By KEN HARTNETT
GREEN BAY (AP) — Loping Lee Roy Caffey has turned his back on the backfield. He's finding all the running room he needs as a member of the Green Bay Packers' linebacking corps.

Caffey, a fullback in his college days at Texas A&M, ran like one last Saturday night

when he intercepted a John Unitas pass and raced 52 yards for a touchdown against the Baltimore Colts.

The touchdown sparked the Packers to a 24-3 win and earned Caffey The Associated Press award as National Football League defensive player of the week.

"I definitely miss the excitement of running with the ball," said Caffey.

"Gained Weight" "But I've gained a lot of weight since college," he said. "I was 220 as a fullback then. Now I'm up to about 240-245. I don't think I could ever play the backfield now."

Besides, Caffey is having too much fun playing in a crew that includes battle-worned Ray Nitschke and the strong and swift Dave Robinson.

"I'm at home back there," said Caffey, who came to the Packers in a trade with the Philadelphia Eagles two years ago. "And I have the best in the backfield now."

Brillion Mayor Vetoes Rezoning Plan

BRILLION — A resolution, of mixed land uses until poor patterns of use are established, passed by a 5-1 vote, to change an area on S. Main Street from residential to commercial zoning was vetoed by Mayor Clarence Wolf at Monday's city council meeting.

Two houses now occupy the 165-foot square parcel of land being sought by a supermarket developer for a $150,000 store.

Eleven of 15 property owners adjacent to 100 feet from the land signed a petition last month to retain the area as residential. Several of them were at Monday's session and reiterated their reasons against the change. Depreciation of adjacent land value, added traffic and proximity to the school were some reasons they cited.

The mayor used his veto power, he said, because "a zoning ordinance is to promote the health, safety, morals and general welfare of structures and land for trade, industry, residence and other purposes. A zoning ordinance establishes the rules that prevent one man from using his land in a manner that might harm his neighbor. Zoning is both protective and restrictive. If used wisely and intelligently, both public and private investments are protected."

Warns of Dangers

Wolf went on to say, "Unfortunately, communities usually are not alerted to the dangers of mixed land uses until poor patterns of use are established. In other words, the value of property — instead of being stable — might become unstable."

"Basic changes in a zoning ordinance should take months, sometimes years, to adequately achieve," he said.

The local planning commission made a recommendation for the change early in July. The mayor said that his understanding was that the intent was to get the citizen's reaction at a public hearing. He then cited the petition signed by 11 land owners and opposition voiced at a public hearing last month.

Aldermen Protest
Several members of the city council contend that their vote in favor of the change was made "for orderly growth of business establishments in our city in a north-south direction. Our interests are in what is best for all citizens of our community, not just the 15 adjacent property owners," one said.

Other zoning changes have been made in the past to accommodate a new establishment, so consistency should prevail, one alderman said.

The mayor's veto can be upset only by a two-thirds majority vote at the next council meeting.

Bids on the extensive city sidewalk construction project were opened at the meeting.

Low bidder for the 55,000 square feet of four-inch concrete and 4,700 square feet of six-inch concrete was Henry Verbrugge Construction Co., Little Chute. Its bid was 37 and 47 cents per square foot, respectively. The total amount would be $22,559 for the over five miles of sidewalk. The firm is presently under contract by the city for a $24,360 curb and gutter project.

Carl Bertram, director of the Appleton Vocational and Adult School was on hand to urge the council to consider adding Brillion to the proposed Fox Cities Area Vocational and Adult Technical School District. Twenty-three area school districts would make up the contemplated district, he said. The total number of high school graduates yearly, students in vocational schools, population and a tax base of more than $1.29 billion would substantially exceed the criteria adopted by the state, according to Bertram.

Intersection Plans
A plan for the intersection layout at S. Main Street at Horn Street has been sent to the State Highway Commission for approval. Paul Bishop of McMahon Associates, Inc., an engineering firm, reported at the meeting. State approval is necessary because Main Street is a state highway.

The budget committee will be meeting during Oct., the mayor announced. Departments seeking funds were urged to present their requests to the city clerk or the finance committee chairman by Oct. 1.

Eldore Goldschmidt was given permission to move his house from the city to a lot in the town of Brillion. Conditions of the permit state that he assumes responsibility for any damage to city property incurred during the move.

R. R. Toepel was re-elected to a 5-year term on the utility commission.

Council members okayed re-investment of approximately $50,000 of water system mortgages revenue bond money in U. S. treasury notes.

The city council, city planning commission, citizens advisory committee and a representative of the department of resource development will meet at 7:30 p.m. Sept. 19, to discuss updating of the city comprehensive plan.

$2.5 Million Available, But No One Wants It

SANTA FE, N.M. (AP) — The state Health Department says it has $2.5 million in federal water pollution control funds to distribute but no takers for the money.

The Governor's Advisory Council on Water Pollution Control is scheduled to meet Oct. 17 to consider proposals for allocation of the grants.

of Black Creek, Bovina, Center, Cicero, Dale, Deer Creek, Ellington, Grand Chute, Greenville, Hortonville, Liberty, Maine and Maple Creek; the villages of Bear Creek, Black Creek, Hortonville and Shiocton, New London's Third Ward and the five Appleton wards.

Van Vuren, former publisher of the Seymour-Black Creek Community Press, outpolled Rogers in his home Seymour by a 116-34 margin. The only other advantages Van Vuren won were in the Town of Seymour, 16-15; Town of Buchanan, 34-27; and Town of Osborn, 26-14.

As expected, Rogers came on strongest in the city of Kaukauna's five wards, where he outpolled Van Vuren by 700-298. Kimberly went 297-115 for Rogers and Little Chute went 235-118.

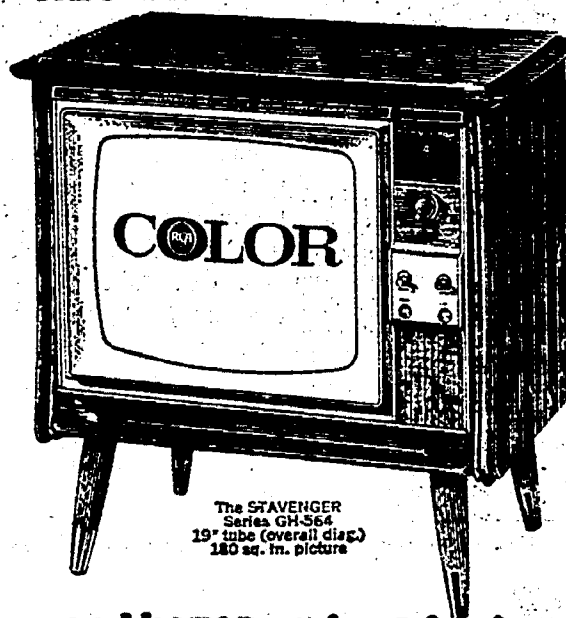

In addition to those mentioned, the second district is comprised of the towns of Freedom, Kaukauna, Oneida and Vandenberg and the village of Combined Locks.
